Georgia Troops Secure Prisoner. Savannah, Ga., Aug. 24.—Acting under orders from Governor Candler, Captain Gleason, of the First Georgia Infantry, took 200 men to Darien, Ga., 12 miles west of Darien, Ga., yesterday afternoon to suppress an insipient riot and bring here Henry Delgall, a negro charged with an assault upon a young white girl named Matilda Ann Hope. The alleged offense was committed in McIntosh county, about 12 miles west of Darien, Ga. The troops arrived at Darien, secured the prisoner and lodged him in Chatham county jail. The crime for which the negro was arrested is said to have been committed nine months ago, the victim having told the story upon the birth of her mulatto child. She said she did not tell before because Delgall threatened to kill her father and herself if she did so.
