OUR COUNTRY: First, Last and Forever.

"It is part of the business of the 20th Century Press Clipping Bureau, of Chicago, to know which paper in each town and city contains the most matter of interest to the largest number of critical readers. Every paper has been selected solely on its merits by comparison with its competitors."

The HERALD is the only paper printed in Shenandoah that is numbered in the list of leading papers of the country as compiled in the Blue Book. Advertisers will appreciate this fact when selecting a medium in which to reach the buyers.

Republican Record on Trusts.

It is the Republican party, not the Democratic, says the St. Louis Democrat, that has legislated nationally against trusts. A Democratic Congress never originated any anti-trust law, but a law of this nature has been greatly weakened by Democratic votes. Thus stands the official record of Congress. Republican administrations have acted in restraint of trusts. Democratic administrations have either done nothing or undermined the Republican statute passed for trust restriction.

Many Democrats who are shouting for an anti-trust campaign next year imagine that they have turned up a new issue, and one in which their party is not handicapped by past misdeeds and blunders. They are mistaken. As far as Congress has acted on this question since 1890 the Republican policy has been to prohibit monopolistic business combinations and the Democratic policy to overthrow the anti-trust provisions passed by the party they antagonize. These facts will surprise many Democrats now so enthusiastic over their newfound issue. But the truth of the matter is imbedded in the laws of the country, where comparison is easy, and in the reports of Congress, whose accuracy is unchallenged.

In the McKinley tariff law of 1890 is a section to the effect that "Every contract, combination in the form of trust or otherwise, or conspiracy, in restraint of trade or commerce among the several states, or with foreign nations, is hereby declared to be illegal." A person infringing the law was made liable to a fine not exceeding $5000, or imprisonment for one year, or both. The same penalty was provided against any person attempting to form such combinations. This law was passed in 1890 by Republican votes, every Democrat and Populist in both houses of Congress voting against it.

By the election of 1892 the entire political control of the country passed to the Democrats. In 1894 they put through the Wilson bill, repealing the McKinley law of 1890, and vitally modifying the anti-trust sections referred to, giving it a free trade bias, and affecting exclusively trusts engaged in the importing trade, of which, as a matter of fact, there are none. The McKinley law of 1890 made all trusts engaged in interstate commerce illegal. The Wilson law of 1894 cut this out, every Democrat voting for and every Republican against the change. When the Dingley law was under consideration Republicans wanted to restore the anti-trust sections to their original form, but they had no majority in the Senate, and found it impossible to reinstate the law.

Any fair minded person who will compare the McKinley law of 1890 with the Wilson law of 1894 will see the radical change made in the anti-trust clauses. The Republican law restrained all trusts; the Democratic law narrowed the whole subject to importers of foreign goods concerned in trusts. It was the Republican purpose to destroy the trusts. The Democratic object was to destroy the protective idea and to charge upon protection the development of trusts. Since the Wilson law was passed the Republicans have had no majority in both houses until the election of the present Congress, which has not yet assembled, and will not meet until December, unless summoned by the President.

There are strong indications now in Democratic speeches and comment that the talk against trusts is to be mixed up with an attack on a protective tariff. The trusts have to thank this free trade game for their Wilson law windfall of 1894, with its changes in the law relieving them from prosecution unless engaged in the importing trade.

Probably Wrecked by Strikers.

Rockport, Mass., June 8.—The house occupied by John Nelson and six other men, all of whom are employed by the Rockport Granite company, was badly wrecked by a charge of dynamite during the night. The explosion, it is thought, was discharged by some one interested in the strike which has prevailed at the Rockport company's quarries for several weeks. Nelson and his companions have continued at work in spite of the strike and the police think the action was for the purpose of intimidating them.

DEATH OF AUGUSTIN DALY.

The Dramatic Critic Who Became a Successful Author and Manager.

London, June 8.—Mr. Augustin Daly, the well known American theatrical manager and author, died suddenly at the Hotel Continental yesterday afternoon. Heart failure is given as the cause of death.

Augustin Daly was born in Plymouth, N. C., July 20, 1838. His education was received partly in Norfolk, Va., and in the public schools of New York city. He began his literary career as dramatic editor of the Sunday Courier, in New York city, in 1859, and he continued to discharge similar functions on that and other New York papers until 1896, when he opened the Fifth Avenue theater. This building was destroyed by fire in 1873, and three weeks later he opened another theater, formerly the Globe, in Broadway, under the former name. Early in August, 1879, he established Daly's theater, in Broadway, near Thirtieth, and several years ago he opened in London, England, a thoroughly equipped house under the same name. For several seasons he managed the Grand Opera House in New York. His career as dramatic author began in 1862, with an adaption from the German of Mozenthal's "Deborah," and since then he has produced many original plays, among them "Divorce," "Pique," "Horizon," "Under the Gaslight" and numerous adaptions from French and German dramatists. In recent years Daly's company of comedians has achieved an international reputation.

Another Alabama Lynching.

Huntsville, Ala., June 8.—Will Hill, brother of Alex. Hill, the negro who killed Mrs. Hester Hubbard near Eolina on Monday, was captured near McCulley's Mill on Tuesday, taken near the scene of his crime and killed. His head was shot into a shapeless mass. He confessed he was with Alexander Hill at the time Mrs. Hubbard was killed, and that he and his brother went to Hubbard's for the purpose of killing and robbing Mrs. Hubbard. The men first hanged him to a limb and then cut him down. He was then tied to a tree, and a volley fired into his head. The husband of the murdered woman was present.

Alien Law Affects Laborers Only.

Milwaukee, June 8.—The United States court of appeals, holding court in this city, yesterday handed down an important decision affecing the alien labor law. The decision interprets the alien law as to apply solely to common laborers, exempting clerks and all kinds of skilled artists. The decision holds it was the intent of congress solely to shut out the importation of common laborers under contract to work in mines, in lumbering camps and on the railroads. The decision is in the case of George H. Gay, of Indianapolis, who brought a clerk from Scotland under contract.

Chicago Police Official Accused.

Chicago, June 8.—The old charges implicating high police officials in the Schrage bond robbery were revived yesterday in the criminal court when "Red Chris" Strook was called for trial before Judge Gary. The prisoner swore that if the case was postponed until the next term he would produce a witness who would give sensational testimony, fastening the guilt upon Muldoon, Goslin, "Sleepy" Burke, Baker, Hunt and the police. The witness is John A. Riley, of Philadelphia, formerly a bond broker in Chicago. Judge Gary refused to continue the trial and representatives of the defense started for the east and will endeavor to bring Riley back with them. Strook's attorneys say they have assurances that Riley will on the stand divulge the name of the police official and give incontrovertible evidence of his guilt.

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

President Thomson's Successor.

Philadelphia, June 8.—It was learned today from what is believed to be a trustworthy source that the directors of the Pennsylvania railroad will elect First Vice President John P. Green to the presidency, and from the same source of information it is learned that Mr. Green will accept the place. Mr. Green's elevation will cause a moving up of the other vice presidents, and Second Vice President Charles E. Pugh will be made first vice president, and Third Vice President S. M. Prevost will be made second vice president. Samuel Rea, first assistant to the president, will be elected third vice president.

Cuban Commissioner Quesada.

Havana, June 8.—Governor General Brooke issued orders yesterday appointing Senor Gonzales de Quesada special commissioner for Cuba at Washington, with a salary of $5,000. A majority of the most prominent Cubans in Havana are much pleased with this appointment, considering it a just reward of years of faithful service. On the other hand, the former members of the military assembly say that the appointment is an intentional insult, on the ground, as they allege, that Senor de Quesada is a traitor to the real interests of the island.

Automobile Race Challenge Accepted

New York, June 8.—Charles B. Shanks, representing Alexander Winton, of Cleveland, yesterday posted $4,000 in New York to cover a similar amount held in Paris to bind a challenge from H. Charron, the French automobolist, for an automobile race between Chicago and New York. The challenge and its acceptance is the outcome of the trip recently made in an automobile of his own manufacture by Mr. Winton from Cleveland to New York. The race is to be run between Aug. 1 and 22.

Death of the Nun of Kenmare.

London, June 8.—Sister Margaret Ann Cusack, known as the Nun of Kenmare, died yesterday at Leamington, near Warwick. During the famine in Ireland in the eighties she took subscriptions and collected a great amount of money for the relief of the sufferers. She went to the United States and lived for a while in New Jersey. She belonged at that time to the Sisters of Mercy, but she afterwards founded an order called "The Sisters of Peace."

Terrors of the Klondike.

Seattle, Wash., June 8.—The list of prospectors who have perished in their rush to the Yukon gold fields over the Edmonton trail is growing, and if reports brought down by the steamer Laurada from southeastern Alaska are to be believed it will be very large when the full story is told. Fifty are reported to have been drowned in Great Slave lake, 20 have perished in the rapids of the Mud and Laird rivers, 10 have frozen to death, 25 have died from scurvy and the bodies of a score who died from exposure have been found.

READY FOR THE CONTEST.

Fitzsimmons and Jeffries Have Both Stopped Active Training.

New York, June 8.—With the contest for the heavyweight championship only 48 hours off both Fitzsimmons and Jeffries did some light work yesterday, but both practically stopped training, their respective managers being satisfied with the men's conditions.

At the Loch Arbor training quarters near Asbury Park, N. J., there was quite a large gathering of sporting men, and all of them were much impressed with the appearance of the Californian. The big aspirant for championship honors was the liveliest one of the party. Only very light exercise is being indulged in by Jeffries today, and tomorrow morning he, with all his training attendants, will leave for Coney Island, where they will remain in a hotel close by the club house until the time arrives for the big event to take place.

JAMES J. JEFFRIES.

During the afternoon George Siler, of Chicago, who is to referee the big mill, called upon Fitzsimmons and Martin Julian. The three talked over the interpretation of the rules, and Fitzsimmons assured Siler that he was quite satisfied with the conditions.

Bound, Gagged, Robbed and Murdered

Chicago, June 8.—Martin Meier, a wealthy and eccentric Swiss, was found dead yesterday in a house on Fifty-seventh street, which he occupied alone. The condition in which he was found points to murder, with robbery as the motive. Meier's hands were tied behind his back with a rope, his feet were bound with a leather strap and around his neck was twisted a towel. Another towel was bound around the old man's eyes. Nearly every article in the house had been overturned by supposed robbers. Meier was a marble polisher and was reputed to have accumulated a fortune of nearly $100,000. For years he had lived alone in the little house, and had the reputation of being a miser.

Augusta's Disastrous Fire.

Augusta, Ga., June 8.—The largest fire in Augusta's history in many years burned over the same district that was swept seven years ago. Several buildings that escaped at the time are now smoking ruins. The fire started in the drug store of Davenport & Phinizy. A negro was mixing a pot of venus turpentine when fire got in the pot and the flames spread so rapidly that employes in the front part of the store barely escaped. During the height of the excitement 10,000 rounds of cartridges in the armory, which was also burned, began to explode and for about an hour there was an incessant fusillade of shots that sounded like a real battle. The total loss is about $250,000, with $155,000 insurance.

Murder Charge Not Sustained.

New York, June 8.—The police department said yesterday that at least part of the story told in Philadelphia Tuesday night by Mrs. Samuel McKinney accusing her husband of several crimes is true. The woman declared that McKinney killed a man in Irvington, N. Y., in 1874, and that he had robbed John Wendell of this city, of $20,000 worth of securities. The murder story cannot be authenticated, but the police say that John Wendell was robbed by McKinney, who was caretaker for him, in 1896. The theft was reported to the police at the time, but they were unable to do anything about it.

THE MAZET PROBERS.

Captain Price Still Treats Counsel Moss With Disdain.

New York, June 8.—For several hours yesterday the Mazet investigating committee sweltered and listened to testimony that at no time produced startling or particularly weighty statements, but just as the committee was about to adjourn for the day a slight clash occurred between the Mazetters and a court of law. Subpoenaes were issued by Magistrate Olmstead and served upon the members and on the counsel of the committee to attend the examination of Henry C. Henderson this morning in the Centre street police court. Henderson is Captain Price's counsel, who was ejected from the court room last week.

Mr. Mazet immediately said that the committeemen would not answer, as members of the legislature were not amenable to ordinary subpoena. Mr. Hoffman differed, saying that as the legislature was not in session there was no immunity. Mr. Moss, to smooth over matters, said he would send a note to Magistrate Olmstead asking that the hearing be set for some time which would not interfere with the committee's work.

The most important witness examined yesterday was Captain Price, and the main of the work of the committee was in examining Price and other witnesses in an effort to show that the police captain had not attended to his duty as a police officer. Much of the same enmity that was shown the committee by Price on previous days was exhibited, and the captain was noticeably defiant and menacing in his attitude toward Mr. Moss.

Other witnesses were examined to show that pool rooms, policy shops and other gambling houses were running in the "tenderloin" district without molestation from the police. Captain Price denied that there were any such establishments in the district, and several other policemen pleaded ignorance of their existance.

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.
