Sim Slichter at Weeks',

Those who have not heard Sim Slichter are issing a rare treat. He is certainly the best musician we have ever had the pleasure of listening to. Mr. Weeks has been highly complimented by his many friends and patrons in securing this brilllant young artist. Sim Slichter holds the championship and Ties, Stock Collars gold medal of the world for guitar and har-monica duett. Daniel Wickley, of Girantville, is em-ployed as a miner at Wm. Penn colliery. Yesterday afternoon he was engaged in work-ing in a breast while a Pollsh miner was engaged in similar labor in the adjoining breast The timbering between both breasts was very thin. It was agreed among the miners should either of them fire a shot, the other should be notified so as to seek a place of safety. Shortly before quitting time the Polish miner fired a shot and falled to notify Wickley. The shot was discharged and flying pieces of coal and timber struck Wickley. He was bruised and cut about the entire body and had to be carried out of the reast. His injuries are not serious.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

Yesterday Afternoon

A farmer, and his companion, hailing from Ringtown, and whose names could not be learned, had a very narrow escape from being ground to pieces at Brownsville yesterday afternoon. The accident happened at the crossing of the Lehigh Valley railroad at drawn by two mules, when freight engine No. 366, came thundering along at a rapid rate of speed. The engine caught the back of the empty wagen and hurled it to one side with terrific force, at the same time throwing out both occupants. Neither of the men were hart but the rear end of the wagen as completely smashed

The engineer stopped the train at a short distance and the crew returned to the scene of the wreck. They were surprised to find no one injured and so little damage done.
