FUGITIVE CAUGHT. EVENTS OF

Criminal Assault.

Policeman George Uraitis made an im portant and clever capture is town yester-day. On November 8, 1896, one Censtance Miskel, aged 31 years, was arrested on a charge of committing a criminal assault upon the four-year-old daughter of Michael Wolski, of West Cherry street. Two months later, after his trial, and while being taken with five other prisoners from the court house to the jail, Miskel made his escape His whereabouts remained unknown to the authorities until yesterday, when Policeman Uraltis heard the man had come to town or As the officer entered a South Main street saloen yesterday afternoon Miskel made a hurried exit at the rear, dashed to Market alley, and then south to the Lehigh Valley milroad. Uraitis overtook and captured the fugitive as he was hurrying down the rallway embankment. The prisoner was taken to jail this afternoon.

COLUMBIA'S DAY.

There Will be a Big Time at Columbia

Park To-night. The Columbia H. & S. F. E. Co. No. 1 en tertained a large gathering of people at its picnic grounds yesterday, but to-day is the one set apart for the big events. There was a street parade this afternoon in which the Grant Band, Defender Hose Company of Turkey Run, with gaily and pa-triotically decorated hose carriage co-operation with the Columbias. To-night is set aside for a big fireworks display at the ormers lately with the Lowrey Bros.' shows will also be at the park to give an entertain-ment and the full Schoppe orchestra will furnish dancing music. Big Fireworks Display.

Girardville probably had the greatest dislay of fire works of any place in the county ast night and the greatest was made by the proprietor of a Chinese laundry, who invested $225 individually in fireworks. A set piece of the battle of Manila bay, with the figures of officers, ships, etc., was in the lot. It was stretched across Parker street and ignited by a couple of hundred packs of fire crackers along the ground. Parker street was jammed with people for three or four squares. The Chinaman had declared that he would show "Melican man how to cole-blate Florth of J'ly," and he did it,
