PITHY POINTS.

Happenings Throughout the County

Chronicled for Hasty Perusal.

This is delightful weather. Tamsquo, will erect a new school building. The Pension Examiners met in Pottsville yesterday.

Wonder whether candidate Wadlinger would attend a Bryan banquet this year.

Miss Annie Fox, of Tamaqua, and Edward Hill, of Lansford, were married at noon today.

Improvements are being made at the Francy building, corner Main and Lloyd streets.

The rolling mill plant of the Pottsville Iron and Steel Company will positively be sold on Saturday.

The Pottsville School Board re-elected all the old teachers last evening. Some of the salaries were increased.

How much easier it is to become identified with respectable things than those of value as reputation makers.

Schuykill Traction car No. 25 was run on the Shenandoah branch to-day with a new coat of paint to improve its appearance.

Edward Camp, of Centralia, employed at the Centralia colliery, was caught under a fall of coal, and was fatally hurt.

Joseph H. Garner, formerly of Ashland, at present residing in Tamaqua, has been granted a valuable patent for improvements in rotary engines.

The many friends of James Carlin, Esq., of Pottsville, who has been critically ill for the past week, will be pleased to hear that his condition is greatly improved.

The huckleberry business is still on the boom and the various dealers are reaping a rich harvest. It is estimated that the crop this year will be the largest in ten years.

All members of Camp 299, Patriotic Order Sons of America, are requested to attend the regular meeting of the camp this evening, as a very important question will come up for consideration.

There is a rumor extant in Hazleton that the L. V. and Penna. Railroad contemplate the erection of a Union Depot at Hazleton. That city is sorely in need of such a central railway station.

Burglars, working in the glare of an electric light, entered the South Bethlehem Supply Company's store through a window, and secured $600 worth of waxes and jewelry.

Iring M. Scott, of San Francisco, president of the Union Iron Works, where the battleship Oregon was built, yesterday paid his first visit to the plant of the Bethlehem Steel Works, which turned out the famous war ship's armor.

Wilson Salt was yesterday appointed a fourth-class postmaster at Harrisburg, Pa.

Four hundred laborers are employed in the building of the new Bethlehem-Nazareth trolley road.

At Cranberry, Luzerne county, three-year-old Mary Rutka was struck by a train and fatally injured.

Supposedly because he went blind in one eye, Farmer George Shove, living two miles from Wellsboro, committed suicide by shooting.

Buy Keystone floor. Be sure that the name LEWIS & BAKER, Ashland, Pa., is printed on every sack.

THE SCHOOL BOARD.

Meeting Last Night—Teachers Will Be Elected Next Week.

A special meeting of the School Board was held last night for the transaction of general business. The session was a brief one and was chiefly devoted to the consideration of reports to school buildings. The members in attendance were Messrs. Keiper, Holvey, Dove, Malick, Hanna, Martin, Coughlin, Kerrigan, Whitaker, Connors, Baugh, Leo, Sullivan and Britt.

On recommendation of the exoneration committee the secretary was authorized to purchase a record book and stationery for use on exonerations.

The committee on building and repairs presented a report as follows:

"Your building and repairs committee met and, with the exception of Messrs. Glenn and O'Hearn and an additional bid of John Gowl, the bid of Glenn and O'Hearn is for putting up a ceiling of yellow pine, for Mess. Mr. Gowl's bid is for plastering, three coats, at 20 cents per square yard, including the removal of the old plastering from ceiling. We would recommend the plaster, and that it be given to the lowest bidder on plaster. We also hand you herewith bids of Messrs. A. I. Graf and M. H. Mastor. Mr. Graf's bid $28.75 and Mr. Mastor's $13 per square foot. Three being 354 feet of fencing, Mr. Mastor's bid would be $44.25. We would recommend the putting up of the fence, and that it be given to the lowest bidder, and that the necessary stones be placed for anchoring posts. We hand bids received to date herewith. We also recommend that the ceiling at the White street building be put on and that repairs be made to other rooms at the same time."

The plastering bids referred to related to work to be done at the old White street building. John Gowl was a bidder at $99.70, bulk, and Elmer Louka at 20 cents per square yard, the same as Mr. Gowl's bid. The fencing referred to is to be done at the building corner of West and Lloyd streets. The report was accepted and the recommendations adopted.

A motion was made that one copy of the School Journal be subscribed for, to be sent to the secretary's office for use by the members. Mr. Whitaker moved an amendment that the copy be paid for by the members and Mr. Dove seconded the amendment but, after an explanation by Superintendent Casper that the Board could legally pay for the copy, Mr. Whitaker asked permission to withdraw the amendment. Mr. Dove objected to this. The amendment was defeated. Mr. Dove requesting to be recorded in the affirmative. The original motion was then carried.

The Board adjourned until next Wednesday evening to levy tax, elect school teachers, fix the term and salaries, and general business.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Sadie Williams is lying ill at her home on East Coal street.

Miss Sallie Price, of Lost Creek, is visiting friends in Berwick.

Miss Mary Lecky, of Washington, D. C., is spending a few days with Pottsville friends before returning home.

Mr. John Haupt, of Fraekville, and daughter, Miss Sarah, were town visitors last evening.

Mrs. William Beck, of West Line street, has presented her husband with a son.

Mrs. M. J. Kilroy, of Philadelphia, who spent the past week in town visiting her mother, Mrs. E. Walsh, of West Lloyd street, left yesterday for Seven Stars to visit her sister, Mrs. Christ Besser.

John Monaghan, a League Island Navy Yard attache, at Philadelphia, is the guest of his parents in town.

Miss Hattie Supowitz has returned from a two-week visit to her sister, Mrs. Harry Kaufmann, of Towanda. She was accompanied by the latter's husband on the return trip.

Charles Stubbs, boss machinist in the erection of the new ice plant at the Columbia Brewing Company, and Miss Brennan, of West Coal street, enjoyed a drive through the Catawissa valley last evening, behind Frank Scanlan's spirited horse.

Working Night and Day.

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globe of health, that changes weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c per box. Sold by A. Wasley.

Committed Suicide.

Made dependent by the loss of his position, William Johnson, a former well known Pottsville man, committed suicide by inhaling illuminating gas at his office in Philadelphia. He was a civil engineer and was formerly employed on the Reading subway in that city.

Letters Granted.

Letters testamentary were granted to Louis B. Cattus, on the estate of Louis R. Baker, late of Pottsville, deceased.

To Martha Geiger, on the estate of Daniel H. Geiger, late of St. Clair, deceased.

Also to Margaret Koerber, on the estate of John Koerber, late of Tremont, deceased.

Tyler Announces His Candidacy.

Rosnoke, Va., July 13.—Governor J. Hoge Tyler, in a dispatch from Marion, Va., announces himself a candidate for United States senator to succeed Thomas S. Martin. He says in part: "The people of Virginia have been aroused to taking an active interest in the selection of their senator, and resent deeply the intimation that interested corporations and certain favored circles arrange in advance who is to be selected for this high honor."

Mine Accidents.

John Cobley, a car runner employed at the North Mahanoy colliery, had his face lacerated and several teeth knocked out by a flying sprag striking him.

Michael Mesley, a laborer at the Vulcan colliery, had one of his shoulders severely injured by a fall of top rock.

Robbery Early This Morning.

This morning at four o'clock, while the electric light system in the western end of town was demoralized, an unknown robber hurled a piece of rock, weighing 44 pounds, through the show window of George Dengler's shoe store, at 428 West Centre street. He reached in the window by standing on a neighboring porch and seized a cheap pair of men's shoes, and one ladies' shoe with a high heel and another with a spring heel. The crash of breaking glass awoke Mr. Dengler, who was sleeping in the room above the store. He raised the window just in time to see the robber flee with his booty. Owing to the darkness he was unable to recognize the thief.

Dangerously Burned.

Michael Kostorik, 37 years old and employed at the Mahanoy City colliery, was probably fatally burned to-day by an explosion of gas. His head and face and arms up to the elbows were badly burned. He also received lacerated wounds of the scalp.

Day on the Farm.

Several residents of West Cherry street spent yesterday at the home of Mrs. Peter Henry, at Zion's Grove, and had a very enjoyable time. Among those in the party were Mrs. William Spears, Mrs. George Hares, Mrs. Luke Bowen, Mrs. George Burren, Mrs. James Kern, Mrs. Joseph Rakiewicz, Mrs. Eadie Carey, Mrs. Maggie Powell, Miss Katie Yost, of Minersville, Misses Estie and Annie Caray, and Messrs. Albert Burren, Joseph Rakiewicz, James and Samuel Kerwin and John Flaherty.

THE WEATHER.

The pressure continues high off the South Atlantic and North Pacific coasts. A trough of low pressure extends from New Mexico to Manitoba. The temperature has fallen in the Middle and Lower Missouri and the Upper Mississippi valleys and in the lake regions, and has remained nearly stationary elsewhere. Forecast for today and tomorrow in this section: Generally fair; continued high temperature, with prospects of cooler weather tomorrow afternoon or night; variable winds.

Sunrise, 4:50; sunset, 7:33; length of day, 14h., 43m.; moon rises, 10:31 a. m.; moon sets, 10:05 p. m.

POLITICAL POINTS.

Judge Koch, if he desires to be nominated, should muzzle the Republican.

Chairman Quail has opened headquarters at the Merchants' hotel, Pottsville.

The Democratic convention made a good beginning but a sad and disgraceful ending.

To add to the discomfort of the Silver Junta, Editor Lawlor was refused a substitution in the convention, when it became known that he was to be a member of the committee on resolutions.

The average Schuykill Democrat cares more for the offices than the principles of the party.

Somebody stole the ballot box in Port Carbon on Saturday and gained information as to who assisted in the defeat of Burgess Steacy as a delegate to the county convention. Prosecutions are threatened. Such things are not unusual here in Shenandoah.

An amusing feature of the convention was the contest made by J. O. Ulrich, of town, for the chairmanship. At the primaries held in town on Saturday he was a candidate for standing committeeman for the South ward and received the minimum vote cast—nine. But as the leader of the silver faction he was determined to be conspicuous and by a temporary substitution got on the floor and ran for chairman.—Tamaqua Courier.

There is a contest for every office to be nominated by the Republicans, except Clerk of the Courts.

The November election this year will occur on the seventh of the month. There will be elections in 11 states and governors will be chosen in six, namely, Maryland, Ohio, Iowa, Massachusetts, Kentucky and Mississippi.

Location may give Shenandoah the Poor Directorship.

The Republican primary elections will be held on Saturday. With the exception of the First and Fourth, there are spirited contests in this town. In the Fifth ward three sets of delegates are in the field.

The capture by the anti-Bryans of the Democratic convention was a great surprise. The adherents of the Nebraska leader are swearing vengeance. There appears to be a widespread hope that the Republican will carry Schuykill, unless they also make a factional contest.

The Tamaqua Recorder, the organ of the Silver Junta, which declared positively that it would not support the ticket if Wadlinger was nominated, now hedges. It says: "The majority rules, and we will use our best efforts to elect the full ticket as nominated. Democracy first." Now, what do you think of that!

Hon. Joseph Wyatt is making an active canvass for the Commission of nomination. Letters received from Senator Jones, of Arkansas, now in Switzerland, confirm the denials of his contemplated resignation of the Democratic National Chairmanship.

Butler township is in the saddle. The "statestmen" from that district controlled the Democratic convention and selected the chairman.

The rumor that Chairman Moyer, of the Democratic county committee, will resign shortly, seems to have some foundation.

The public declaration of Senator Morgan, of Alabama, that the time has come for Democracy to cease following a facile and candidates men who have started the Bryan contingent. He calls on the Democrats of the South to be conservative and join in the compromise with the Democrats of the East on Democratic principles. He wants to drop idols and look for unity.

Frontal assault comes the assurance to James McElhenry of his nomination for Prothonotary next Monday. Jim would make a hustling candidate. His popularity at his present and former homes is unquestioned.—Mahanoy City Record.

Candidate Higgins desires to state that his nomination was secured without deserting any of his friends.

Comments the Hazleton Sentinel: "The Schuykill Democrats straddled the national issues by ignoring silver and endorsing its Nebraska apostle, Bryan. When professional soldiers such as prevail in Schuykill fall to see any merit in the silver falke then it is time for something else to be introduced."

Common Nuisances.

John Moshinski and his wife and daughter, Josephine, each furnished $300 bail on a charge of being common nuisances, preferred by Kate Vlasen. Justice Toomey heard the case. All the parties reside on the "rocks."

Anthony Stramilik and Anthony Skumin paid the fine and costs to Chief Burgess Tabor on a similar charge. The arrests were made last night by Officers Mullahay and Foyle.

Assaulted His Wife.

Isaac Morgans was committed to jail to-day on a charge of assault and battery by his wife, Mary. His daughter, Mrs. Alice Durban, was the prosecutrix. Justice Toomey committed the prisoner.

Fell From a Porch.

Charles, seven-year-old son of John O'Connell, of Mahanoy City, sustained a fracture of the left leg, below the knee, by falling to a pavement from a porch.

DIED.

SMITH.—On the 12th inst., at Hazleton, Pa., W. H. Smith, aged 25 years, 7 months and 7 days. The funeral will take place on Saturday, 15th inst., leaving Hazleton on the 9:00 a. m. P. R. train and arriving at Pottsville at 10:30, proceeding from the depot to St. John's cemetery, where interment will be made. Relatives and friends respectfully invited to attend. 7-13-01.

NEW TELEPHONES.

Application to be Made This Month for a Charter for New Company.

Application will be made to the Governor July 26th by Howard Mitchell, P. W. Evans, James Young, S. S. Yobe and G. F. Coffin, all of Easton, for the charter of a corporation to be called "The United States Long Distance Telephone Company," the object of which is the purpose of erecting, constructing, purchasing, maintaining, leasing and operating telephone and telegraph lines and exchanges in and through twenty-eight counties in this state, including Schuykill.

This company is to compete with the Bell Company and will furnish long distance phones at about half the present rate. They will absorb the local companies in the various counties and will thus be in a position for effective competition.
