LOUISIANA LYNCHING

May Result in Grave Complications With Italy.

AMERICANS WHOLLY TO BLAME.

Marguis Romano, Secretary of the Italian Legation in Washington, Reports to His Government-It Will Demand Vigorous Action by Italy.

Washington, Aug. 9.—The state department has received from the Italian partment has received from the tanks, authorities a copy of the complete report made by the Marquis Romano, secretary of the Italian embassy here, on his personal investigation of the ecent lynching of five Italians at Talulah, La. The reports presents the affair in a serious light. As a whole, the Italian authorities view the matter of the lynching as one of unusual atrocity, and without the mitigating circumstances which had been urged in previous affairs of this kind. In describing the first affray, which led up to the lynching, Marquis Rom-ano's report states that Dr. Hodges was the first to draw his weapon, and that not until he had fired one shot and was about to fire the second one at Charles Difata, who was at that stances leading up to the affray are described in detail. According to this made in the report to obscure the fact that Charles Difata made the first offensive overture. But it is contended use of firearms, or even a movement to draw them. It is said, however, that Charles Difata upbraided Dr. Hodges in an offensive way for having killed an animal and acompanied this by a blow of the fist. Then, it is stated, Dr. Hodges shot at Difata. Whether or not the shot took effect it was not possible for the Italian authorities to learn, as the bodies of the men, after being lynched, were disfigured and disposed of. But at all events it is stated that Charles Difata was on the ground following the shot from Dr. Hodges weapon.

Then followed the lynching of these two Italians, Joe Difata and Charles Difata. The mob took them before they had been arrested.

Up to this point, according to the Italian report, only these two Italians had figured in the affair. The report goes on to state that throughout the occurrence the three other Italians-Frank Difata, Joseph Feducio and John Cerami-were in another street and did not know what was occuring It is stated that they did not take part in the attack on Dr. Hodges, and that they did not even know of it until some time after, when the local of-ficers came to arrest them. This arrest was accomplished and the three Itaiians were actually placed in jail. The report then brings out that the mob having already lynched Charles and Joe Difata, turned their attention to the three Italians under arrest.

Two of these men, Joseph Feducio and Frank Difata, were first taken from the officers and lynched. Subse-quently, and some little time afterward, the mob returned and took John Cerami and lynched him. In this circumstantial way the report brings out that the mob made three distinct movements against the Italians, and that there was sufficient time for the blood to cool and for the anger of the lynchers to abate after they had disposed of the first two men. Particular Importance is laid upon this feature.

The full report has been forwarded to the Italian foreign office and a copy of it placed in the hands of the state

Brazilian Balm Toxicola Tablets

"I am glad of the opportunity to publicly commend Brazilian Balm and Toxicola Tablets. They are certainly very excellent remedies as I can testify from long experience. They have kept me in splendid health, so I have never had to call a physician since I used them. Brazilian Balm is the one thing that cures Grippe, so it leaves no evil effects a scrutinizing public. He felt as if behind; and for colds, coughs, catarrh and lung troubles, I never knew its equal. And Toxicola is the most wonderful thing to put vigor and life into the system I ever saw. It corrects billiousness, tones up the nerves, clears the complexion and purifies the blood. It is good any time but for a Spring and Fall medicine it is worth its weight in gold. I know Miss L. L. Clark,

"The Woman Who Coughed," and can say these remedies did all that is claimed for her and more too. I know of a great many cures in this locality. They ought to be in every home in America. ### THE DREYFUS DOSSIER

Being Considered in Secret by the Army Court Martial.

HIS COUNSEL WELL SATISFIED.

General Mercler, It Is Sald, Will Make Sensational Disclosures Regarding the Secret Councils of the Dupuy Govs orament, of Which He Wasa Member

Rennes, Aug. 9.-Mattre Demange, the principal counsel for Captain Drey-fus, expresses himself as well satisfied with yesterday's proceedings. Col-onel Jouast had played the part of a severe judge, but, if his voice was rude and his manner commanding toward the prisoner, his eye was kind, and there were no attempts to press home the points raised by the indictment. M. Chamoin, the custodian of the famous secret dossier, said it would take four days to examine it, as the examination would be behind closed doors, and most of the witnesses have gone to the seaside, General De Bols deffre to Dinard, and General Dionne to Param. General Mercler remains here, the guest of General Saint-Ger-main, who tells his friends to be prepared for sensational evidence must crush Dreyfus and many others

M. Cavaignae talked at Le Mans on his way here. He said he expected two coups de theatre. We now hear that one will be an avowal by General Billot that he said on his soul and con-science Dryfus was a traitor because he was misled. The other will be Mer-cier driven to bay. The latter will issue from this trial ruined if Dreyfus is acquitted. It is said he intends to throw a searchlight on the secret councils of the Dupuy government, of which he was a member in 194, and 3 show what diplomatic wires were alled between the arrest of Dreyfus ad his embarkation for Cayenne, Merler refuses to be interviewed. He General Billot, on the other hand, eems to have taken out a new lease He also is extremely reticent, as indeed are all the witnesses of note

M. Jaures arrived Monday night. He claims to know much that is in the secret dossier. An intercepted correspondence between two military attaches, who were mixed up in the affair, is said by Jaures to be a shame to human nature. These two officers wrote under feminine names, and in a strain that might have shocked the young courtiers of Nero or the ribald crowd that gathered around Lot's house in the doomed city. Possibly, nay probably, the attaches in queation never wrote these scented An-acreontic billets, for such they are. Lemercier Picard was equal to the task of forging them, and he possibly did forge them for a pecuniary con-sideration. Hence, perhaps, the mys-tery in which his suicide is shrouded.

The counsel for Drevfus met yesterday, at his wife's residence, the heads of the Dreyfusite party, and consulted on the present aspect of the affair. They went there after they had examined the documents of the secret dossier in the judge's room. They do not see any possibility of repeating the judgment of 1894.

Dreyfus was greatly fatigued after Monday's ordeal. He asked anxiously yesterday what the press and public thought, and was led to think that opinion is generally favorable. This is true. The representatives of na-tionalist journals here who judge harshly in print express admiration for the unflinching constancy he has dis-

Leading personages here for the trial have much to say about the late General Anneakoff and Baron Fredericks in connection with Dreyfus, but General Mercier and M. Hanotaux, former minister of foreign affairs, refuse to speak on the subject. M. Hanotaux looks dejected. It will be curious to see whether he and Mercier contradict

There seems danger that all the evidence relating to foreign diplomatists will be given with closed doors. The public trial will be resumed on Sat-

Dreyfus, a member of his family says, has not yet got over his Rip Van Winkle feeling. He was lost, as he put it. He remarked to his wife that he was astonished to find himself watched by the whole world or its proxies, though he showed no sign of astonishment. He was thrown in a heap by the searching and, as he though, unfriendly examination by the president of the court martial. He had expected mere formal proceedings.

MM. Demange and Labori did not prepare him for a hostile tribunal and
