An Outbreak of the Negroes Expected.

DEPUTY KILLED MAKING ARREST

It Is Estimated That the Negroes Outnumber the White People Five to One in That Portion of Georgia and, Are Apprehensive.

Darien, Aug. 26,-Yesterday was one of great anxiety and intense excitement among the white people. An outbreak by the negroes has been momentarily expected since the killing of Joseph Townsend, a prominent citizen and deputy sheriff of this county, by John Delegal, colored, Thursday Sheriff Blount sent the following to Governor Candler: "Please order Liberty Independent troop to re-THE HOT STRINGS OF ARKANSAS-VIA. port to me, mounted, at once. Situation critical. One deputy killed, another wounded. Colonel Lawton, late commander of the Second Georgia regiment, U. S. V., also wired the governor to send a quantity of carbines and ammunition for the soldiers. Colonel Lawton has and skin diseases, and throme and func-tional derangements. The mountain climate of Ret Springs is cool and delightful in there. He has enough men, it is believed, to easily handle the situation. The 75 members of the First Georgia, who were left here two days ago, when old man Delegal was taken to Savannah, are patrolling the town. All saloons closed and the strictest order is maintained.

Nearly every negro has left town and last night word came that they are massed in Delegal's swamp, 12 miles from town. They are known to be armed, and a posse of citizens left on a special train for the place. They will maintain guard over the negroes and keep them from doing any damage during the night. A telegram was sent to Brunswick urging all white citizens to come to Darien. A boat was dis-patched to carry them to this city and a special train will be ready in case more want to come. The presence of the whites is wanted to overawe the negroes, who are well aware of their superiority in numbers.

The sheriff and his deputies continue to make arrests of the rioting negroes and the jail had a large number in ft, notwithstanding the fact that the town boat Iris left yesterday for Savannah with 75 rioters. This was a precautionary measure to prevent an attack on the jail by the negro friends of those imprisoned and to make room for those arrested since the removal.

It is estimated that the negroes outnumber the white people in this part of Georgia five to one, and the latter are consequently apprehensive. Two deputies went Wednesday night to the house of Henry Delegal to arrest his two sons. John was found at the house and Townsend entered. The negro showed willingness to accompany the officers. However, the officers House who was the conpany the officers. Hopkins, who was in the moonlight outside, was joined by Townsend, and the two waited for the negro to come out. He came to the door and a negro woman, handing him a gun, he fired on the officers. Townsend died in a few minutes and was brought to this place by Hopkins, who is badly wounded. The white people thought this would be a signal for atand many slept on their arms all night.

The governor was in conference with Acting Adjutant General Baird during the day. A large number of carbines have been sent to Darien and a supply of ammunition is en route by special messenger, as the express company refused to carry it, owing to its

WRITING TESTIMONY.

An Expert The Attempted to Prove Dreyfus' Guilt.

REGARDED AS PRINCE OF OUACKS.

M. Bertillon's Efforts to Convince the Court That Dreyfus Wrote the Borderent Looked Upon, Except by the Judges, as a Farce.

Rennes, Aug. 26 .- After M. Bertillon, the handwriting expert who is at the head of the authropometric department of the prefecture of police of Paris, had concluded the first instalment of his so-called demonstration of the guilt of Captain Dreyfus, a prominent Dreyfusard referred to him as "the fin de slecte Carltostro."

The Drevfusards refuse to regard him as anything but the prince of quacks. They cover his remarks with ridicule and protest that the admission of his fantastic theories as evidence before the court martial is a disgrace to France. "C'est une honte" was the remarks heard on all sides when the session closed and the audience, mainly made up of Dreyfusards, was being pressed outside by the gendarmes, who clear the court room as soon as the Nevertheless, even the Dreyfusards do not decrive themselves as to the effeet M. Bertillon's testimony, or "demonstration," may have upon the judges, who, they fear, will be gulled by what the Dreyfusards consider spurious. All the judges have passed through the Ecole Polytechnique, the highest school of science in France, and they ve thus particularly interested in such evidence" as M. Bertillon's, Moreover, with the aid of the innumerable discrams and specimens of writing which he submits to them, they may be able to follow his reasoning intelligibly, which is more than any member of the audience could do yesterday. If the judges accept Bertillon's premises -that Dreyfus, as an expert spy, did not write ordinary handwriting, but in close immitation, even contriving to give the letters the appearance of having been traced in order to be able to repudiate them as a forgery if detect-ed—then the structure built upon this groundwork may be scientifically cor-Even Dreyfus, when shown Bertillin's demonstrations, admitted the ingenuity and plausibility of the system, though he naturally declared that it was built upon a false basis.

A remarkable feature of M. Bertillon's deposition was the heat and exeitement he put into what was ex-pected to he a calm, dispassionate ex-position of his theories. He thundered, shouted and waved his arms as though engaged in some terrible dispute. Once he literally shricked, and numbers of the usual audience who had been unable to follow him and were taking the air in the court yard ruched back into the ball, breathlessly inquiring what had happened and imagining that he was fulminating some dreadful denunciation of the accused.

Their excitement was turned into hilarity when they found that he was nerely impressing upon the judges the significance of the exact space, meas-

The Echo De Paris announced that the counsel of Dreyfus had obtained possession of certain documents menwriting, which they would produce in court next week as a coup de theater. A correspondent inquired as to this in competent Dreyfusard quarters. He was assured that the statement was defense in the event of Captain Drey-fus being recondemned to ask the Ger-man government to communicate these documents proving his innocence, and that they had reason to believe such Mysterious Message in a Bag. Paris, Aug. 26,-A dispatch from Lyons says a bag has been found in the River Rhone there containing a paper with this penciled inscription: "Labori to Lorimer, Basic. Nothing will be done. Dreyfus is innocent. Voluntary suicide. Orders executed." The bag was handed over to the police, but no explanation in the matter has been forthcoming. date of Aug. II: When the commissioners left here it was foured by many natives and foreigners alike that serious trouble might ensue, but such has not happened. Both factions are quiet and say they will keep so. The Mainafa party sent a large delegation into Apin since the Badger's departure. The delegation met the three consuls sitting as a provisional government and assured them again of the desire of Matsufa and his followers to keep the peace, The provincial government is being carried on without any hitch so far by the three consuls. Of this body Luther Osborne, the American consul general is chairman. He is also the acting chief justice of Samoa and continues to act as the United States consular representative. Dr. Solf, as president claimed the office of chief justice and has referred the whole matter to the German government. He was, however resignation which he had written to the commissioners, and accept the holding of the office by Mr. Osborne. Mr. Osborne declined to accept the judgeship unless Dr. Solf was willing for him to act, and the doctor having given way removed all difficulties. Compensation claims of Britishers are being inquired into by Major Mair under instructions from Mr. Ellot. They will amount to about $80,000. It is claimed here that the three powers eve bound legally and morally to see that or upensation is paid for losses during the late disturbances to the foreign residents in these islands.

Princess Faamuu, a young and hand-some princess and the only daughter or the late King Malleton and only sister to the ex-King Tanu, and who has been educated as an English woman in Fiji, is forwarding a petition asking the three powers to grant her an allowance on the ground that she has been educated to take part as a princess, and now that her father and prother are not in kingly position she is not in possession of sufficient means to live as educated, and is a burden to her Fijian friends.
