REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The Executive Committee Met This Morning and Fixed Dates.

Pottsville, June 15.—In accordance with the call issued by County Chairman Quill, of the Republican party, the members of the Executive Committee, fifteen in number, met here this morning in the parlors of the Merchants Hotel. The object of the meeting was to fix the time and place of holding the county and district conventions.

The members of the committee are: Harrison Ball, chairman, Mahanoy City; J. T. Shoener, Owingsburg; C. C. Matten, Pottsville; F. J. Kehler, Locust Dale; W. J. Whitehouse and Dr. A. L. Gillars, Pottsville; G. R. Patterson, Ashland; Joseph Wyatt and Horace Dangler, Shenandoah; G. H. Shindel, Tanquesha; W. H. Searer, Towler City; Rodley Barto, Pinegrove; Isaac Leeb, Schuylkill Haven; Kline Morris, St. Clair; James McShan, McAdoo, and W. B. Price, Minersville.

There were a number of prominent Republicans from different parts of the county in town, and most of the candidates for office were also noticeable in and about the hotel.

The meeting was called to order by County Chairman Quill and the roll call showed the following committee members present: Messrs. Dangler, Ball, McShan, Shoener, Shindel, Whitehouse, Matten, Gillars, Searer and Morris. Lin. Bowman, of Schuylkill Haven, was present as substitute for Isaac Leeb, and William Lath, of Ashland, as substitute for George R. Patterson.

A motion was made that July 3rd be fixed as the date for the county convention, but it was not seconded, and a motion that the convention be held on July 17th was carried unanimously.

Chairman Quill was authorized to fix the date for the district conventions to be held to elect state delegates, the convention to be held at Tanquesha, Shenandoah, Ashland and Pottsville. No dates have been announced.

SONS OF VETERANS.

New Division Commander Elected by a Small Majority.

The principal feature of yesterday's encampment of the Sons of Veterans, in session at Hasbrouck, was the annual parade. About 500 members were in line, and the town was crowded with visitors.

The business session consisted mostly of routine work. A motion made by a delegate from Philadelphia to reduce the salary of the Quartermaster from $500 to $300 and that of the Adjutant from $500 to $300 caused a lengthy discussion. It was finally defeated.

The election of officers then took place. The first office to be filled was that of Division Commander, for which there were three applicants. There was a spirited contest, but S. S. Horn, of Easton, was elected by a majority of one.

For Quartermaster, W. B. McNulty, of Philadelphia, defeated his opponents by a good majority, he having secured 152 votes; Wm. Nash, Scranton, 16; John Carl, of Mt. Carmel, 128 votes. This morning's session was devoted to the election of the other officers, after which the installation of the newly elected officers took place and the convention adjourned.

The next encampment will be held at New Castle, Pa.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY.

The Ladies Aid elected their officers to serve for the ensuing year. They are: President, Mrs. Charters, of J. R. R. R.; Vice President, Mrs. Meyers, of Scranton; Secretary, Mrs. W. H. Searer, of Towler City; Treasurer, Mrs. S. S. Horn, of Easton; and Mrs. Searer, of Towler City.

Flight at Shepton.

A party of Lithuanians and Americans engaged in a quarrel in August Hoffman's saloon at Shepton last evening. Several men of both factions were severely pummeled. About midnight one of the Lithuanians started for his home and was attacked shortly after leaving the saloon. In the fracas his upper lip was split open and his left eyebrow was cut its entire length. He was also assaulted with stones. He managed to escape from his assailants and retreated to the saloon for safety.

PATRIOTIC MOVEMENT.

Grand Demonstration Proposed For the Fourth of July.

MEETING TO BE HELD TO-NIGHT.

Representatives of Societies and Citizens to Assemble in the Columbia House Company's Parlor To-night to Formulate Plans for the Event.

To-night an effort will be made to secure a general movement of societies and citizens of the town towards making arrangements for a patriotic celebration of the Fourth of July. If steps are to be taken in that direction now is the time for the initiative, as the day for the celebration is rapidly approaching and there is not too much time to make arrangements even with energetic work.

The Columbia H. & S. F. E. Co. has taken the matter in hand and a committee appointed for the purpose has gone to some expense in issuing invitations for a meeting to be held in the company's parlor, in the Borough building, at 7:30 o'clock this evening, with a view to formulating plans for a grand parade and fireworks display. About a hundred of these invitations have been issued and they should result in a large attendance. The meeting will not be restricted to those who have received invitations. In all movements of a similar character it frequently happens that some oversights are made, and it is unlikely that some have occurred in this case, so that no society, or individual, need withhold support on that score. The meeting will be open to all, individually and collectively, who may desire to co-operate in the movement.

It is several years since Shenandoah has had a Fourth of July demonstration really worthy of the name, and with Dewey's feat at Manila, the battle of San Juan, the crushing of Cervera's fleet at Santiago and other memorable events of the war with Spain still fresh in mind, with the daily heralded victories in the Philippines, the patriotic spirit should be at such a pitch as to make the next Fourth of July celebration the greatest in the history of the town. We have with us boys who served with the Rough Riders and other heroes in Cuba and Porto Rico, and several who entered the Regular Army last August and September to fight for their country and it is necessary to call upon them to complete the victory over Spain. These boys are already hard at work preparing to co-operate in the movement for the celebration, and surely the remainder of our citizens are not going to stand idly by and create the impression that only those who fought and went out to fight in the late war are imbued with patriotism.

To-night at 7:30 o'clock, the keynote will be sounded in the parlor of the Columbia House Company. Much will depend upon the result. If the town proposes to show a patriotic spirit the intention will manifest itself to-night.

Deaths and Funerals.

J. Y. Wren, well-known throughout this country, died at Plymouth yesterday. He was an active member of the firm of Wren Brothers, founders and machinists of Pottsville. Funeral to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Carrie Boche, the young girl who was brought to death in Philadelphia Monday evening by an explosion of gasoline, was buried in St. Clair yesterday, her remains having been brought from Philadelphia. The funeral took place from the home of her mother.

The funeral of Joseph Stone, who died at his home in Wadesville after an illness of several days, was held at 2 o'clock yesterday at St. Clair. He leaves a wife and nine children, among the latter being Sarah, widow of Evan Lewis, of town.

The funeral of Wallace, son of John J. Simons, took place from the family residence, 23 South Chestnut street, at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. The services were held at the residence and interment was made in the Old Fellows' cemetery. J. P. Williams & Son were the funeral directors. The attendance was large and included the members of Hope Section No. 10, J. T. of H. & T.

Ray Richard, 8 year old son of John Lynn, of Mahanoy City, was buried to-day. The remains were interred in the German Protestant cemetery.

William, six-year-old child of William and Hannah McElbenny, of Morea, died this morning. The funeral will take place on Saturday.

Social Gathering.

The home of Miss Fitzgerald, at Brownsville, was the scene of a merry gathering of young folks last evening. The evening was pleasantly spent in the rendition of vocal and musical selections by the guests. The quartette selections by Messrs. John Whalen, Harry Wells, Thomas Shoen and David Watson were heartily appreciated. Those present were: Misses Annie Brunner, Mame McDonough, Maggie Lynch, Alice Maher, Mame and Nellie Gallagher, Rose and Nellie Mahon, Margaret Foley, Nellie Dougherty, Annie Lauren, and Messrs. Thomas J. Shore, John McDonald, John Whalen, Harry Wells, David and George Watson, Thomas Hughes and John Gallagher.

Pyrotechnic Display.
The pyrotechnic display on North Main street last evening was witnessed by a large crowd of spectators. The most interesting feature was the ascending of a large balloon. It soared high in the air and was eagerly watched by the crowd until it became a mere speck.

Painful Abscess.
John Privish, a well-known Greek citizen of town, is suffering from a painful abscess of the thumb. The member is considerably swollen and blood poisoning has set in. The abscess was contracted from negligence of a doctor who refused to treat it.

JUNE WEDDINGS.

Two Prominent Shenandoah Men Join the Ranks of the Benedicts.

Last evening two prominent young men of town took upon themselves two pretty brides from the county seat. One of them was George W. Keiper, clerk in the County Recorder's office, and the bride is Miss Nellie H., only daughter of John F. Finney, United States Sub-Treasurer at Philadelphia, and formerly of this town. The ceremony was performed in the Pottsville Presbyterian church, at 8:00 o'clock, which was decorated with flowers and plants. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Blanche Jesuette Rich, of Ashland, as maid of honor, and the following bridesmaids: Miss Mabel La Barre Straub, of Bethlehem; Miss Grace Fetter, of Pottsville; Miss Annie M. Johnson, of Reading; Miss Maud Amelie Keiper, sister of the groom, of Shenandoah; Miss Cora Thompson Christian, of Ashland; and Miss Grace Troutman, of Pottsville. Guy C. Keiper, of Shenandoah, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and Henry V. H. Brown, of Centralia; Dr. H. J. Williams, of Ashland; Charles H. Kiril, of Shenandoah, and C. Frank Muehlhoff, of Pottsville, were ushers. An elaborate wedding reception followed, the caterer being from Reading. The Third Brigade Band and a Mandolin club furnished the music. The bride received a diamond ring from her husband. The bride's gift to her bridesmaids were ruby brooches and a turquoise ring to the maid of honor. Gold studs were Mr. Keiper's presents to his ushers and best man. After a brief wedding trip they will reside with Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hess, on North Main street, this town.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Baird, Miss Nellie Baird, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bedea and G. C. Keiper, of town. STEIN-GAY.

A pretty home wedding took place at 5 o'clock last evening at the Gay residence, in Pottsville, when the nuptials of Dr. William Stein, of town, and Miss Fannie B. Gay, of Pottsville, were celebrated. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jacob Belville, D. D., of Germantown, Philadelphia, pastor emeritus of the First Presbyterian church of Pottsville. The ceremony was witnessed by guests from Shenandoah, Shamokin, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, Hazleton, Mahanoy City, Philadelphia, Wm. Penn and Pottsville. Miss Sarah Reed Stein, sister of the groom, acted as maid of honor, while Dr. Olin Barker, of Eransburg, Pa., was best man. Miss Katherine Gay, of Shamokin, niece of the bride, and Miss Agnes Stein, of Mahanoy City, niece of the groom, officiated as flower girls. They are now on a wedding trip and upon their return will reside on West Oak street in a beautiful residence prepared by the groom for his bride. They will be home after July 6th. The bride received a large number of beautiful presents. There were many guests present from out of town, among them being the following: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stein, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Burke, Mr. and Mrs. Edward O'Donnell, Dr. Spaulding, W. H. Lewis, the Misses Agnes, Phanie and Annie Stein, John Stein, Shenandoah.

MOORE-HAYES.
Heber T. Moore, of Pottsville, and Miss Anna M. Hayes, of St. Clair, were married at the latter place yesterday afternoon. The bride is a daughter of the well known squib manufacturer of that place. After a brief wedding trip they will reside at St. Clair.

SCOTT-DUGHERTY.
Edward Scott, of Pottsville, and Miss Jane Dougherty, of Silver Creek, were joined in wedlock yesterday afternoon, at New Philadelphia.

RANKER-OLIGHER.
Yesterday, at Shamokin, Miss Len Oligher, of that place, and E. G. Sanner, of Troutmont, were joined in wedlock. The groomsmen was H. B. Seltzer, of Tanquesha.

AT THE FRONT.

Some Shenandoah Boys Who Are Fighting the Filipinos.

Since the fierce fighting has been going on south of Manila, in the Philippines, much anxiety has been exhibited on the part of many residents of town as to the welfare of relatives and friends who are with Gen. Otis's forces. There are several Shenandoah boys in the 21st Infantry, which has taken part in the hot battles of the past few days, but as to whether they passed through them unharmed has not been learned. The names of none of them have appeared in casualty lists thus far published. The Shenandoah boys referred to are Matthias Schmidt and Corporal Arthur Smith, of Cos. C and K, respectively; Joseph, better known as "Crow", Mitchell, John Tempest, Thomas McAllister and William H. Becker. Sobeski Owens, of Lost Creek, is also with them. Last August and September, the boys here last August and September, is also in the battles as a lieutenant of the 9th Infantry, having been promoted from 2nd to 1st Lieutenant and transferred from the 12th to the 9th.

Among the Mahanoy City young men who are serving with the 21st Infantry are Joseph and John Bush, Peter Gough, John Hanan and Clarence Danley.

SILVER IS EVADED!

The Bryanites Defeated in Committee in Trying to Secure Endorsement.

A GOLD BUG MARCHED OUT!

The Proceedings at the Democratic State Convention, With Bryan's Name. Were so Obnoxious That a Philadelphia Delegate Resigned His Seat.

Harrisburg, June 15.—Four hundred and thirty-five representatives of the Democracy of Pennsylvania met here yesterday for the purpose of nominating candidates for supreme court judge, superior court judge and state treasurer. Shortly after midnight the convention adjourned until today without having accomplished the first and most important piece of work cut out for them, namely, the selection of a candidate for supreme judge. Nearly six hours were consumed in the preliminary work of the convention, and between 6 o'clock and midnight, with an hour's intermission for supper, the delegates cast eleven fruitless ballots for a score or more of candidates for that high office, the deadlock at midnight being apparently as firm as it was at 5 o'clock.

When adjournment was had there were 11 candidates in the field, with votes ranging from 13 to 72, the highest being a long way off from the 218 necessary to elect. The determined nominee is sure to be elected to serve 20 years. At this writing the fight appears to have narrowed down to Judge Kennedy of Allegheny and Judge Yerkes of Bucks.

With the supreme court judgeship out of the way the remainder of the convention's work will probably be disposed of by acclamation.

The platform adopted reaffirms briefly the Chicago platform and eulogizes Bryan's leadership, but contends that the campaign shall be confined to a fight against alleged Republican misrule and "quayism." National Committee Chairman Quay dominated the platform councils, and its various planks are said to be satisfactory to him.

When the committee on resolutions met C. P. Donnelly, of Philadelphia, was elected chairman. The conservative element was in command. G. C. Brown, of York, was opposed to the resolutions by attacking the trusts. C. P. Staples, of Monroe, said the first resolution pledged the party to support old and dead issues, like slavery and greenbacks, and he thought the Chicago platform should have more prominence. John Cadwalader, Jr., of Philadelphia, was opposed to any mention of Bryan's name, much less the Chicago utterance, and subsequently withdrew from the convention when Bryan's name was mentioned. A motion to specifically endorse the Chicago platform was overwhelmingly defeated, not more than five or six voting for it.

The platform's leading features is included in the following:

"The Democracy of Pennsylvania, in convention assembled, again renewing our pledge of fidelity and devotion to the sacred rights of the people, true to the faith and principles of our party as declared in the platforms of our several national conventions, and proud of our matchless leader, William Jennings Bryan, realize that the issues involved in the coming campaign in Pennsylvania are honest government, clean politics and the redemption of our state from Republican misrule and corruption."

The increase of public officials and clerks and in salaries is denounced. Continuing, it reads:

"We denounce the indecent haste displayed and the disrespect shown the people by the governor of the state in the appointment to the vacancy in the United States Senate of M. S. Quay, who to prevent a full investigation before a jury of his country, pleaded the statute of limitations against the most serious charges of crime."

The immediate prosecution of those guilty of bribery, actual or attempted, in connection with the recent senatorial contest, and their sentence to the full penalty of the law are demanded. On the question of trusts it reads:

"We are opposed to all combinations of capital calculated to produce monopoly or restraint of trade as being inconsistent with the spirit of free institutions, and if their establishment cannot be constitutionally prevented we hold that they should be so regulated and limited by proper legislation that individual effort and opportunity shall not be impaired."

The first and last ballots taken resulted as follows:

First ballot.—Albright, 26; Allen, 35; Bechtel, 20; Dewitt, 6; Dickinson, 8; Ermentrout, 41; Kennedy, 54; Krebs, 43; Lynch, 20; Mestrestant, 29; Munson, 19; Smith, 27; Stewart, 22; Wolvertown, 20; Yerkes, 43; Little, 4; Doty, 7; Mullen, 1; Ellick, 3.

Eleventh ballot.—Albright, 19; Allen, 33; Bechtel, 18; Ermentrout, 28; Kennedy, 74; Krebs, 64; Lynch, 19; Mestrestant, 24; Munson, 1; Smith, 28; Wolvertown, 13; Yerkes, 70.

TO-DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.
Two ballots were taken this morning for the nomination of Supreme Court Justice, but they resulted in no choice.

Judge Yerkes, of Bucks county, led on the ballots with Judge Kennedy, of Allegheny, a good second.

After the announcement of the result on the second ballot the convention adjourned to meet again at 2:30 this afternoon.

STILL NO CHOICE.
The convention reconvened at 3 o'clock and the eighteenth ballot was proceeded with, resulting in no choice. Yerkes received 51 of the ballots cast, leading all other candidates.
