CUBAN SOLDIERS KILLED

Disappointed at Not Getting Their Pay They Attack Gendarmes.

FIVE DEAD, ELEVEN WOUNDED.

Carbines and Machetes Were Freely Used, and For a Few Minutes There Was a Lively Fight-All the Dead Are Colored Cubans, Santiago de Cuba, Aug. 24.—Five men are dead and 11 wounded as a result of a fight Tuesday night be-tween gendarmes and disappointed Cuban soldiers at Cuevitas, three miles from Santiago, where the payment of the Cuban troops is progressing. Five thousand Cubans had gathered there to receive pay, and after three days only 580 had been paid. Thousands who had been disappointed at other points had come to Cuevitas, as the last place of payment in the province.

The imperfect list caused great dis satisfaction, and a rumor circulated that the paymasters would leave yesterday alarmed the men who had not been paid. They began to collect in groups and to show their annoyance. Finally their threats become serious,

Captain Baliat, with 20 gendarmes was present to preserve order among the applicants and the United States troops protected Colonel Moale, the officer having charge of the paymenta Suddenly Captain Baliat, who was mounted, was surrounded by a mob, struck by stones and bottles and shot in the arm. His men promptly fired a volley into the mob, three persons being instantly killed and thirteen wounded, two of whom died in the Colonel Monle's guard promptly surrounded the money office, but took no part in the fighting. For a few min-utes there was a lively conflict, carbines and machetes being used freely Captain Biliat was the only gendarme wounded. All the dead were colored Cuban soldlers.

Payments were resumed yesterday morning under a heavy guard. There are rumors that a force is being or ganized to attack the pay office, but these are probably unfounded. Gen-eral Castillo, civil governor of San-tiago de Cuba, was at Cuevitas at the time, and soon restored order.

There is no doubt that the inaccurate list will cause a great deal of hard-ship. Many veterans have vainly followed the United States commissioners for six weeks, only to find that their

FIERCE DENIALS BY PRISONER.

Much of the Testimony Would Indieare That the Prisoner Was Charged With Other Offense Than Treason. Moreler May Go to Prison.

Rennes, Aug. 24.-The session of the court martial yesterday was comparanot productive of any really thrilling Judges, and which the latter accept as evidence, was proceeded with Much of the ridiculous testimony of the morning was devoted to an attempt to blast Dreyfus' private character, though, was less flerce, however, than the pre-vious day, though quite aggressive enough to arouse the latent hostility of the judges, which showed itself in various little ways. M. Labori is no favorite either with Major Carriere. the government's commissary, and the latter makes no serious effort to concent his feelings towards the lawyer. The only dangerous opponent of Dreyfus was General Gonse, who mounted the stage with a quick step and apparently light heart But, he left it badly mauled by M. Labort Gencal Gonse began by declaring he came of defend his honor against those driveling" against him. But when his cross-examination was finished be returned to his seat with his tail between his legs, for M. Labori had driven him into a corner on the attempts of the general staff to shield Esterhazy and had shown that the general staff for which Gonze was re-small voice, and his defiant bearing had changed into the abashed air of a schoolboy caught telling a lie. Two good samples of the men put up to sully Dreyfus' private character were the third and fourth witnesses. First Major Du Chatelet repeated an alleged conversation of Dreyfus regard-ing a lady at whose house Dreyfus is alleged to have gambled and lost money. But when cross-examined Du Chatelet's memory failed him entirely, especially when asked the name of the lady, the street she resided in and the sum Dreyfus lost.

Next M. Dubreuil showed equally as-tounding forgetfulness on essential points of his evidence concerning Drey-fus' acquaintanceship with a foreign at-tache, and when M. Demange capped his successful examination of those points by promising to show M. Du-breuil's record in the law courts is far from clear the witness left the stand badly discredited.

M. Dubricul said he was greatly as-tonished at the "suspicious familiar-ity" between the attache and Dreyfus, and that, perceiving they disapproved of his presence, M. Dubricul ceased his visits to M. Bodson. When the latter to how to get rid of her, witness asked M. Bodson If he had proofs, and Bod-son replied: "Proofs? Yes, I have even the French army." Dreyfus protested excitedly against wards, and Dreyfus thundered out: "I in 1886 or 1887, since when I have never seen her. I wish simply to assert that the witness is lying. I never dined at M. Bodson's with any civil or military attache. The matter must be cleared up. People must produce definite facts here, and not mere tittle-tattle. The name of the person with whom I am alleged to have dined must be ascer-tained. It must be known here who is lying and who is speaking the truth 'General De Dionne, governor of the military college, testified to Dreyfus' character at college. The prisoner, he said, displayed great intelligence, but had a deplorable temper. He recalled a remark of Dreyfus that the people of Alsace-Lorraine would be much happier under German rule than under the rule of France. The prisoner, referring to the recriminations mentioned by General De Dionne, explained that during his first year at the military college be attained very high marks; that the second year he almost held his place, when, he added, he heard that a member of the examining board had declared at a a forgery, even if—which I am unable to judge without seeing It—the text manated from me at a different date." The firm attitude of Colonel Schnelder, who is undoubtedly backed by Austria, is a source of great joy to the Dreyfusites. They see in his action the utter downfail of Mercier, who, they declare, will be put in a military prison within a week.

examining board had declared at a board meeting that, without knowing the pupils, he put mark five opposite the name of Dreyfus simply because they did not want a Jew on the head-quarters staff. Regarding his alleged remarks about Alsace-Lorraine, Dreyfus declared that the statement was the very opposite of his real sentiments.

Immediately after Colonel Schneider, attache of the Austrian embassy, returned to Paris he wrote another lefter to Figaro confirming his repudiation of the forgery used by Mercier at Rennes, and continued:

"On Nov. 30, 1897, my opinion was absolutely contrary to that expressed in the document in question. The addition of that date and my signature to that date and my signature to the text attributed to me constitutes a forgery, even if—which I am unable to judge without seeing R—the text own and property of the contrary to that expressed in the document may be a diffused that are made as a forgery, even if—which I am unable to judge without seeing R—the text own and a diffused fate."
