

The Very Thing.

The Right Remedy at the Right Price. This is our business. Don't attempt to buy your own doctor, but don't run the risk of suffering or endanger your health by being misled by cheap remedies that do not do what they claim to do. A bottle of pure glycerine of blackberry is a good thing to have through the hot weather. It overcomes the painful effect of too much fruit.

Eye Treatment For Children.

Many children are allowed to wink and blink through the day's study, and at home, with a book six or eight inches from the eyes. During childhood, the ocular nerves and muscles are very sensitive and may be exposed to severe inflammation and strain by overwork. Where a child was formerly doped with drugs for nervous and muscular trouble he is now cured with glasses.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

Interesting Exercises Held in Several of the Churches Yesterday. In most of the Protestant churches of town yesterday the regular services were dispensed with and the annual Children's Day exercises were held, under the auspices of the respective Sunday schools. All the churches were beautifully decorated for the occasion and excellent programs comprising musical and literary exercises of a sacred character were presented. The parents and friends of the children assembled in large numbers at the respective churches. The programs rendered at the respective places were as follows:

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.
The Junior exercises were held in the morning under the direction of Miss Priscilla Parry and Mr. James Patterson. Singing, congregation; Apostle's creed; prayer; Mr. E. Webster; anthem, "Let Mount Zion Rejoice"; choir; singing, primary school; address of welcome; Mrs. Della Spens, Rebecca Jones and Marie Evans; recitation, "The Children's Part," Clayton Frost; "Little Workers," primary scholars; "Little Things," six girls; "Do Something for Somebody Quick," Mildred Gregory, Della Spens, Day Bonn and David Hoover; "The Garden of Life," Hatlie Lockett; "In Our Dear Lord's Garden," primary school; address, H. E. Dangler; anthem, choir; "A Good Way of Giving," Howard Davis; "The Forget-me-not Band," primary scholars; "A Little Child Shall Lead Them," Theodore Williams; anthem, choir; motion song, primary school; "Only Small Boys," Mrs. Gregory; "The Old Folks' Hymn and Response," Jennie Dittler. The exercises closed with singing by the choir.

The evening session was devoted to the exercises of the senior classes, under the direction of the superintendent, Dr. S. Callen. Mr. J. Price was the musical director and Prof. E. W. Wilde's orchestra assisted. The following was the program: Singing, "All Hail," congregation; prayer, H. E. Dangler; singing, "The Crowning Day of the Year," school; opening address, George Daddow; double quartet, "Hail, Day of Gladness," Mrs. Thomas Minnie and Eva Powell, Hannah Davis, Dr. D. Dean Price, James Hough, Wm. Thomas, Charles Bashore; responsive reading, "We Will Worship Thee," superintendent and school; prayer, Dr. J. S. Callen; singing, "Living in the Sunshine," school; recitation, Dean Adams; singing, "Happy and Best," primary school; responsive reading, "Christ the Light," superintendent and school; recitation, "Who Fain Would Follow Jesus," John Swain; singing, "You Can Have the Joy of Jesus," school; recitation, "A Transformed Life," Amy Frost; singing, "Happy Day to Zion," Sunday school; recitation, "Bible Illustration," three girls and two boys; responsive reading, "God's Love and Care for the Flowers," superintendent and school; singing, by request a recitation from the morning program "Little Blossoms," primary scholars; remarks by the superintendent, Dr. J. S. Callen; collection and singing, "The Inspired Song," a male party; singing, "The Palace of Song," school; recitation, "A Little Lamb," Lizzie Rogers; singing, "Help the Children," solo; duet and chorus, Minnie and Eva Powell and school; recitation, "The Lord's Prayer," Helen Price, Della Spens, Dr. D. Dean Price and Leon Wasley; chorus of girls and school, "Praise Our Creator," Miss Maggie Palmer's class and school; recitation, "Write It," Grover Shoemaker.

This was followed by one of the features of the program, "The Holy Ghost," the choir singing the first verse while marching from the vestibule to the platform. The following verses were sung by the Sunday school in general assembly, led by the choir. This was followed by the doxology and closing prayer by Dr. J. S. Callen.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.
Afternoon and evening exercises were held in the above church, the former under direction of Mr. Edward Cooper, and the latter were conducted by Mrs. E. C. Malick. The representative programs were:

Afternoon.—Singing, school; prayer; singing, school; recitation, Fannie Esterligger; recitation, Lizzie Taylor; recitation, Maud Helgel; singing, school; recitation, Edna Major; recitation, Jeannette Broxton; recitation, Agnes Helgel; solo, Lizzie Esterligger; recitation, Martha Lewis; recitation, Fannie Esterligger; singing, school; instrumental duet, Marcella and Harry Davis; recitation, Mamie Pasco; recitation, Verma Cooper; recitation, Myal Ballou; recitation, Thomas James; closing ode, school.

Evening.—"Blossom Time," organ voluntary; carol, "Blossom Time," school; invocation; duet, "We Meet in His Temple To-day," class of girls; responsive bible reading, school; carol, "We Are Coming," school; recitation, "Nature and Nature's God," Gerlie James; anthem, choir; address, pastor; hymn, "Stand Up For Jesus," congregation; recitation, "What am I Doing for Jesus," Jeannette Broxton; carol, "Happy Youthful Band," school; solo recitation, "Flower-gatherers," six girls; carol, "Our Home so Fair," school; primary department recitations; dialogue, "Joy is Everywhere," five children; motion song, "Sunny Days," class of girls; dialogue, "Jesus' Little Ones," three children; anthem, choir; responsive reading, school; recitation, "Missionary Music," Eddie Taylor; offering and anthem; carol, "Waiting for a Messenger," school; recitation, "Under Our Banner," Frank Pasco; duet, "A Song of Peace," M. Davis and M. Dabb; prayer; National hymn, congregation.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.
The Children's Day service was held in the evening, under direction of the superintendent, Mr. John P. Williams. "Scattering Precious Seed" was the title of the exercises, which opened with instrumental music and singing by the Sunday school and congregation, after which prayer was offered. Scripture reading, school and congregation; singing, "Children's Day Greeting," school; recitation, "Which?" Hannah Jones; recitation, "All the Good We Can," Joseph Jones; recitation, "A Prayer for a Flower," Margaret Howells; singing, school; recitation, "Scatter Precious Seed," Walter Capper; select reading, "Patchwork," Miss Sallie Griffith's class; recitation, "A Waltz," Edith Perce; recitation, Miriam and Garfield Jones; singing, "Scatter Precious Seed," school; scripture reading, leader and class; recitation, "The King and Laborer," Sarah Rogers; recitation, "Each in Its Own Way," Laura Williams; recitation, "Willie's Rebellion," John Budd's class. This program was then followed by the primary department exercises, opening with the singing of "Little Ones" by the school; recitation, "Mother's Face," Mary Whomley; exercises, "Lessons From a Penny," Miss Blower's class; recitation, "The Boat Way," Etie Potts; recitation, "Dollie's Excuse," Gwendolyn Jones; recitation, "The Difficult School," Jennie Dittler; scripture reading, leader and class; emblematic exercises, "The Beacon Light," by several young ladies; singing, "Offerings of Love," school; address on the work of the American Baptist Publication Society by Mr. John P. Williams, followed by a missionary offering, singing by the school and benediction.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.
The exercises at the First Presbyterian church last evening were of an unusually interesting character. The decorations were the most beautiful the church had had for many Children's Days. Above the back of the pulpit was a large letter "A" of ferns and flowers, presenting the word "Alpha." On either side of this character were vases of flowers, and suspended beneath them garlands of daisies and ferns. The large festoons of ferns were gracefully suspended from above the pulpit to the corners of the platform, along the front of which was a bank of laurel and daisies, and interspersed among the decorations were cages of beautiful songsters. The large audience were well pleased with the manner in which those who took part acquitted themselves. The following is the program as it was rendered: Anthem, choir; prayer, pastor, Rev. Kohler; address of welcome, Verma Meyrick; singing, "Rejoice, ye saints," school; responsive reading, school; duet, Messrs. Barber and Williams; recitation, "Dr. Worden's letter," Miss Pender; singing, school; the "Victory," school; readings, describing the 20th century movement in the Presbyterian church, Mrs. Kohler and Miss Fairchild; recitation and refrain, infant class; recitation, "A Beautiful Teacher," Paul Houch; singing, "I must tell Jesus," school; readings, pastor and young ladies; singing, "Our Father in Heaven," infant class; recitations, four boys; recitation, Walter Kase; singing, Miss Johnson's and Miss Graham's classes; recitation, Albert Jones; recitation, Jay Kowser; singing, "The Comforter has come," school; recitation, Robert Jones; recitation, Willie Sheoler; responsive reading, school; address to children, pastor; offering; anthem, choir; singing, "Jesus shall reign," school; benediction, pastor.

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH.
The exercises in the Trinity Reformed were as follows: Anthem, choir; invocation, pastor, Rev. Yorkick; introductory, superintendent; singing, school; prayer, superintendent and school; "Gloria," congregation; prayer, pastor and school; singing, school; exercise, "Emmanuel's Banner," seven scholars; "Follow all the Way," infant department; "Lamb of the Flock," infant department; "Flowers," infant department; recitation, "Mary, Mother of Jesus," illustrations, four boys and four girls; "Forget-me-not Band," four scholars; singing, school; "Flower Gatherers," six scholars; "Glorious Message," three scholars; "Jesus Little Ones," three scholars; "Joy is Everywhere," five scholars; "Praise Him," infant department; "Mary, Mother of Jesus," four scholars; recitation, infant department; solo and chorus, infant department; dialogue, "The Fairest Month of All," fifteen scholars; "Follow Me," eight scholars; recitation, Bertha Yearick; singing, school; address, pastor; anthem, choir; "Steps Heavenward," (tableau) six girls; singing, school; closing, doxology and benediction.

THE WEATHER.

The heated spell in the South Atlantic states was broken yesterday by showers. Showers have occurred in the Middle and South Atlantic states, the Ohio and Lower Mississippi valleys, and in the North Pacific states. Areas of high pressure are central of the southern New England and North Pacific coasts.

Forecast for this section until 8 p. m. today: Increasing cloudiness; light southeasterly winds. Threatening weather tomorrow.
