COUNCIL SESSION.

(Continued from First Page.) families—25 cents a month, but when you take into consideration the additional five mills tax, the saving to the taxpayer is not so apparent.

The members of Council, and especially the taxpayers of the borough, should give these matters their serious attention. That the present rates, with the privilege of fully proven. The remedy should be derived from the people who voted the authority to erect the plant in the hands of Council.

That we need an additional supply of water is beyond dispute. Many propositions are presented and discussed, but nothing tangible has as yet resulted. The people, fortunately, are in a position to dictate terms, and will never again be "at the mercy of the grasping proclivity of a corporation."

Amount the proposition is one to lease the plant for a period of ten years, at a yearly rental of $13,000, with a bond to maintain the present rates, with the privilege of increasing the family rate to 90 cents a month. At the end of that period the total borough indebtedness would be wiped out, with the plant turned over to the borough, paid for and not extortive rates from the people as a result.

Others favor the purchasing of the old water company plant, say $50,000, in yearly payments of $10,000. The argument is used that in ten years it would be paid for, and the borough would have no competitor. The remedy derives a vote from the people, and would equal the yearly payments. Besides, it would only be necessary to run the pumps, at the highest, two months in the year, thus saving in coal, freight, hauling, engineers' and firemen's salaries and incidentals, about $9,000 each year. Then, again, it is claimed the borough could not build dams, holding the same capacity, for $90,000.

Still another proposition is to build storage tanks, the present reservoir at Grandview. Council has already fully discussed this, which resulted in an indignation meeting by the taxpayers, who objected to further extension of these lines such as was proposed at that time.

We submit these various propositions, with a true and exact condition of affairs as they exist today, as well as the best recommendations on our part. With a view to an improvement in this department, and a relief to the already burdened taxpayers, we would recommend, as well as the people, generally, to give these matters their serious consideration. Whatever action Council deems advisable as a relief, should first be submitted to a vote of the people for a final decision. Respectfully submitted, C. T. STRAUGHIN, J. P. BOHRER.

After the paper was read Mr. Tracy said the report was a good one and, had it been presented at the meeting of the water committee last Monday night, he would have signed it. Mr. Straughin replied that a private engagement prevented him from attending the meeting.

Mr. James Cook, who reported on the monument picnic and peace jubilee on Labor Day was accepted with the understanding that Council participate in a body.

The statement of the accounts of the county prison for July shows a total expenditure to be $2,110.88; cash receipts from sales, $871.23; from other sources, $98.76; total receipts, $969.99. Average daily cost of maintenance of prisoners, including Warden's salary, 64.5 cents. Goods manufactured—Rag carpet, 120 yards; serge carpet, 200 yards; ticking, 123 yards; half hose, 820 dozen.

Verdict Against the Borough. The inquest appointed to decide the case between the borough of Gilberton, and the Schuykill Traction company, made their award yesterday, deciding that there was "no cause for action." The alleged cause of action was the neglect of the Traction company to keep in proper condition a piece of road occupied by its tracks, and at which place Patrick Ryan received injuries, for which the borough had to pay him $1,112 damages. It is likely that the decision of the arbitrators will be appealed from.

Later on the witness said he wondered if it was not to avoid the risk of punishment that Du Paty de Clam advanced the date of the reception of the bordereau at the intelligence department, so as to make it prior to the date of his (Du Paty de Clam's) arrival in the third department.

The Figaro publishes a telegram from Enns, as follows: "The letter of Nov. 30, 1897, attributed to me, and reproduced in The Figaro of Aug. 16, 1899, is a forgery, Schneider."

The publication of this telegram caused a great sensation here, and the general impression is that Schneider's disavowal has dealt a severe blow to the prosecution, killing the only point in General Mercier's evidence that was dangerous to Dreyfus.

All sorts of dark rumors are afloat here. Nearly the whole town is awake after midnight. Everyone is unwilling to go to bed. Since the attempted assassination of Maitre Labori on Monday passion has run so high, excitement is so intense that only a word is needed to start a fight. A street fracas might end in riot, and riot in massacre. The anniversary of the anniversary of St. Bartholomew's day is possibly the reason that a threatened massacre of Jews is vaguely but persistently whispered. St. Bartholomew's day is Aug. 24.

M. Labori was able to leave his bed for three hours today, and even to walk three times across his room. Tonight the doctors think he will be able to be present at next Monday's session. Mme. Labori has received a number of menacing letters. One that came today said the writer was sorry the would-be assassin had not killed her only Labori, but his wife and children.

"Tide Turned in Dreyfus' Favor." London, Aug. 18.—The correspondence of the London morning newspapers are unanimous in the opinion that the tide has finally turned in favor of Dreyfus. Mme. Henry's dramatic characterization of M. Bertulus as "Judas," failed of the intended effect, because Colonel Jouanet, president of the court martial, was handed an anonymous letter proving the whole scene prearranged. The correspondent of The Daily Chronicle predicts that Dreyfus will be recommended and that the sentence will be immediately commuted, through fear of excitement and uprisings incidental upon an acquittal.
