has recently taken place. It is a little odd that Europe should drop so many American stocks at this time, but it probably means that the investors on the other side of the water think the present range of speculative prices can not be maintained. This is a de lusion, of course. However, the return of these stocks reduces the debt and adds this much to the holdings of American investors. On the whole, America and not Europe has been benefited by this transfer of property.

Street Paving Decision.

Judge Phillips, in the United States Circuit Court, at Kansas City, has rendered a decision declaring illegal the present method of assessing property for street improvements in way to be settled at a meeting of the vogue in cities in Missouri, and largely throughout the United States.

Judge Phillips holds that the Missouri statute authorizing cities and the company was willing to take back towns to assess the cost of opening, paving or repaving streets against the owners of abutting property, apportioning the whole cost on the pany made no changes, but its concesnumber of front feet, is in violation slons have recently been agreeable to of the fourteenth amendment to the federal constitution, which prevents of the company, saying the union men the taking of private property for would not submit to work with the public use without just compensation

Judge Phillips holds that unless all the benefit of such improvements re- an effort was made to induce the dounds to abutting property owners as distinguished from the city at targe, this statute is unfair. He holds, by the strikers, which they said was too, that property in one location may be benefitted more than property tically agreed to the proposition of the in another location on the same company. They agreed to allow the company to retain 100 of its present street, and that to be in harmony with the clause of the constitution cited assessments must be levied in difficulty between the company and the proportion to the benefit derived.
