TWO TROLLEY FATALITIES.

Two Killed in Pittsburg and a Student Oarsman in Philadelphia.

Pittsburg, July 3.—As a result of a street car collision last night on the road of the Monongahela Traction company two people are dead, five seriously injured and ten others more or less hurt.

The dead are: O. C. Opsion, of 4741 Friendship avenue, this city; W. H. Kirkland, motorman, of Braddock.

Seriously injured: H. H. Smith, a tailor, of Wylie avenue, Pittsburg, hurt internally; Mrs. Annie Lawlor, Logan street, cracked; back badly cracked; Miss Jennie Conky, Columbia O., visiting at 91 Logan street, arm and side cracked; Al Reper, 180 Spring Garden avenue, Allegheny, cut about throat and injured internally; Miss Schilder, of 1093 Viceroy street, was pretty badly bruised, and ten others were more or less hurt.

The accident happened on a steep grade near High Bridge. The two cars in collision were heavily loaded with passengers returning home from Kennyswood Park.

Motorman Griffith stopped his car near the bottom of the hill to get a drink of water at a spring near by. He had hardly left his car when the electric current was shut off, leaving the car in darkness. Motorman Kirkland, with his car, followed shortly afterward, and as the foremost car was in darkness it could not be seen until too late to check the speed. The rear car crashed into the other with terrific force, almost telescoping it.

Mr. Opsion was standing on the rear platform of the first car and received the full force of the impact. Both of his legs were cut off and his skull crushed. He lived but a short time. Kirkland was badly mangled, his head and body being crushed. He lived about an hour.

PATRIOTIC SERVICES.
Special Subjects For Sermons and Special Choir Music.

Several of the local churches arranged for special patriotic services last evening and including themes for sermons, as well as music for the choirs were selected for the occasions.

At the Methodist Episcopal church there were elaborate decorations involving the arrangement of the National colors in unique form. On the platform was an American shield, a large eagle and numerous flags arranged in circular form. Crayons of the immortal Washington and Lincoln adorned each side of the platform. The attendance was large. Rev. John T. Swindells, the pastor, preached an eloquent sermon from Paul's Epistle to the Galatians, V. 1.—"Stand fast, therefore, in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free."

Rev. H. W. Kochler, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, preached a patriotic sermon to a large congregation in the church last evening. The text was taken from Proverbs XIV: 29: "Righteousness Exalteth a Nation, but Sin is a Reproach to any People."

At the Primitive Methodist church the services also partook of a patriotic character, the choir assuming charge of the service and rendering inspiring solos, quartets and choruses with true patriotic fervor, among the selections being "Blessed be the Nation," "God and Our Fatherland," "Our Country," "To Thee, Our Land and Flag" and "Star Spangled Banner."

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

County Chairman Quall Issues the Official Call to Voters.

Notice is hereby given that the Schuylkill County Republican convention will be held at Union hall, Pottsville, Pa., on Monday, July 17th, 1899, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating a ticket to be voted at the general election in November next as follows to wit:

One person for Judge of Common Pleas.
One person for District Attorney.
One person for County Treasurer.
One person for Prothonotary.
One person for Clerk of the Courts.
One person for Recorder.
One person for Register.
Two persons for Commissioners.
One person for Director of the Poor.

The primaries for the election of delegates and alternates to the county convention, and also county standing committees and alternates for the ensuing year will be held in all the election districts of the county on Saturday, July 15th from 3 to 7 o'clock p. m., at the usual places for holding such elections except such places where changes are made, and notice shall be sent to the proper parties.

The basis of representation in the convention shall be as follows: Districts in which less than thirty-five votes were cast for W. A. Stone for Governor last year shall elect one delegate and one alternate. All other districts shall elect two delegates and two alternates. No delegate shall be entitled to cast such vote as the rules of the party provide. Each district shall elect one county committeeman, and one alternate.

By order of the Executive Committee,
CHAS. E. QUALL,
Chairman.
Pottsville, Pa., July 1, 1899. 7-30

Another Body Recovered.

The remains of Wm. Derr, one of the six men who were drowned at Kaskawillan colliery on the 25th of May, 1898, was recovered Saturday. But little of the flesh remained, and the remains were only identified by his father, who recognized his son's shoes and clothing. Two other bodies still remain in the mine. That of Leader Boss Boggs is supposed to be close to where Derr's remains were discovered.

Felled a Frantied Father.

Because his wife would not give him money John Daugherty, of Mt. Carmel, fired several shots at her, one taking effect in the thigh. A son prevented a murder by telling the father with a club, inflicting an ugly wound in his head. Both are in the hands of a surgeon, the father being in jail to await the result of the wife's injuries.

No need to fear sudden attacks of cholera, infantum dysentery, diarrhoea, or summer complaint, if you have Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in the medicine chest.

Deserted Children Provided For.

The three remaining children of Mrs. Maggie Barrows, who had been in jail with their parents, were taken in charge by a young man from Lost Creek, and divided among neighbors at that place, whose sympathies had been aroused by the desertion of the hapless little ones.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

Benjamin Sande, an aged and widely known resident of Wm. Penn, died at his home this morning, at four o'clock. The funeral will take place on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The funeral of Harold, the 10-months-old son of Matthew and Jennie Perkins, took place from the family residence yesterday afternoon. Many friends of the family attended.

Infant's Nose Fractured.

Otto, one-year-old son of William Boner, of Mahanoy City, was struck in the face by a stone thrown by an unknown boy. The child received a compound fracture of the nose. It was being wheeled in a carriage by its mother at the time.

Injured While Playing.

While playing on a street at Mahanoy City last night William Patrick, aged 13 years, fell and seriously injured himself. His right collar bone was fractured, his right thigh badly contused and forehead badly gashed.

Medlar's First Ware "Good-Bye."

About to board a special northern Central miners' excursion at Mt. Carmel, to return to Shamokin, last Saturday night, Joseph Medlar, a resident of the latter place, was killed by the train suddenly backing on him as he stood in the middle of the track waving good-bye to a friend.

P. J. Kuddy, of Centralia, took second prize in mathematics in the Philadelphia Inquirer Home Course of studies.

SCANLAN APPEALS.
He Finds Fault With the Borough Auditors on His Accounts.

George J. Wadlinger has filed an appeal in behalf of M. J. Scanlan, tax collector of Shamokin, in which the latter appeals from the report of the borough auditors of Shamokin for the year ending March 6th, '09, covering the accounts of his '05 and '06 duplicates, as filed in the Clerk of Courts' office. The appellant requests the Court to rescind and correct said settlement of accounts if it be found improper or incorrect, or to allow any illegal charges or credits and to find and determine the true balance, if any, he is indebted to said borough.

The exceptions set forth that the balance of $12,960.93 charged against the said M. J. Scanlan for '05, and the balance of $16,087.96 charged against him for '06 are incorrect; that the auditors erred in not crediting him with $5,000 paid January 15, '06, and in not giving him credit for various other cash payments, the amounts of which cannot be given because of the inability to get at the books of said borough; that they erred in not giving him credit for $600 of additional operations on his '05 duplicate; in charging him with $1,228.41 as a penalty on the '05 duplicate; in not allowing him five per cent. rebate on $17,124.99, amounting to $856.25 on his '05 duplicate, and in not allowing him the full amount of his commission, being $1,013.35, on his '05 duplicate; that they erred in not allowing him all the commissions, rates and other allowances on both the '05 and '06 duplicates, to which he is entitled under the law.

The accounts, it is alleged, as stated by the auditors, are not that contained in or taken from the books of the borough and its proper vouchers. The appellant reserves the right to file affidavits in support of his case.

The facts in the appeal are sworn to by the appellant, who filed bond in the sum of $100, with M. J. Muldoon and T. T. Williams as sureties as evidence of his purpose to faithfully prosecute the appeal.

E. C. Brobst and the other sureties of Scanlan on Saturday filed an appeal from the recent decision of the court in the litigation.

THE WEATHER.
