GOEBEL'S OPPONENT.

Kentucky Republicans! Candidate For Governor.

WILLIAM S. TAYLOR CHOSEN.

Flow of Kentucky Oratory in the Nominating Speeches-Over Three Hundred Speeches Delivered During the Day-Colored Men Will Bolt.

Lexington, Ky., July 14.—The Republican state convention adjourned last night after being in continuous session since 9 a. m. What was called the Deboe-Taylor slate for the most part was ratified. Before the convention assembled most of the delegates were for Taylor for governor, and when the nomination for governor was reached about all of them were for Taylor. In the contests for minor places there was a vociferous flow of Kentucky oratory. In the contest for attorney general there were 47 speech-es by actual count and during the day there were over 300 speeches. After the presentation speech for each candidate there was a multitude of seconding speeches.

The presentation of Taylor's name by his leading opponent, Colonel H. S. Stone, and the seconding of the same by Judge Pratt, his other opponent, was a dramatic scene, but the most exciting time of the convention was during the contest for attorney eral. The Taylor men who had been making the race for that nomination objected to being sidetracked by one who had failed of another nomination and they made an aggressive fight. Senator Deboe, General Taylor and their close friends were active workers in the half during the balloting for attorney general. They wanted Judge Pratt on the ticket, and they finally nominated him by an overwhelming majority. The full ticket nominated is as follows: For governor, William S. Tay-lor; Hentenant governor, John Marshall; secretary of state, Caleb Powers; state treasurer, Walter R. Day; attor-ney general, Clifton J. Pratt; state auditor, John S. Sweeney; superintencommissioner of agriculture, John W. Throckmorton.

The closing hours of the convention were very stormy, and for more than an hour intense excitement prevailed because of an arbitrary ruling by Chairman Breathitt, but cooler heads prevailed, and the convention adjourned after passing resolutions thanking the city of Lexington for favors shown, and Chairman Breathitt for fair and impartial rulings.

Some of the negroes of Lexington are still dissatisfied with the nomination of General Taylor for governor, and an effort will be made by them to defeat him. A number of prominent negroes of this city and Louisville held A household necessity. Dr. Thomas' a meeting yesterday afternoon and decided to place a negro ticket in the field this fall. A conference will be any sort; cures sore throat, croup, catarrh, ticket nominated. They have no idea of winning, but they claim they will cause Taylor to lose the colored vote.

William S. Taylor is 45 years old. He was a poor farmer boy and taught school before he became county clerk in 1882. While in that office he studied law and afterward was elected judge. ago, when William O. Bradley was elected governor.

Mr. Brewer stated to the newspaper they seemed to indicate a violation of the statute, and not of the commisstatute, and not of the commisjury of the federal court and com-pelled the attendance of witnesses, which this commission could not do.

I have been on friendly terms with them both. On account of those friendly relations I did not desire to come here and try the case. I did come simply because I was ordered to do so. Upon our arrival here my associates insisted that I must conduct the proceedings. This I did with as much vigor as I ever displayed in a trial in court. I have sought in every way to elucidate pertinent facts. I never have had a thought of screening anybody

MARK S. BREWER.

In relation to the statement that he had himself contributed to the cam-Mr. Brewer parenthetically. With reference to the fact that he notified witnesses that they were not obliged to answer certain questions, Mr. Brewer said he did only what any judge in any court in the land would be expected to do-that is, inform witnesses as to their legal rights.

Commissioner Brewer quoted Senator Chandler's remarks that the other investigators, Commissioner Harlow and Agent Wales, were "good fellows," and added: "I did nothing here, except get mad, that has not met the approval of these two good fellows; and I take the responsibility for getting If Senator Chandler had continued those insinuations I would have flung him out of the window. No man with a particle of self respect could sit still and permit such allegations to be made by a gentleman of his position."

As to Senator Chandler's movements for his removal Mr. Brewer said: Bless his dear heart, he knows nothing about my relations with the president, and no more about the civil service commission than does the man in the moon. I am not filling the position at my own request and through my own seeking, but simply and solely because William McKinley sent for me and urged me to take it. If President McKinley should decide to take the advice of Senator Chandler and Governor Busiel, and should ask me for the chair I have occupied for the past 18 months, it would be almost as pleasant to me as to Mr. Chandler. Chandler and I have long been friends. and will be again in a few days, I doubt not."

Senator Chandler, when seen later, said that his position is not at all changed by Mr. Brewer's statement. He will prefer charges against Commis-sioner Brewer, not on account of any personal discourtesy, but on account of the general misconduct of the hearing by the commission.
