OUR GERMAN COUSINS.

Envoy Von Mumm Delares Our Relations Most Cordial.

NOT A CLOUD ON THE HORIZON.

The Settlement of the Samoa Affair Shows How Serious Difficulties Readily Yield to Satisfactory Adjustment Between Friendly Nations.

Washington, July 20.—Mr. A. Von Mumm, the German envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to the United States, who arrived here recently on Monday last presented to President McKinley his credentials, was seen at the German embassy yesterday, and for the first time since his arrival consented to talk in a general way concerning current topics of interest between the two governments.

Mr. Von Mumm is not a stranger in Washington, for he was here as first secretary of the German legation from 1888 to 1892, during which time he negotiated and signed the important reciprocity treaty with Germany. At that time Secretary Blaine formed a warm personal attachment for him.

"I am fortunate in returning to Washington at a time when the relations between the two countries are on such a friendly basis," said Mr. Von Mumm. "Among those I have left behind—the responsible officials at Berlin as well as the people at large—I can assure you there is the most cordial sentiment of good will for the United States government and for your people, and a sincere purpose to maintain that relation. And I am glad to note among your officials the same evidences of good will. That is the strongest assurance of the bonds between Germany and the United States. I am glad to say there is not even a cloud on the horizon of our good relations."

Being asked as to the outlook on the Samoa question, which has engaged this government and Germany, as well as Great Britain, the minister said:

"That is a case in point showing that what may seem to present serious difficulties readily yields to a satisfactory adjustment when the governments have a sincere purpose to avoid causes for friction. In the case of Samoa the critical phases appear to have disappeared. With the appointment of the Samoan commission a final adjustment is largely committed to their hands. What they have done thus far appears to be in the interest of all concerned. We are looking forward to a complete adjustment of this question and its elimination from official and public attention, for in reality it lacks the dignity and importance to warrant its being a factor of disagreement between great nations."

In connection with Mr. Von Mumm's arrival there has been much comment in the press as to the German reciprocity negotiations, and the possibility that he would push them actively to the front. This appears to have arisen largely from the fact that he holds the rank of minister instead of charge d'affaires, and also from his connections with the former reciprocity treaty. As to this he said:

"I notice that the American press infers that I come on a special mission relating to reciprocity. But I assure you I have no specific instructions which contemplate the immediate conclusion of a treaty."

A Wreck From Grippe, Catarrh and Asthma.

RESTORED WITH BRAZILIAN BALM

I was known as "The Woman who Coughed," for I coughed incessantly. I was a school teacher till my health failed. Catarrh had eaten away the partition in my nose. It had produced Bronchitis, Asthma, dreadful Stomach troubles and weak kidneys. In fact it had gone all through my system, making me an easy victim for the Grippe which left me a wreck in mind and body. This was the condition the doctors left me in, after dosing me with opium, quinine, etc. Then I bought cough cures without end but they only made me worse. I was in despair till I got hold of Brazilian Balm and Toxicola Tablets. They acted like magic from the first, and in a few weeks I was cured and better than I had been in years. Talk about wonderful remedies, Brazilian Balm and Toxicola saved my life.

THE SPREADING STRIKE.

LIVELY FIGHTS WITH POLICE.

Several Riots on Second Avenue—Police Beaten and a Boy Dying With a Fractured Skull—Altered Brooklyn Dynamiters Held For Trial.

New York, July 20.—Despite the protests of General Master Workmen Parsons, a strike was ordered yesterday morning on the lines of the Metropolitan street railway in New York. If the strikers wanted to make plenty of work for the police and at the same time get into the street, where they could depend on popular sympathy, they made a wise selection in taking the Second Avenue line for the principal field of the strike.

Several times during the afternoon the police were called upon to quell riots in Second Avenue, but none was serious until the riot broke out. It did not begin until the thousands of working people who live along that great thoroughfare came home from work.

By 7 o'clock Second Avenue from Tenth street to the stables at Ninety-sixth street, and even as far as One Hundred and Tenth street, was filled on both walks with a dense mass of people, all eager for trouble. Police Captain Donahue had sent out a squad of men to keep people out of the middle of the street, so that no tampering with the riot might occur. But his men were like so many chips on a river when the tide ran strong, and they were tossed hither and thither. They used their clubs with all their power, and the only result was to anger the crowd so that little discrimination was shown between the police and the car men when bricks were thrown.

About 8 o'clock a great crowd gathered between Forty-second and Forty-fifth streets and attempted to overthrow the cars that came along about 30 minutes apart. Policeman Owen Conovan, who was on a car bound south, was hit on the head with a brick and knocked off to the pavement. His left eye was almost knocked out. He was taken to the hospital. Louis Minkus, a 9-year-old boy, got in front of a policeman's club and in the excitement the bluecoat made no distinctions. The boy was knocked over and was carried home with a fractured skull. He will probably die. Mike Sheridan, a strike sympathizer, was also taken home with a fractured skull.

Another crowd got together in a minute or two at Fifty-fifth street and Second Avenue, and when a car bound down came along it met a perfect shower of bricks, stones and other missiles thrown from the street. The windows of flats and the roofs. The women were perfect furies. While a car was passing Seventy-second street, with Policeman Gallagher as an escort, a score or more of the mob tried to board it to take off the conductor and motorman. Gallagher got off, and drawing two revolvers walked ahead of the car, clearing the track. Some one threw a brick and hit Gallagher on the leg, cutting him badly. Twelve mounted policemen came down the avenue to the rescue and dispersed the crowd for the time being.

The cars, which had 11 fares and transfers rung up at Fourteenth street had only the motorman, conductor and police escort of two men aboard when it reached Eighty-fifth street. Several of the passengers had been hit and wounded and got off the car further down town.

A great many men were injured all along the line. Policeman Olson, of the Kings Bridge mounted squad, was thrown from his horse during a fight near Ninety-fourth street. His leg was broken and he received internal injuries. A motorman was struck on the chest with a brick and ran on half past and seriously injured. Several passengers received nasty scalp wounds from stones thrown by the mob.

THE STRIKE IN BROOKLYN.

Twenty-one Alleged Dynamiters Held in Jail For Trial.

Brooklyn, July 20.—The strike in New York infused new blood into the strike in Brooklyn, and did not tend to improve matters. The car service was very poor. In the earlier part of the day 85 per cent of the cars of the Brooklyn Heights system were operated, but this was lessened to a considerable extent later in the day. On the Nassau lines cars worked on half headway all day. Take it all in all, less than half the cars were run, and these were but little patronized.

The arrest of 21 men charged with conspiracy to destroy the elevated railroad early yesterday morning at Fifth Avenue and Third street had little effect on the public, although it was expected that public sympathy would turn against the strikers. The men, who were arrested at Carberry's Hall, at the corner of Atlantic and Rockaway avenues, were arraigned yesterday afternoon at the Adams street police court before Magistrate Brenner. They were represented by counsel, who pleaded not guilty in their behalf and demanded an immediate hearing. The original charge of vagrancy, on which the men had been held, was dismissed and they answered the charge of conspiracy substantiated by the affidavit of William Ashby, an "investigator," who deposed that on Monday evening he had attended a meeting at Carberry Hall and that there was talk of buying dynamite, the use of the dynamite to be contingent on the action of the engineers of the elevated railroad concerning the proposition to strike. If the elevated railroad refused to go out, somebody suggested, dynamite should be used to blow them up. Such remarks, said Ashby, were followed by "We will, we will." Ashby further stated that he saw O'Hara and three others leave the hall, saying they had the stuff with them, and that they had in their pockets packages rolled in brown paper looking like dynamite.

The men were held in bonds of $750.

O'Hara, the man who Ashby said carried dynamite, stated last night that he and his companions had nothing whatever to do with the dynamite explosion and that they had fallen asleep in Carberry Hall while waiting for the returns from the sympathy meeting at Cooper Union and were asleep at the time the explosion happened. The first they were aroused by the police, when they were arrested by the police.

While the police looked upon the explosion as a dismal failure, in so far as it failed to accomplish its evident purpose, they are not overlooking the possibility of anarchists being con-
