The fact that dur-ing a state delegate 6ght at Tamaqua some years ago a draft on M. S. Quay was eashed at a bank in that town is likely to play an important part in the trial. A similar con-test in Shenandoah is also being inquired

In order to counteract this testimony the friends of Coyle have secured some of his friends to go to Harrisburg and testify to his good character, political and otherwise. Their object will be to preve, if possible, that Coyle used none but fair and honorable means during his political career in this county. The outcome of these bribery trials are being watched with a great deal of interest by both the friends and enemies of the accused.

MINOR NOTES.

District Attorney Bochtel is likely to re eive a re-nomination at the hands of the Democrats. His senior deputy, M. P. Me-Laughlin, up to the present time had been looked upon as a sure winner, but this has all changed and those who profess to know my Bechtel will again be the nominee.
