THE merchant who knows how to develop a market has before him a direct road to success. His standing and personality are of course factors in the building up of trade, but the controlling agency by which he may secure a paying market for his wares is newspaper publicity, such as the HERALD can furnish. With a well conducted establishment, amply and conveniently stocked, a tradesman who shall judiciously and regularly use the columns of a fully accredited the command of the North Atlantic newspaper may justly hope to realize squadron have been authoritatively denied by an officer of his staff as wholly unfounded. THE PRESIDENT'S SUNDAY.

may Day For the Chief Magistrate at

Holyoke and South Hadley. Holyoke, Mass., June 19.—Sunday for the president was anything but the day of rest that was hoped for. The continual erowding of the curious citizens, the immense jam at the church in the forenoon and later in the day an unexpected and totally unprepared for reception in connection with the baccalsurests exercises at Mt. Holyoke college, made the day long and tire-some for all. The president was not content with going once to church, but went twice, leaving Mrs. McKinley in the hands of her lady friends on ea-

The president and his entire party were up bright and early. A large crowd congregated about the residence of William Whiting, where the dis-tinguished guests are being entertain-ed, and by the time the party were ready for a short walk of two blocks to the church the streets were filled with people. It was an orderly, de-corous crowd, and hardly a word was spoken by them during the entire ourney. At the Second Congregattend, a much larger crowd had assem-bled, and it was only by deviating and entering the side door that admission was gained. The congregation rose respectfully as the president entered, and remained standing until he sat

THE rumor has been revived that Whiting residence lunch was served. Immediately after the return to the Secretary Alger is getting ready to and at 3 o'clock a palace electric car ratire from the Cabinet. The theory was taken to South Hadley to attend the baccalsureate exercises at the chapel of Mt. Holyoke college. Mrs. McKinley was also in the party. This was the first time President McKinley States Senate, his entire time will be needed to arrange the contest.

The resident and the will be had been to South ciadley, which is the real destination of the trip. On Tuesday he is to share honors with Governor Roger Welcott and deliver the THE Democrats, those who are degrees to the graduating class, of laboring so hard to make themselves which his niece, allse Grace McKinley. is a member.
At the close of the exercises the president held an impromptu reception in front of the church, shaking hands with several hundred people.

To Cross the Atlantic in a Dory. Gloucester, Mass., June 19.—Howard Blackburn, of this city, set sail alone yesterday afternoon in his little sloop rigged, four ton boat, the Great West-ern, to cross the Atlantic. Blackburn followed a seafaring life on Gioucester fishing vessels for many yours, and in January, 1888, was cast away in his dory on the Grand Banks, with one companion, for five days without food or water. His companion died, but Blackburn was rescued, although he lost his fingers and toes and was other-wise crippled as the result of his terrible experiences. The Great Western is stocked with provisions for 90 days, and Gloucester, England, in the point where Blackburn expects to land first.
