DREYFUS VS. ROYALISTS

Two Hostile Forces in France in Array of Battle.

FREEDOM OF DEEYFUS THE CAUSE

The Nationalists Have Social and Other Prestige, Members and Organization-Dreyfusites Sure of the Friendly Neutrality of Government.

Rennes, Aug. 14 .- The battle has begun in earnest. Its political bearings nre shown in the arrest of Paul Deroulde, the deputy and poet, and 23 of his numerous Revalists and Bonapartist allies, who have pooled with him against the republic. As in the Boulangist conspiracy, the pool would be of little consequence but for the military caste, which has found repre-sentative men in General De Negrier and some other generals having great commands. It is a strange thing how the fight thickened around the shadowy and emaciated red haired Jew, whose uniform of an artillery captain so III fits and befits his figure and nhystognomy.

Last Monday's sitting of the court martial and the subsequent non-public sittings were the first skirmishing operations, but Saturday was a field day. In which the two hostile forces into which France is divided and has een since the revolution, set themelves in array of battle and drew the first blood. Each side stands, committed to a certain course and has burned its ships. The actual Drevfus trial is a trial of strength. It is now a "neck or nothing" combat, a desperate fight in which neither side will give in unloss utterly routed. The moral situation of the forces enraged reminds one of that of the armles of the French revolution and those they had to fight. The Drey-fusites have the brains, the forward apulse, the dash and the flexibility At the same time they are raw re cruits, gathered spontaneously from the four points of the compass. Hatred of the military caste and, it may be, the secret hope of rewards have made them homeogenous. The Nationalists have social and other prestige, numbers and organization. Their center is composed of the majority of Frenchmen and French women; their left wing is formed of 22,000 officers and their right wing consists of the church. All profess respect for legality, but only from the lips out.

One side is just as unscrupulous as the other, but the most active and less umerous side does really fight for the ause of humanity, justice and truth. The Dreyfusites have, at any rate, won belligerent rights, and they are sure of the friendly neutrality of the gov-ernment. Their adversaries can no longer make use of the rope that hung Pleard, or the razor that cut Henry's throat. The minister of war could not, if he wanted to, read a forged document in parliament. It is impossible now to stuff the dossier with fables fit for Mother Goose's tale. But organiza-tion, numbers, prestige and wealth means staying power. Doubtless the Dreyfusites are supplied with Jewish funds, without ac-cepting M. De Freycinet's estimate of 39,000,000 francs. The sums subscrib-ed by English and German Jews must be enormous, but like wealthy gentiles, rich Jews are fond of the pomps and vanities of life, the titles of aristocratic society. Many of them are frightened already at the onward pace of the Dreyfusites General Mercler's deposition was in-audible, unless to the judges and short-hand reporters. It fell flat, his voice and delivery being bad. It has qualities for which we did not give it credit during delivery. They are easy, flow-ing statement, plausibility and the art of lulling suspicion. As the deposition appears in full in the papers, it will

MURDERED ON THE BOARDWALK.

Enraged Brother-in-Law Shoots Wm. H. Carson at Belmar, N. J. Belmar, N. J., Aug. 14-A murder

occurred on Saturday evening on the pourdwalk here in the presence of fashionable promenaders. The mur-dered man is William H. Carson, the young assistant prosecutor of the pleas of Camden county, well known all over the state, and the man who sent him to his death is Arthur Sheets, who formerly belonged in Philadelphia, but who has lived here for three years

Carson and Sheets married sisters. Sheets was the son of a wealthy lum-ber merchant of Philadelphia and five years ago was worth $50,000. This he squandered. Sheets began to treat his wife cruelly and she left him. When she could stand it no longer Carson was appealed to for protection and re-Hef, and he acted as her legal advisor in the preparation of a divorce suit.

He blamed Carson for his domestic troubles, and frequently said that he had influenced his wife against him. It is claimed that Sheets made a threat that if he ever met Carson here he would shoot him on the spot. For the first time since he uttered that warning the men came face to face on the boardwalk Carson was walking with his mother-in-law. Without any warning Sheets pulled out a revolver and, with Carson standing directly in front of him, fired three times at the assistant prosecutor. One of the shots hit Carson in a vital spot and he fell uncon scious. Satisfied that he had done his work. Sheets jumped to the beach and fired two shois at his own head. One of the bullets struck him behind the right ear, Mr. Carson was sent home, and he uss do d when the doctor reached him. Shorts was sent to the hospital in Long Branch, where he died a few hours later.

WELL KNOWN SOCIETY LADY PUBLICLY COMMENDS AND Brazilian Balm Toxicola Tablets

"I am glad of the opportunity to publicly commend Brazilian Balm and Toxicola Tablets. They are certainly very excellent remedies as I can testify from long experience. They have kept me in splendid health, so I have never had to call a physician since I used them. Brazilian Balm is the one thing that cures Grippe, so it leaves no evil effects behind; and for colds, coughs, catarrh and lung troubles, I never knew its equal. And Toxicola is the most wonderful thing to put vigor and life into the system I ever saw. It corrects billiousness, tones up the nerves, clears the complexion and purifies the blood. It is good any time but for a Spring and Fall medicine it is worth its weight in gold. I know Miss L. L. Clark, "The Woman Who Coughed," and can say these remedies did all that is claimed for her and more too. I know of a great many cures in this locality. They ought to be in every home in America. They would save thousands of lives for they cure the worst cases. The best people here use them."
