Schrink and His "Home."

Through the enterprise of our several county seat contemporaries, it is learned that the Hon. Augustavus Schrink, postmaster at Pottsville, now occupies the new federal building as the place of his official abode. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. At least one of the daily papers of that town, Mr. Schrink's personal organ, describes the new building as "the handsomest home in Schuylkill been secured pointing to Frank, alias county," and for fear that there may Matt Smith, and "Coffee" Brauer, alias county," and for fear that there may be some doubt in the minds of its ors, as the men who robbed and murreaders on that score, adds that mered Martin Meier, the aged Swiss "eyerybody is delighted with the new recluse and miser, who was found dead building."

Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Saved Mrs. Hayes From an Operation.

[LETTER TO MES. PINKHAM NO. 64.83] " DEAR MES. PERKHAM - Words connot express my thanks to you for your kind advice to me in regard to my health, I had been running down in health for about seven years. I had doctored with good doctors and taken a great many patent medicines. My trouble began when my first child was born. I had a very hard time and after its birth would have severe flooding spells. After my second child I had very good health until last winter when I again became pregnant and suffered very much and miscarried. I came very near dying, and the doctor said I must have an operation, which frightened me very much, and concluded to write to you for your advice, and take your medicine. Was troubled with the whites, great pain in back and hips, sometimes when lying down or sitting was unable to get up. Would have such pain in groins could hardly walk.

"I can say I have never seen anything so wonderful as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash. Your remedies have done wonders for me. Hoping that many of my suffering sisters may be led to take your medicine from reading this letter, I remain, sincerely yours, Mas. MARY HAYES, HARDINSBURG, KY."

Letters like the foregoing should convince everyone that Mrs. Pinkham's advice is certain help.

Three Wounded in Drunken Brawl. New York, June 26.—Three men were mortally wounded in a drunken brawl early yesterday morning in the Laurel Hill section of Long Island City. Mrs. Mary McPadden, a widow, was giving a dance in the rear of a saloon which she owned, and about 50 persons were present. The rioters be-came intoxicated and quarrelsome, and adjourned to the sidewalk to finish a fight which started in the saloon. Hugh O'Neili, it is said, attacked Dominici Fiyan and William Huston with knife. A dozen other mon joined in the battle. Nine shots were fired. O'Neill was shot in the lungs, Huston stabbed in the side and Flyan in the abdomen. It is said O'Neill and Flyan will die, and that Huston has only a slight chance. Patrick J. Miskell was

THE KENTUCKY DEADLOCK.

Democrats Seem Unable to Scient a Candidate For Governor. Louisville, Ky., June 26.-There is to sign of an agreement between any of the Democratic candidates for gov-ernor. There is no change from the eleventh ballot, taken on Saturday night, the ballots thus far taken resulting: Stone, 376; Hardin, 365; Goebel, 346. The 1,092 delegates in the convention are divided so nearly even that there is not a difference of 30 votes in the strength of the three candidates, but Goebel is the strongest because of the solidity of his support. He controls his following absolutely, throw them to either of his opponents at will. Neither Stone nor Hardin can do this, and for that reason neither is in a position to make terms A noteworthy feature of the contest is the Hardin campaign. Coming into the convention with a hundred votes short of a majority of the delegates, beaten at every point in the temporary organization and weakened by adverse decisions by the credentials committee involving scores of seats, the Hardin managers, with consummate clever-ness, jumped into the fight when the game seemed lost, withdrew the name of General Hardin and left Goebel and Stone to fight it out. These two fell into the trap and flew at each other's throats, with the result that when the convention adjourned Saturday night Goebel and Stone had split and Hardin, who had been again taken p, stood second in recorded votes. Meanwhile the three cornered fight grows warmer, and the delegates, who have spent nearly a week trying to nominate a state ticket, may yet have to look outside the trio now occupying the ring to find a leader upon whom they can unite.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by A. Wasley, Druggist.
