THE UNTAINTABLE ONE.

She—Undress it's not an easy thing for a girl to get a husband.

He—Why, a pretty girl can make her choice of four out of every five men she meets.

She—But it's the fifth that she wants—Harlem Life.

A bundle of spider webs, not larger than a buckshot and weighing less than a dram, would, if straightened out and untangled, reach a distance of 380 miles.

THE WEATHER.

The pressure is high off the north Atlantic and north Pacific coasts. A trough of low pressure extends from Arizona to Manitoba. Temperature has fallen in the middle and northern Rocky mountain regions and has remained nearly stationary elsewhere. Forecast for today and tomorrow in this section: Fair; light southeasterly winds.

Sunrise, 4:50; sunset, 7:34; length of day, 14h. 44m.; moon rises, 9:33 a. m.; moon sets, 9:41 p. m.

POLITICAL POINTS.

Shenandoah has another candidate for political honors. Edward Kester, an ex-member of the police force and one of the active Republican workers of the Second ward, is a candidate for Poor Director at the hands of the county convention of that party. Mr. Kester was a candidate for the same office several years ago, and his friends feel confident that he will be rewarded this time.

Yes, Senator King has a candidate for Judge, and the Senator and the candidate feel quite happy. How about the other fellows?

William Moore, of Tower City, is the latest candidate to enter the field. He is an active aspirant for the nomination for Register, subject to Republican rules. He is the father of Dr. George Moore, late physician at the Almshouse. The latter was in town yesterday.

The more one views the Democratic ticket, the weaker it appears.

The appointment of Dr. H. G. Reitzel, of Mahanoy City, as census supervisor for the Schuylkill-Berks district, was somewhat of a surprise. His brother, the Quaker leader in Lancaster county, is given credit for securing the plum, but it will not help the machine in this county.

Before the roll was called for nominating Commissioner, P. J. Ferguson, of Lost Creek, withdrew in favor of Boylan, of Mahanoy Pine, as did also Thomas E. Manley, of town. Paisley, of Tanamoc, also withdrew in favor of the Mahanoy Pine candidate, but the Brennan people landed their favorite, although by questionable methods. The Boylan supporters are fighting mad.

An exchange says "it was one of the most disorderly and successful gatherings ever held in the county."

It is welcome news that ex-Senator John J. Ingalls has re-entered Kansas politics; and if he shall be successful in his canvass for election as Representative for the First district of that state, there will be one man on the floor of Congress worthy of Kansas.

Exciting Runaway.

A sensation was created on Main street this afternoon by a team of horses belonging to the Grand Union Tea Company running away with a load of furniture behind it. The team started from the P. & R. freight station and continued at a mad pace down Main street as far as Laurel, where the wagon struck a tree and the team was halted. The horses were started by the bit of one of them breaking. David Holvey, the driver, jumped from the wagon at the start and escaped injury. The furniture was scattered along the street during the flight. Between the Main and Oak streets the runaways collided with T. J. Broughall's team and one of the latter had one of his hind legs badly cut, and probably otherwise injured. The tea wagon was damaged by coming in contact with the tree.

Sued for Trespass.

Constable Matt. Gibbon, of town, has been sued before Justice Stapleton at McAdoo on a charge of trespass. The case comes up on the 17th inst. The complainant is J. M. Rittenhouse, formerly of town and now of Harleton. Rittenhouse was some time ago by H. E. Douglas, of town, and a wagon belonging to the former was seized under the fraudulent debtor act. After judgment Gibbon sold the wagon on an execution and he is now being sued for making the sale. He says he will show Rittenhouse that all his proceedings in the matter were perfectly legal.

Bitten by a Dog.

The eleven-year-old son of John Sandton was bitten on the left cheek and left arm yesterday by a dog owned by Isaac Davis. Dr. Stein cauterized the wounds.
