Hurricane Victims in Ponce Number Three Hundred.

A GALE STRIKES AUSTRALIA.

Five Vessels Foundered at Sea and Over atHundred Lives Lost-Thirtythree Went Down With the Wreeked Carlisle Castle.

Ponce, Porto Rico, Aug. 12.-The worst storm ever experienced here struck this place on Muesday morning at 9 o'clock and lasted two hours. It came from the northeast. Ponce was flooded at midnight and at least 200 persons were drowned. Two hundred bodies, mostly those of poor people, and including many children, have been recovered. All the buildings are damaged and hundreds have been destroyed. Fifteen vessels in the harbor were driven ashore.

All the crops are totally ruined, the wires are all down, and little news la obtainable from the interior.

Abonita, including the barracks, has been destroyed, but no lives were lost Juan Diaz has been devastated.

Forty-six lives were lost there, Arroyo, Gusyama, Salinas and San Isabel are reported to have been to-tally demolished, The railroad between Ponce and Yauco has been destroyed and the mili-tary road is impassable. The river is flowing over the road for two miles. At Guayamo the houses are still standing. Seven persons were killed there. A number of houses were pillaged; squads of soldiers were unable to maintain order, and starvation threatens the population.

AN AUSTRALIAN HURRICANE. Pive Ships Foundered and Over a

Hundred Lives Lost, Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 12.—Terrible havoc occurred during a recent hurricane off the Australian coast, accord-ing to advices received here by the Miowera yesterday. Five ships foundered at sea or were wrecked and over 100 lives were lost.

The City of York, an iron ship of 1,170 tons, went ashore at Rottnest isl and and is a total wreck. Eleven lives were lost. The wreck of the Carlisle Castle was the most frightful that occurred on the coast for two years. Thirty-three persons among the pas-sengers are missing, and while many were drowned many more were eaten by sharks. The Augsburg was carrya cargo of horses along the coast. The stalls were torn down by the great masses of water that come in over the deck and a large number of the animals were drowned. Two other unknown ships were wrecked during the storm and a large number of passen gers were lost.

Santiago's Heaviest Storm Santiago de Cuba, Aug. 12.-The heav lest storm known here in 15 years struck this city Thursday. Rain and lightning were incessant for almost 24 hours. Several houses on streets in the lower portion of the city were un-dermined and a good deal of damage, though nothing very serious, was done elsewhere. In the American camp nearly half the tents were blown down.

DREYFUSITES HAPPY.

Satisfied That Even Prejudiced Judges Cannot Convict.

SECRETS OF THE SECRET DOSSIER.

In Unclean Imaginings the Military Document Is said to Exceed the Worst Top Shelf Literature-Pub-Helry Would Rule General Boisdeffre

Rennes, Aug. 12.-All the notable Dreyfusites here are satisfied with the result of the examination of the secret dossier. They have urged their newspaper friends in Paris to clamor for full publicity, knowing that if it begranted the military and nationalist parties would be utterly disgraced. They are convinced that the diplomatic and war office dossiers teem with for-geries. Of course their impressions are derived from the five counsel present at the examination of these precious papera.

Publicity would mean the pillory for General de Boisdeffre and company. They would be pelted with their own foul eggs, while Captain Dreyfus would be cleared in the face of the whole

The military caste here is furious at the urn things are taking. The correspondent of a Russian paper declares that in a cafe frequented by officers he unfolded the Droyfusite Aurore to read. All the military men near by cowled at him in a marked manner, and after coughing and otherwise showing their disapproval, went in a body to the other end of the cafe, as if the Russian were a leper.

All the officers at the military club came out on the club balcony when a bundle of Dreyfusite journa); was being burned in the streets, and they approved the performance by unmis-takable gestures. One now sees the wisdom of the order forbidding officers not attached to the garrison to stay here during the trial. It is said that, in unclean imagining the secret military dossier exceeds the worst top shelf literature. To secure secrecy the scribes who worked for Henry and his friends did not hesitate to forge letters from high diplomatic personages. Nearly a score of love letters from a lady high in the diplomatic sphere were supposed to have been seized in the dispatch box of an embassy during transmission to Ber-lin. The person whom she is represented as having had as a correspondent was an attache of an embassy there and much younger than the lady who is made to appear impassioned, quite an Eloise. Of course, she mentions the Dreyfus affair and asks the attache to help whitewash the unfortunate captain.

M. Jaures expects that there will be a great exposure of a conspiracy against the republic and that the high handed measures of the present gov-ernment against certain generals will be more than justified by the coming revelations.

The examination of the diplomatic dossier was concluded yesterday. Dreyfus, on leaving the Lycee, looked brighter than he had ever previously appeared. Today's proceedings will be memorable in the history of the af-

M. Demange, counsel for Drevfus has lost no opportunity to concillate the seven judges. He has let himself be interviewed in order to say nice things about them. That astute advocate understands human nature. He remembers that the seven are ignorant of law, always ready to sacrifice equity to authority, quick to scout at the rules of evidence, and are members of a caste who think they have been at-tacked by Jews, cosmopolitans and foreigners. Some of them boast of not having read the report of the inquiry before the court of cassation, because they thought it published at the cost of a syndicate and intended to cast odium on the army.

Both MM. Demange and Labori still that the fudges are strongly prejudiced against the prisoner, and will try to condemn him on his looks if all legal evidence breaks

All the officers now read the Petit Journal, which they had never looked at before the Dreyfus affair. The venom and vitriol of The Intransigeant are grateful to them, because employed against their enemies, real or sup-posed. They devour The Gaulois Echo de Paris and Elcair because these

M. Demange, therefore, has but a

It has been learned that the secret the spies of a German prince, who has filled high situations under the emof them in Paris, a city he often visits, There is only one prince answering to this description, Chancellor von

The police spies who formed the intelligence department at the war office of the prince's secret doings did not attempt to establish a connection between them and the Dreyfus case. But one must suppose that the sole object has been to prevent the dossier ever being published. It would be necessary to go to Suetonius for paral-lels of the horrors with which this famous or infamous collection of documents reeks.

As matters now stand M. Demange now evidently feels that the two dossiers furnish him with a case strong for even the officers to resist. Anyway, he looks really hopeful.

How aptly that sacred type of womanhood the deentle Virgi as if the gentler sex had been particularly chosen to endure the most poignant miseries of human kind. Countless suffering women throughout this land will feel an eager sympathetic heart-throb in reading the frank and earnest letter of Mrs. Josie E. Clark, of Enterprise, Mo., addressed to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. V.

"Your kindness to me I can never forget," she ays. "I cannot express half my feelings of raisfaluess to you. I had despaired of ever etting well, I had been in had health for ever extring well, I had been in had health for ever extra Had sches all through me, memb hands, old feet everything I ate distressed me; my owels were constipated. I was very nervous, expressed and despondent. When I first wrote out I thought I could never be cured. I have aken six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Jacovery, and my health is now good. You save my houest recommendation to all sufferers. I think there is no medicine in the world as good as Dr. Pierce's."

This matchless "Discovery" contains no alcohol like many of the "sarsaparillas" and tonics which are so freely sold. It induces no morbid craving for false stimulants; but gives true and lasting strength. Every woman should possess a copy of Dr. Pierce's great thousand page, illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser. A free paper bound copy will be sent for 21 one-cent stamps to pay the cost of mailing only; or a heavier cloth-bound copy for 31 stamps. If suffering from any lingering obstinate disease write to Dr. Pierce and get his advice. It will cost you absolutely nothing. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. V.
