SATURDAY, JULY 22, 1909.

OUR COUNTRY: First, Last and Forever.

ONE of the facts which has a discouraging effect on the leaders of the Democratic party is the great increase in industrial activity in the West. Everybody, Democrat as well as Republican, who tells anything nowadays about the social conditions in the Western states mentions the prosperity which is diffused through all of them. Business is more active in all of them than was ever known before.

JULY is more than half over—the year is more than half gone. Pushing merchants have had a successful season. They have encroached upon the territory of the man who was "known to everybody and did not need to advertise." Now is the time when the pushing merchant looks back over a season of gradual advance—the slow and conservative man can see where he lost here and there from following a wrong policy. The progressive man is still enthusiastic, and while he has not subsided during the hot weather, he is planning for greater things in the fall.

AT last the Supreme Court has reached a decision in the Erie Soldiers' Home case. It has been the custom for the managers of the Home to take from the inmates all the money they received as pensions, in excess of $4 per month. Some of the old soldiers protested and brought suit to recover the money so withheld from them. The Supreme Court decides that when the old soldiers enter the Home as inmates they agree to abide by the rules of the institution, and one of the rules being to require pensioners to turn over to the managers a certain proportion of their pensions, they will have to comply.

ALGER'S RESIGNATION. The people of the United States were startled by news that Secretary Alger had placed his resignation in the hands of the President. Only a few days ago Gen. Alger was reported as saying that he would not resign his position until after the first of the year. The pressure for his resignation has been so great that he was probably unable to longer resist. President McKinley, despite the severe attacks of the critics of the administration of the War Department, has stood solidly behind his chief, and, as far as known, has never requested or hinted that he should resign.

SECRETARY ALGER in the conduct of the war with Spain had a most difficult task to perform. The country was suddenly plunged into war without time for proper preparation, and the work of mobilizing, equipping and feeding an army of about 275,000 men, which had been put into the field in a few months' time, required a tremendous amount of detail. Whether any one else under the circumstances could have done better is only problematical. It is always easier for the spectators on the bleachers to play a game of base ball correctly than it is for the man in the field who has been employed for that purpose.

SECRETARY ALGER'S resignation will please those who have felt that the President in retaining him in his Cabinet was carrying a load which would, if not gotten rid of, result in disaster to his Administration and would seriously affect his chances for re-election next year. The Democracy, on the other hand, will be deprived of a large amount of ammunition, as they fully expected to make Alger one of the issues in the coming Presidential campaign.

SPECULATION will now be rife as to the successor of Secretary Alger. Whoever it may be he will find that he will have no easy row to hoe, and that the position will be anything but a bed of roses. In the conduct of any war those in official or executive positions have always been the subject of assault, not only on account

WASHINGTON, July 22.—The war department has issued a statement quoting certain dispatches from General Otis in answer to the press correspondents' "round robin." The general says in substance that the correspondents wish to send statements that imperil operations; that they had no specification to support their charges against him and that those charges were untrue. He denies that he minimizes the work of the navy and quotes from naval dispatches to justify his statement.

NEWS and Chalmers at War.
Faintly Wash., July 22.—War broke out Thursday night between 500 Japanese on the one hand and 250 Chinese on the other. The fight raged intermittently all night and yesterday, knives, rocks and iron bars being the weapons used. The total list of casualties was ten Chinamen and one Japanese injured. The combatants are employees of the salmon cannery here, and the fight is the result of a drunken debauch.

A JUVENILE AVENGER.
Birmingham, Ala., July 22.—Frank State, a Portuguese, was shot and mortally wounded at Carbon Hill yesterday by his 10-year-old son George. The father had just returned from serving a sentence in the penitentiary for a assault, and was on a drinking bout. His 7-year-old stepdaughter offended him and he threatened to kill and wipe out the whole family. The son interposed objection and the father rushed at him angrily with a carving knife. The boy picked up a pistol and shot his father as he approached. He then surrendered. The father will die.

NINE BRITISH SEAMEN KILLED
And Four Injured by Explosion on a Torpedo Boat Destroyer.
London, July 22.—An explosion on board the torpedo boat destroyer Bullfinch, on the Solent, during her trial yesterday, killed nine and injured four of those on board. It was the worst naval accident of this nature that has occurred in the British navy in 20 years. The victims were terribly injured, steam and boiling water filling the engine room. The Bullfinch is one of the latest designed thirty knot torpedo boat destroyers.

WHILE the Bullfinch was running at her full speed of 30 knots, the connecting rod of the starboard engine broke, and striking the cylinder knocked off its end.

THE engine room presented a terrible sight. The injured were groaning in agony. One man, who had apparently been struck by some flying metal, had his head nearly torn off.

STRIKING FREIGHT HANDS WIN.
New York, July 22.—The striking freight handlers on the New York, New Haven and Hartford road gained a victory yesterday, the company conceding the demand for 20 cents an hour for a 10-hour day on week days and 25 cents an hour for night and Sunday work. The men were getting 17 1/2 cents an hour. All the men went back to work at 4 o'clock and the freight which had accumulated on the dock began quickly to disappear.

ADMIRAL DEWEY QUARANTEED.
Honest Hero Pays Tribute to the Skill of His Engineer.
Trieste, July 22.—Admiral Dewey, accompanied by Captain Benjamin P. Lambertson and Flag Lieutenant T. M. Brumby, of the United States cruiser Olympia, landed here yesterday to rest Thursday's visits to the admiral and to call officially upon the governor of Kusterland, Count Goess. The American officers also called upon the mayor of Trieste.

THE United States minister to Austria-Hungary, Mr. Addison C. Harris, gave a banquet last night at the Hotel de la Ville, in honor of Admiral Dewey. After a toast to President McKinley had been drunk, Mr. Harris proposed the health of Admiral Dewey, who, in reply, said simply "I thank you sincerely and drink to your good health."

CAPTAIN Fess responded to the toast. "The American Navy," Mr. Harris then proposed. "The captain and crew of the Olympia," and requested Admiral Dewey to relate something of the battle of Manila. The admiral replied:

"I only know that, having asked the steward for something to drink, he gave me lukewarm, weak coffee, which made me feel quite sick, but my flag lieutenant kept the record and I invite him to speak."

FLAG Lieutenant Brumby said: "I was a midshipman under Admiral Dewey and he taught me not to talk, so I will only say 'Dewey did it.'"

ADMIRAL Dewey rose again and said: "You ask me about the guns and the superiority of our firing. We fired ten shots a minute with our five inch guns against three shots a minute. I found it more neutral than the Austrians."

AT this point Mr. Harris interposed saying: "Austria is sincerely friendly to the United States."
