PRESIDENT CASSATT.

A RAILROADER FROM BOYHOOD.

He Was First Vice President of the Road Under Mr. Roberts, and Hesigned to 1882, But Was Induced to Roturn to the Directorate.

Philadelphia, June 10.—At a special neeting of the board of directors of the Pennsylvania railrond yesterday afternoon A. J. Cassatt, of this city, was elected president to succeed the late Frank Thomson. James McCrea, of Pitisburg, first vice president of the Pennsylvanis company, was chosen a member of the board of directors to fill the vacancy created by Mr. Cas-satt's election to the presidency. Mr. Cassatt's elevation to the presi-

Mr. Cassatt's elevation to the presidency of the great corporation with which he has been connected for so many years caused surprise in railroad and financial circles, as it had been generally anticipated that First Vice President Green or one of the other vice presidents would secure the henor. The board of directors, however, were unanimously of the opinior that the emergency caused by the sud-den death of Mr. Thomson could best be met by Mr. Cassatt, and that gentle-man, after some hesitation, concluded to accept the responsibility. Like Mr. Thomson, Mr. Cassatt has been connected with the company since his beyhood, and has a thorough knowledge of the road, its resources and bus-iness. In 1882 he resigned as first vice president of the company, but was sub-sequently induced to become a direc-tor, and since then he has taken a most active interest in the affairs of the company, occupying, in fact, the position of managing director, or "power behind the throne." It is no disparagement of Mr. Thomson's ability or power to say that Mr. Cassatt's authority in the management of the road was equal to that of the late president. Mr. Cassatt is perhaps the best known railroad man in the country, and he will undoubtedly be a leader in trunk line councils.

Robert S. Cassatt, was for a number of years closely identified with the financial and industrial interests of western Pennsylvania, and was the first mayor of Allegheny City. A. J. Cassatt re-ceived his primary education in the schools of Pittsburg, took a liberal course in the famous University of Heidelberg, and in 1859 graduated as a civil engineer from the Rensselaer Polytechnic college at Troy, N. Y. In Polytechnic college, at Troy, N. Y. In 1861 he settled in Philadelphia and was appointed a rodman on the Philadel-phia division of the Pennsylvania railroad. Two years later he was made an assistant engineer, and in 1864, when the Pennsylvania railroad assumed control of the Philadelphia and Erie road, Mr. Cassatt was transferred to Renovo, Pa., and appointed resident engineer of the middle division. Later he was appointed manager in charge of the Warren and Franklin railroad, a branch road in the oil regions, and afterward was made assistant general superintendent of the Philadelphia and Erie railroad. In 1866 Mr. Cassatt was transferred to Williamsport, with the title of superintendent of motive power and machinery of the Philadelphia and Eric, and again in 1867 he was appointed to the like position on the Pennsylvania raliroad, with headquarters at Altoona. In 1870 he was made general superintendent, and in 1871, when the Pennsylvania road leased the United raliroads of New Jorsey, he was appointed general manager of all the Pennsylvania lines. In 1874 Mr. Cas. Pennsylvania lines. In 1874 Mr. Cassat was advanced to the position of third vice president, which office he held until 1880, when, upon the retire-ment of President Scott and the ac-cession to the presidency of Mr. Roberts, he became first vice president. In September, 1882, he resigned his high office and retired to private life, but a few years later he was induced to accept a seat in the directory of the

A Wreck From Catarrh and Asthma.

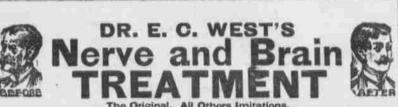

RESTORED WITH BRAZILIAN BALM

I was known as "The Woman who Coughs," for I coughed incessantly. I was a school teacher till my health failed. Catarrh had eaten away the partition in my nose. It had produced Bronchitis, Asthma, dreadful Stomach troubles and weak kidneys. In fact it had gone all through my system, making me an easy victim for the Grippe which left me a wreck in mind and body. This was the condition the doctors left me in, after dosing me with opium, quinine, etc. Then I bought cough cures without end but they only made me worse, I was in despair till I got hold of Brazilian Balm and Toxicola Tablets. They acted like magic from the first, and in a few weeks I was cured and better than I had been in years. Talk about wonderful remedies, Brazilian Balm and Toxicola saved my life.
