"My Face is my Fortune, Sir,"

Said the pretty maid in the old English ballad. Eyes make or mar many a face, the other features may be ever so comely, a pair of weak, red inflamed or twitching eyes will spoil its beauty. Properly adjusted glasses will cure most of these troubles by removing the cause. But don't get the idea that anybody or everybody can do the "proper adjusting." We have made a study of the eye.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

Children's Day was observed in the United Evangelical, German Lutheran and Calvary Baptist churches yesterday. All the churches were beautifully decorated for the occasion. The attendance at each was very large. At the United Evangelical church the decorations were particularly beautiful. They were pronounced the finest in the history of the church. A profusion of flowers was magnificent. The American colors figured conspicuously and were carried about singing, which was done in several places. A unique feature of the decorations at the Calvary Baptist church was a light house, an excellent counterpart of the genuine. WM. PENN.

Notwithstanding the inconvenience which always results when trying to put many more people into a building than it can comfortably accommodate, the large audience seemed delighted with the program prepared by the young people of the Methodist Episcopal church of this place on the occasion of the Children's Day anniversary. The church was tastefully decorated with ferns, flowers, bunting and flags, which were wrought into beautiful designs. The program was entitled "Peace of War," and was presided over by Rev. C. H. Payne, in whose death the Children's Day movement lost one of its foremost supporters. The program consisted of an introduction and two parts. The former began with an organ volunter, "As Pants the Heart," played by Evan L. Jones. Next was singing by the school, "Welcome to June." After prayer by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Stewart, and responsive reading led by the superintendent, W. H. Lewis, the card "The Kindly Skies" was sung. This concluded the introduction. Part first consisted of an exercise for the younger schools, which was excellently rendered under the direction of Mrs. Laura Knight, assisted by Misses Lillie Dovey, Alice Seltzer and Lillie Beddall, and was as follows: Processional, "Onward Marching"; introductory address, Bertha Jones; recitation, "God's Voices," Annie Sherman, Mary Fell, Lillie Lewis, Irene Jones, Irene Sander, singing, "Why Should Children be so Happy?"; recitation, "Puzzling Question," John Kelley; recitation, "Only Small Boys," Clarence Reese, Josiah Smith, William Vaughn, Livingston Seltzer; singing, "The Birdie's Song"; recitation, "Some Small, Sweet Way," Clara Franke; recitation, "The Reason Why," Mary Chalmers; song, "I Wash My Hands"; recitation, "The Garden of Life," Margaret Quinn; recitation, "Write It," Hattie Bowman; singing, "The Happy Little Home." Part second took up the program proper, with daisies and War was symbolized by a stand of arms. The introduction was by Miss Margaret Malard. Miss Ruth Mayer, the representative of Peace, took her stand beside the cross and Charles Hughes, in the uniform of an American soldier, was the representative of War. History was represented by Ethel Jones, brought her tribute to Peace, afterwards the school sang the peace song. Conquest, by Alfred Walker, and Liberty, by Addie Berkel-brought their tributes to war. Patriotism, Miss Katie Seltzer, brought her tribute to Peace, after which "God Bless Our Land" was sung by the school. Morality, by Jennie Smith, and Religion, by Margie Chalmers, brought their offerings to Peace. Miss Lillie Dovey then sang "The Holy City." The pastor then asked for a good collection, which was given. Kipling's recessional was sung and the exercises were concluded by "A Hail to the Power of Jesus Christ." The choir, led by John Knight, sang several selections. The singing by school was led by Samuel Walker.

New Richmond, Wis., June 13.—The official list of property lost in the recent cyclone contains 102 names; five unidentified bodies have been buried, beside some parts of bodies. This brings the loss of life to about 125, the best estimate on the loss of property in the city of New Richmond, compiled from the list of individual property owners who lost everything, reaches a total of $550,000. To this may be added about $200,000 for household goods.

Workmen now say Under-ground Manager Johnston, who was one of the victims, was too rash in ordering the men back into the mine on Friday.
