PHIPIDO Prisoners Treated Humanele Chicago, Aug. 26. Sergeant Albert, of the Seventeenth United States in-fantry, in a letter to his mother, dated at San Fernando, reports that severe fighting has taken place in and around that city. He speaks of the humane treatment afforded the enemy when captured and says that the officers show the people in every way that they are not to take their property, but to give them the friendly protection of the American republic. He said that Aguinaldo had the audacity to send an 8 agent into the city to collect rents and taxes, but that he was promptly ordered outside the lines.
