"My Face is my Fortune, Sir,"

Said the pretty maid in the old English ballad. Eyes make or mar many a face, the other features may be ever so comely, a pair of weak, red inflamed or twitching eyes will spoil its beauty. Properly adjusted glasses will cure most of these troubles by removing the cause. But don't get the idea that anybody or everybody can do the "proper adjusting." We have made a study of the eye.

THE COMING CELEBRATION.

Organization Formed for the Fourth of July Demonstration.

In response to the call for a joint meeting of representatives of societies to formulate plans for the celebration of the Fourth of July there was a gratifying attendance in the parlors of the Columbia Hose Company last night. The enrollment was as follows: George L. Hafner, representing Washington Camp No. 112, P. O. 8 of A.; P. W. Bierstein, Gen. Harrison Lodge No. 251, Knights of Pythias, and Society of Sons of Lithuanian Citizens; A. J. Milliechup, Hope Section No. 10, J. T. of H. & T.; Charles Hurline, Rescue Hook and Ladder Company; Peter Hirmigian, Defender Hose Company; W. C. Collins, Artisan's Castle No. 74, Knights of the Golden Eagle; Peter Schoff, St. Michael's Beneficial Society; David Holvey and William Taylor, Columbia Hose Company; Robert Shuman, Veterans of '98; Cornelius Davenport, Major Jennings Council No. 367, Jr. O. U. A. M.

The meeting was called to order by David Holvey. George L. Hafner was elected chairman, P. W. Bierstein secretary, and William C. Collins treasurer.

Mr. Holvey stated that the Columbia Hose Company would donate $25 towards the parade expenses and it was also stated that St. Michael's Society would bear its pro rata share of the expense.

Messrs. Charles Hurline, William Taylor and A. J. Milliechup were appointed a committee on music, and Messrs. P. W. Bierstein and Peter Schoff were appointed a committee on printing.

The joint committee will meet again next Thursday evening, at 7:30 o'clock.

Charged With Robbing the Mails.
Tanquetta, June 16.—Many people of the surrounding towns having missed valubles and money sent through the mails the past few months. Post Office Inspector Hugh Gorman, of Philadelphia, made an investigation. Late last night, by means of a decoy letter containing a marked $1 bill, the inspector detected the culprit, George A. Zeigler, aged 14 years, employed as a special delivery messenger at the Tanquetta post office, was arrested and the marked bill found in his possession. He admitted his guilt, claiming to have been engaged in opening letters and confiscating their contents for several months. He was taken to Moyamensing prison to await trial.

Starriages.
In the All Saint's P. E. church last evening Miss Florence Harsley, of East Alley, and George Knott, Jr. of West Centre street, were united in marriage by the pastor, Rev. G. W. Van Fossen. They were attended by Miss Violet Harsley, a sister of the bride, and George Powell. A wedding reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Knott will take up their residence on West Centre street in a newly furnished home.

Miss Maggie Roberts and William Burchill, both well known young people of Fraekville, were married at the bride's home.

A pretty church wedding occurred at New Philadelphia on Wednesday, the contracting parties being Miss Katharine J. Hallahan, of the former place, and Owen J. Wyru, of Reading.

John P. Collifano, a former Ashland resident now located in New York city, joined the ranks of the Benedictines, the fortunate young lady being Miss Catherine Barry, of the latter place. The bride is a pretty and wealthy young woman, while the groom has many personal friends in this town.

Miss Sallie Littlehales and William M. Helms, both of Mahanoy city, were married last evening.

Edward Harris, a P. & R. Railway engineer, and Miss Mary Garraway, both of Mahanoy city, were married at the Primitive Methodist parsonage in Mahanoy City last evening. Miss Clara Mackay was the bridesmaid and Thomas Garraway the groom.

Miss Minnie Lamphire and David Wall, both of Mahanoy city, were married there last evening. Miss Maris Wall was the bridesmaid and Leonard Richards the groom.

THE WEATHER.

An area of high pressure has developed over Minnesota, and northwesterly winds from this high pressure has caused a fall in the temperature from the middle Mississippi valley to the middle and north Atlantic coast.

The pressure is also high off the north Pacific coast. Forecast for this portion until 8 p. m. today: Fair and cooler; fresh westerly to northwesterly winds. Fair tomorrow.
Sunrise, 4:29; sunset, 7:34; length of day, 14h. 55m.; moon rises, 12:40 p. m.; moon sets, 12:01 a. m.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Hippolyta Lawson has gone to Philadelphia to visit friends.

Mrs. Fred Jay, of Ringtown, was a visitor to town today.

Mrs. Benjamin Church has gone to Philadelphia to visit friends.

W. W. Shoemaker, Esq., returned from Harrisburg last evening.

Charles Smith, of Gordon, is visiting his brother, Henry Smith, in town.

Miss Katie Mount, of York, is visiting her cousin, Henry Smith, and family, of South Gilbert street.

Mrs. A. A. Davis and son, Bert., of South White street, are spending a few weeks at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Joseph Gramm, of North West street, has made her husband happy by presenting him with a son.

Miss Annie Williams has left town to visit friends at Camden, N. J., and points along the Jersey coast.

Mrs. R. K. Yost and daughter, Mary, returned to their home at Dunmore to-day.

Mrs. Joseph and Emma Zimmerman, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Zimmerman, have gone to Philadelphia to spend their summer vacation.

POLITICAL POINTS.
As the time for the election of delegates to the Democratic county convention draws near one notices an appreciable hostile on the part of those who have announced themselves as willing to represent their constituents from the several wards of the borough. In all of the wards, several sets of delegates have been placed in field, there are indications of a hot fight that gives promise of creating a bitter factional fight and may be the means of destroying the chances of some of the candidates who are now seeking office.

So far Charles E. Berger, of Crosson, has a clear field for the Republican nomination for District Attorney.

The Bryanites were given the marble heart in the committee on resolutions. Their effort to have 16 to 1 endorsed proved futile.

There is a spirited contest on within Democratic lines for the election of standing committees. Some of the candidates in town are not satisfied by the party workers.

U. S. Marshal Reilly made the speech placing Judge Bechtel's name before the convention.

Charlie Quinn and Harry Mellet, of Senanton, former well known Schuylkill countians, were among the throng.

Edward J. O'Brien, of the Republican county convention, July 17th, gives general satisfaction. Those Democrats who expected the state convention to commit itself to the 16 to 1 cry were sadly disappointed. There are a number of disappointed patriots in Shenandoah.

Paule Mulholland, of Shenandoah, is one of the strong nominees in the county. When, therefore, Temporary President Oliver Britton, of the state convention, made the first mention of the silver leader's name, it was not surprising that the Shenandoah man rose in his seat and vied with the minutemen to see who could make the most noise. Mulholland had a fan in his hand which he waved vigorously as he cheered and cheered again for the champion of the 16 to 1 issue.—Pottsville Chronicle.

TALES OF OUR HEROES.

An Opportunity to Secure the Book Presented to Shenandoah People.

The Herald has succeeded in making arrangements with the publishers of the "Hero Tales of the American Soldier and Sailor," whereby the people of Shenandoah can secure this work at a nominal cost. This work can only be secured through our local agents, Messrs. Hooks & Brown, who will make a thorough canvass.

The book contains 600 pages and 100 illustrations and is filled with the most interesting and graphic illustrations that the American soldiers and sailors have fought and graphically illustrated them. Special attention is given to the late Spanish war, and among the illustrations are: "The Destruction of the Maine," "Dewey's Victory," "Cervera's Defeat," "Tobson's Landing with the Merrimac," "The Defense of Camp McCalla" and many others.

The books retail all over the country at $2.00 per copy and thousands have been sold. The terms upon which the books will be sold here are as follows: Any person who will agree to take the Herald for six months will be supplied with a copy of this excellent history of our country's defenders for 75 cents. Remember, a $2.00 book for 75 cents, the only condition being that you agree to take the Herald for six months.

The Herald is progressive, enterprising, wide-awake and always will be. Its daily visits will keep you better informed than any other paper on the news of this locality, county, state and nation. Copies of the book can be examined at the store of Hooks & Brown, No. 4 North Main street.

Subtle Power of Happiness.
"Next to the art of living justly and kindly with our fellows comes the art of maintaining a life of happiness and tranquility," writes the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis of "The Secrets of a Happy Life" in "The Ladies' Home Journal," "for the soul was made for joy and good cheer. Life is a school; labor and sorrow, victory and defeat toll together as teachers, wide-awake and always will be. Its daily visits will keep you better informed than any other paper on the news of this locality, county, state and nation. Copies of the book can be examined at the store of Hooks & Brown, No. 4 North Main street."
