

DRYFUS SECOND TRIAL

Opening of the Court Martial Which Will Give Him Liberty.

THE FAMOUS SECRET DOSSIER.

This Document Being Considered Behind Closed Doors, and the First Public Session Will Probably Be Held on Thursday.

Rennes, France, Aug. 7.—The second trial of Captain Alfred Dreyfus on the charge of treason, brought about by the recent agitation throughout the civilized world, began this morning. After the indictment had been read the president of the court martial, Colonel Jouhaux, ordered the doors closed for the consideration of the secret dossier, which will be presented by General Chamein. The consideration of the dossier, it is expected, will occupy two days, so that the public session will probably be on Thursday, although perhaps not until Friday. The general impression is that the whole proceedings will occupy at least three weeks. The town is extremely animated, but everywhere perfect tranquility prevails. Public interest is concentrated upon the arrival from Paris of various persons likely to figure in the trial of Captain Dreyfus. Among these are Generals De Bodelle, Gons and Roget, M. Godfrey Cavaignac, former minister of war, and M. Casimir-Perier, former president of France.

A large crowd greeted the generals on alighting from the train with cries of "Vive France." The revisionist spectators responded with "Vive la République," but there was no disturbance of order.

M. Casimir-Perier, who was much fatigued by the long railway journey, decided to walk to the hotel, hoping that he would not be recognized, but his identity soon became known and a large crowd followed him as he walked slowly along, chatting with the prefect of police and the chief of the secret police, M. Vigur, who met him at the railway station. The crowd made no demonstration. The authorities, however, deem it wise to maintain the most stringent precautions for the safety of the former president, and six gendarmes patrol the front of the hotel where he has apartments, while a number of detectives watch the entrance hall closely and seal all arrivals.

A frightful blunder will often cause a horrible burn, scald, cut or bruise. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, will kill the pain and promptly heal it. Cures Old Sores, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Blisters, Corns, all Skin Eruptions, Itch, etc. The cure is sure. Only 25c. a box. Care guaranteed. Sold by A. Wasley, Druggist.

MT. DESERT HORROR

Score of Persons Drowned by the Breaking of a Gang Plank.

A HUNDRED AND FIFTY PEOPLE

Pre-empted into the Water, and Many Sink beneath the Waves while Clutching Each Other in a Death Grapple—All Were Excursionists.

Bar Harbor, Me., Aug. 7.—A score of persons were killed yesterday by the collapse of a gang plank of the Mount Desert ferry when fifteen were drowned and three died from the terrible experience of immersion in the water and injuries while struggling for life.

Following is a list of the dead so far as now known: Mrs. William Murray of Brewer; Irving Briggs, West Hancock; Albert Cohen, Levant; Mrs. Alonzo P. Oakes, Bangor; Miss Grace Summer, Bangor; Joseph Murphy Oldtown; Mrs. Hollis W. Eaton, Ellsworth; Clifford Cushman, Corinth; Miss Lizzie Ward, Bangor; Charles W. Downes, Ellsworth; F. E. Swetzer, traveling salesman; Portland; Ora M. Lank, Dunbar; Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Bennett, Brewer; Mrs. Charles Stover, Ellsworth; Melvin McCard, Corinth; Mrs. A. H. Billings, Bangor; Mrs. George Derwent, Bangor; Miss Lewis, Hampden; unknown woman, believed to be a saleswoman for a Boston publishing house.

The Maine Central railroad ran excursions to Bar Harbor from all sections of its line in Maine, the attraction being the warships, which were expected yesterday.

All the morning long trains packed with excursionists were waiting at Bar Harbor. The train which left Bangor at 8:25 consisted of 12 cars jammed with people. At Mount Desert ferry, the terminus of the line, the train is left for the boat, for an eight mile sail, or gangplank, about 100 feet wide, led up to the boat. The slip was hinged at the inner end, the outer end being supported by chains, by which it was raised or lowered to suit the tide. The wharf extends on both sides flush with the end of the wooden gangplank. Five timbers, four by twelve inches, vertically ran the length of the plank, and these were crossed by two inch planking. It is said that there was no support for the plank between the hinges at the outer end.

When the excursion train from Bangor arrived at the ferry there was a rush for the steamer Sappho. The first few passengers had crossed the gangplank safely, and it is estimated that 200 people were massed on the plank. Suddenly they fell, the plank giving away beneath them. The long timber supporting the plank broke in the middle, the vertical timbers at one end and the chain at the other, while the broken ends of the plank dropped, and a struggling, screaming mass of humanity was plunged into the water 15 feet below the wharf. A few clung to the inclined sides of the plank, but at least 100 were struggling in the water. The planking of the wharf practically pinned them in on three sides, and the boat lying at the wharf closed the outer end of the opening.

Ropes and life preservers were thrown to the crowd, but in the panic the people in the water clutched one another, and many sank thus in groups in a death struggle. Many taken from the water were unconscious and were revived with difficulty. The freight house at the ferry was turned into a morgue, the bodies being taken there for identification as fast as recovered. By noon 17 had been recovered. Three other persons were taken on board the Sappho, and died on the way to Bar Harbor.

The exact number of dead will not be known for some time yet, as a strong tide sweeps under the pier, and some bodies may have been carried away by it. A diver, who was set to work without delay, was engaged in his search until 5 o'clock, but only 17 bodies were found.

James returns to Havana. Havana, Aug. 7.—General Juan Ildro Jimenez, who, with six Cubans and four natives of San Domingo, left Havana Saturday afternoon, supposedly bound for San Domingo, returned to his home in San Lorenzo street Saturday evening, bringing his baggage. The supposition is that, on finding he was closely watched, he decided to await a better opportunity. Should he start again he will not be interfered with unless he endeavors to take an armed expedition. General Ludlow ridicules the idea that Jimenez, an experienced conspirator, would tell of a newspaper of his filibustering plans.

The Quarantine Effective. Newport News, Va., Aug. 7.—There were no deaths or new cases of yellow fever at the Hampton Soldiers' Home yesterday, and the authorities feel certain that they have succeeded in effectually checking the disease. No other cases of yellow fever have been reported at Phoebus. It is thought now that quarantine restrictions will be modified this week, and that they will soon be removed altogether.

Soldiers to Leave Cleveland. Cleveland, Aug. 7.—It is announced that all the military will be withdrawn from Cleveland perhaps before tonight. Yesterday was one of the quietest days since the beginning of the strike. Violence has ceased entirely, and there is no apprehension of a fresh outbreak. The action of the merchants in declaring their purpose to resist the boycott has already had its effect. The cars were well patronized yesterday on the Euclid and Cedar lines, and there was a noticeable increase in the number of passengers carried on other lines.

WELL KNOWN SOCIETY LADY PUBLICLY COMMENDS AND Brazilian Balm Toxicola Tablets

"I am glad of the opportunity to publicly commend Brazilian Balm and Toxicola Tablets. They are certainly very excellent remedies as I can testify from long experience. They have kept me in splendid health, so I have never had to call a physician since I used them. Brazilian Balm is the one thing that cures Grippe, so it leaves no evil effects behind; and for colds, coughs, catarrh and lung troubles, I never knew its equal. And Toxicola is the most wonderful thing to put vigor and life into the system I ever saw. It corrects biliousness, tones up the nerves, clears the complexion and purifies the blood. It is good any time but for a Spring and Fall medicine it is worth its weight in gold. I know Miss L. L. Clark, "The Woman Who Coughed," and can say these remedies did all that is claimed for her and more too. I know of a great many cures in this locality. They ought to be in every home in America. They would save thousands of lives for they cure the worst cases. The best people here use them." Miss Sara Elmina Reynolds, Indianapolis, Ind.

Brazilian Balm at Druggists, 25c. and $1.00 a bottle. More doses for the money than any other remedy. Toxicola Tablets 15c. and 50c. a box. With every $1.00 bottle of Balm you get a month's treatment of Toxicola Tablets FREE. Do not fail to try these remarkable remedies.

YAGUI INDIANS IN EARNEST.

They Are Thoroughly Prepared For a Long and Bloody War.

Austin, Tex., Aug. 7.—A special dispatch received here yesterday from Terrazas, Chihuahua, Mexico, which is located near the scene of the Yaqui prison, in to the effect that the Indians are preparing for a prolonged war. The dispatch says:

"The Mexican government will need a long time and a big force of troops to quell the rebellion. The Yaquis are better prepared now than ever before for a long and bloody campaign. They are all well equipped with arms and ammunition of them having saved the $200 per head which the Mexican government paid them when they signed the treaty of peace two years ago. They have been making money since then, too, and it is known that they have been laying in a big supply of arms and ammunition for some time past. It has been common talk among the American prospectors in the Yaqui valley that the Indians were preparing for another outbreak, but as the Yaquis had always shown a friendly spirit towards the Americans it was thought they would not molest them when they were in the warpath. They are determined to recover all of their lost country, however, and will kill everybody they find within the limits of their old possessions."

The dispatch also says that a number of miners and ranchmen in and near Coahuila had been slain and their property laid waste.

Seventeen Killed on French Railway. Paris, Aug. 7.—The official investigation into the collision Saturday evening at Juvisy, a suburb of Paris, on the Orleans and Nantes line, between the Paris and Lyons Mediterranean train, showed that 17 persons were killed and 45 injured.
