COUNCIL MEETING.

Special Session to Consider a Fire Apparatus Report.

The Borough Council met last night to hear the report of the Fire Apparatus Committee on the proposition to re-wire the fire alarm system. The Councilmen present were Messrs. McGuire, Bell, Tracey, Harkins, Hand, James, Boehm and Murphy.

Upon the report being called for, Mr. Murphy stated that the Borough Electrician had gone over the ground and concluded that 14,205 feet of wire would be needed. This wire would cost 25 cents per pound, and the total cost would be about $354.75.

There was considerable discussion as to the advisability of providing new wire for the entire system and President McGuire stated that he understood the wire is in good condition, except, perhaps, in places where it may have rubbed against trees, or other obstructions. Mr. Tracey expressed himself in a similar manner and said he was informed that the wire is good for an additional five or ten years.

On motion of Mr. Boehm the committee's report was accepted and the proposition to re-wire the entire system was laid on the table.

On motion of Mr. Bell the committee was authorized to have ground wires connected with all the fire alarm boxes, and to purchase coppers and other material required for the battery room of the system.

Marriages.
Miss Annie Walsh, of town, and Bernard Keogh, of Port Carbon, were married in the Annunciation church of town, at noon today. The bridegroom is a locomotive fireman on the P. & R. Railway.

Miss Feeney and John Conlan, two young people residing at Minersville, were married in St. Paul de Vincent church, at that place, this morning. Miss E. Burke, of town, officiated as bridesmaid.

At two o'clock this afternoon, at the home of the bride on Mahanoy avenue, Girardville, Miss Jane Lewis was married to James Davis, also of that place. The couple were attended by Edward Davis, a brother of the groom, and Miss Mervine. Many guests were in attendance. The groom is foreman in the Schuylkill Traction power house. The bride was a school teacher in the public schools of Girardville.

Telephone Ordinance Postponed.
Two independent telephone companies—the Schuylkill Telephone Company and the Anthracite Telephone Company—have applications before the Pottsville Council seeking admission to that borough, and were to come up for final passage at the meeting of the Pottsville Council last evening. A lengthy discussion took place, and to combat the charges that the new companies were not honest and that the lines would not be built, the Pottsville Council, Mr. Wallinger, offered to put up a bond of $10,000, and to certify that the Council was "sufficiently posted" on telephones and moved a postponement until September, the next meeting. This was carried by a vote of 11 to 7.

FREAKS OF LIGHTNING!

People Almost Prostrated by Last Evening's Storm.

BOLTS STRIKE THREE DWELLINGS

Other Places Were Struck, But no Serious Damage Was Sustained From Any of the Bolts—Child Killed by the Lightning at Centralia.

The thunder and electrical storm that visited this town last evening was the most severe for several years and there were a number of instances where nervous and timid people were almost prostrated by the effects of the thunder claps and startling flashes of lightning.

The rain fell in torrents, flooding the streets and sewers, and in several parts of the town flooding basements of houses, but this part of the storm was more beneficial than otherwise, as the floods carried with them in their mad pace much unsightly and unwholesome matter which had covered streets and filled many of the gutters. The result was that after the storm the streets presented an appearance of cleanliness that was pleasing to look upon.

The lightning's work was not so gratifying, although it is well that no disasters were recorded in the town. Three houses were struck by lightning during the storm, one at 408 South Jardin street, occupied by a French family, and two on West Cherry street, the houses being occupied by the families of Lane Parker and Patrick Gibbons. In all instances the chimneys of the buildings were struck, but not demolished. The family in the Jardin street house was at supper when the lightning struck. They say the lightning seemed to spray about the room in which they were sitting, but none of them sustained injury, nor were any of them rendered unconscious. The head of the family, in describing the antics of lightning, said to a reporter, "Him come down one chimney and turn up other one."
