CONSPIRACY RUMORS.

Predictions of Coups in the Famous Dreyfus Trial.

DIVISIONS AMONG THE GENERALS

High Army Officers Who Have Hitherto Pulled Together Are Chauging Their Attitude Since the Tide of Evidence Has Favored the Accused.

Rennes, Aug. 31.-The air of Rennes is filled with rumors of conspiracies and predictions of coups de theater, but nothing precise can be ascertained General Mercier's attitude during the last few days has mystified his followers in the case. He is extremely clever, and the general feeling is that he is preparing something, the exist ence of which will be revealed in a few

It is now accepted as beyond question that there is a serious division of opinion on the part of the generals While the case was running smoothly against Dreyfus they all pulled to-gether, but since the tide of evidence began to turn in his favor, as was no tably the case during the testimony of Captain Freystaetter and Colone Cordier, which proved much more damaging to the general staff than the latter anticipated, certain dividing lines have become manifest between the various cilques

General Roget, Major Lauth, Captain Cuignet and M. Gribelin, the principal eper of the archives of the war office form one coterie, General Mercier and General Gonse form another, and General Billot and General de Boisdeffre a third. According to one report the first two coteries intend to throw over General de Boisdeffre, whom they feel to be faltering, and declare that he is responsible for all terrors and illegal-ities of the court martial of 1894, thus making him the scapegoat. According to another report General Roget, who was not implicated in 1894 and who fought against Drayfus because he inperited from his predecessors responsibility for so doing and placed overconfidence in the accounts of the mat ter furnished him by the general staff, will cut himself loose from Generals Mercler, Gonse and de Boisdeffre.

This is a plausible hypothesis, since Roget has assumed throughout the role of defender of the army, thus making himself popular with the army and with a large section of the nation, and he probably would not lose by separating himself from the wrongdoers of 1894 and declaring that his opinion had been changed by the evidence given during the present trial.

Yet another story is that the generals are going to give way on the authorship of the borderean, in view of the strong expert evidence, and will admit that Esterhazy wrote it, alleg-ing, however, that Dreyfus furnished the information, not direct to Esterha-zy, but to a third person, who acted as intermediary without Dreyfus knowing Esterhazy.

In this connection is is asserted that Mms. Rastian, who was housekeeper for Colonel Schwartzkoppen, the Ger-man military attache, in 1894, and who is understood to have acted as a French spy, has been seen in Rennes, and will be summoned as a witness concerning Schwartzkoppen's espionage system. All these rumors may be without foundation, but in any event they are symptomatic of the feeling in Rennes that something is going on under the surface and that the complexion of the trial may be altered by some coup at any moment. tion of Colonel Schneider, the Austrian military attache, as a champion of arouse resentment and adversely to influence the judges, especially as it was protest against Colonel Schneider's uncomplimentary allusions to French of-

Today's proceedings, behind closed doors, will deal with the question whether Captain Dreyfus was in a position to divulge the information regarding the artillery which was promised in the bordereau. The session will be very important, and is bound the judges one way or the other.

The Followers of McLean Won at Every Point.

OHICAGO PLATFORM REAFFIRMED

For Governor Was Taken-Nominee For Lleutenant Governor Favored McLean's Principal Opponent.

Zanesville, O., Aug. 31.-The Demo eratic state convention closed last night after a day of dramatic plays. While there were half a dozen other candidates for governor, the McLean men had claimed everything with such confidence that they undertook to be magganimous in minor parts, although were at the same time careful that the star candidate was not eclipsed. They stated early in the day that the first ballot would have none of "the second choice" vote for Mc-Lean, that none of the reserves would be called out till the second ballot, and that all the candidates would have their respective votes on the first bal-lot. In this play McLean was nomi-nated on the first ballot by a half vote. and the figuring was so close that the framatic scene of changes on the second ballot, with "second choice" re serves florking to McLean's standard, did not take place.

It is claimed that McLean could have had 478 votes out of the 802 on the first ballot, instead of 4025, and that he would have had over 500 on the second ballot. At any rate the delegates all voted for their local favorites on the first ballot, and thus the program of complimenting them was carried out without the leader drawing from any of his competitors. The other names presented for the gubernatorial nomination, with their vote, were: Colonel James Kilbourne of Columbus, 227; General Isaac R. Sherwood of Toledo, 57; Charles H. Haskell of Ottawa, 55; ex-Mayor James A. Rice of Canton, 29½; James E. Se-ward of Mansfield, 25; ex-Congressman

John R. Lentz, 6. Judge W. P. Mooney made such a good impression that all wanted him for permanent chairman, and the amended report also continued as Sec-retary Hon. Charles J. Cogan, the of McLean, and shut off the anti-McLean men who had been named in the report for sergeant at arms. The convention was properly represented in its platform and the keynote speech of Judge Mooney. The name of Bryan was cheered whenever it was mentioned. The convention showed demonstrations over free silver and imperialism, anti-bossism and all the dictments in the speech of Judge dooney and in the platform.

A recess from 3 to 4 p. m. was taken to confer with Colonel James Kil-bourne for second place on the ticket, and the recess was continued in till 5 p. m. for that purpose. When the convention reassembled there were attempts to nominate Kilbourne, notwithstanding his repeated declinations, and his friends withdrew his name as fast as the McLean men presented it. Finally Judge A. W. Patrick, who had seconded the nomination of Kilbourne for governor, was chosen as the nomi-nee for lientenant governor.

The full ticket nominated is as fol-lows: Governor, John R. McLean of Hamilton; lieutenant governor, A. W. Patrick of Tuscarawas; supreme judge, rence: member of the hoard of public works, Fletcher D. Malin of Lake.

Allen, in 1873, but he also furnished the issue then in his opposition to a contracted currency. In 1885 McLean was the Democratic nominee for sen-ator against Sherman, and six years ago McLean was the generally recog-nized candidate of the Democrats for senator against Senator Hanna. has been prominent at national as well as at local and state conventions, and at the last Democratic national convention was a prominent candidate for the presidency, and declined the nomi-nation for vice president.

"My husband thought I had consumption. He wanted me to get a doctor, but I told him if it was consumption they sould not help me. We thought we would try Dr. Fierce's Golden Medical Discovery and before I had taken one bettle he cough was stopped and I have had no more of it returning. Your medicine is the best I have ever taken.
