CONCEITS OF SOME MEN.

The Actor Speaks His Little Piece on That Subject.

"The newspapers are very fond of harping on the yanity of actors," suid a popular comedian, who happened to be in the city the other day, "but it is nothing, I honosily believe, to the supreme self satisfaction of the average writer. A lit-erary man can always understand literary vanity and sympathize with it, but ho is apt to regard any other brand as preposterous and absurd. Why, I was talking to a dramatic critic the other day, and he showed me a letter from a pretty well known me a letter from a profession. 'Here's a fellow with a frightful came of big head,' he exclaimed ironically, 'and yet, by Jove! he can't write three lines of decent English to any his soul?'

Angeles not being known the situation was reported to General MacArthur. "Now, I claim that that is a fair example of the journalistic point of view. The average professional writer is prone who did not desire to send reinforce-ments, and directed the reconnoitering party to return unless the insurgents abandoned the town. Soon after the to gauge folk in other lines by their literary facility and is really amused that a chap can find anything to be vain about receipt of these orders it became evilent that the insurgents had set fire to the town and fied, leaving the place to be occupied by the Americana er, who struts around like a peacock, but never dreams of sneering at his critic The American troops occupy Calulet, Santa Rita, Bacoler and Guagua. because the critic can't act. Washington, Aug. 12.-A report has been received at the war department from Major John S. Mallory, Inspector general of the Second division, Eighth army corps, in the Philippines, cov-ering the work he has been doing be-tween Feb. 28 and June 30. He has made a number of investigations of charges against officers which have appeared in the United States in one form or another. Most of these charges have been proved to be with little foundation. In April he inspected the camps at Malolos, and commenting upon the conditions he says:

"The camps were found to be in good sanitary condition. The clothing was, as a rule, sufficient for the actual requirements of the campaign, and was fairly serviceable. The rations were regulation in amount and excellent in
