This he did by dividing his personal property among hose he desired to provide for, and in such proportion as he deemed best, leaving only the small sum of $10,000 to be disposed of by legal forms. If he really did this it is only another evidence of his practical common sense. He probably knew that he was liable to die suddenly, and had 'set his house in order."

Not that we are not likely to have summer weather in September, but as the almanac makers had to have a dividing line somewhere and the end of August was about as good as any other, they chose that day. The days when the small boy has been a torment to his mother are over, and he will now be a source of joy and pride to his school mistress instead. Consumption Cured. BROUGHT BACK FROM THE GRAVE.

Last November Mr. Joseph James, painter, of 325 W. Pearl St., Indianapo-lis, Ind., was at death's door with quick consumption. Wasted to a skeleton; his lungs a mass of ulceration; his death was hourly awaited by his doctor and family. He was kept in a constant stupor with opium. A friend, thinking to relieve his terrible cough, gave him a bottle of Brazilian Balm. Seeing its wonderful effect, the doctor advised its continued use. Mr. James soon after dismissed his doctor, and depended on the Balm alone. His recovery was rapid and complete, and in February he returned to work. His lungs are sound, and his weight greater than at any time in his life. His recovery is regarded as

In consumption beware of cough mixtures and prescriptions that contain opium. Opium paralizes the nerves, and gives the comma bacillus a good chance to destroy the lungs. It is always fatal. Brazilian Balm does not contain a trace of any opiate, but stimutates the nerves with new life and power, destroys the microbe, and restores all that is left of the diseased lungs to a sound and healthy state which no other remedy has ever been known to accomplish.

SOLDIER SENTENCED TO DEATH.

Assaulted His Captain While Under the Influence of Liquor. Victoria, B. C., Aug. 31 .- A copy of the Manila Times, received by the Canadian Pacific steamer Empress of China, contains the following:

"A well authenticated story has been eported to us from the Wyoming infantry battalion to the effect Private McVeigh, of Company G, of the mmand, has been court martialed try drawing out after a contest in which there was a dispute between the company commander, Captain Wrightcompany commander, Captain Wright er, and is now under sentence of death, but that the sentence will not be car ried into effect until President McKinley has approved it.

"McVeigh is a drinking man, brute when drunk, but quite genial when sober. He claimed that Captain Wrighter was abusing him. On May 4 last, toward evening, while McVeigh was returning to the Wyoming camp after a day's carousal, he met Captain Wrighter. McVeigh accosted the officer in an insultingly familiar manner, and upon receiving a rebuff grew violently angry and finally assaulted the captain, calling him in the mean-time vulgar and disrespectful names, threatening to kill him at the first favorable opportunity. The captain drew his revolver and kept McVeigh covered until the guard came up and placed him under arrest. McVelgh has a bad reputation."
