COURT NEXT WEEK.

Labor Day Celebrations Won't Keep Judges and Lawyers Idle. Pottsville, Aug. 31.—The September term of criminal court will open next Monday.

The commission of Judge D. C. Henning, under the appointment of the Governor, will be formally read at the opening of court.

The constables throughout the county have been busy this week serving subpoenas on witnesses in the many criminal cases.

Among the more important is that instituted by the Taxpayers' Association against ex-Commissioners Reitz, Martin and Myers.

Another interesting case, to be called during the approaching term, probably on Tuesday, is that of H. C. Boyer vs. M. E. Doyle and M. J. Lawlor.

The troubles of the Cass township School Board are apparently just beginning.

Frederick Wright and his wife, of Port Carbon, have brought suit against M. Carbone for $5,000 damages.

A petition signed by a number of citizens of Gordon has been filed in court asking that the School Directors of that town be removed.
