WAR PRACTICALLY CERTAIN.

This, It is Said, is the Opinion of London, Sept. 2.-The Pretoria corspondent of The Morning Post tele-President Kruger told a prominent Boer yesterday that war was "practically certain." Every Boer is now armed with a Mauser and has a hundred rounds of ammunition, strictly for future use, with 40 rounds for practice. The correspondent adds: "I am convinced that the reports of the Boers not being prepared are only a pretense, and that they will strike blow when it is least expected."

The volksrand has deferred the discussion of the correspondence exchanged between the imperial and Transvaal governments until Monday, when a motion regarding the presence of British troops on the Transvaal bor-der will be dehated secretly. The Johannesburg correspondent of The Standard says: It is generally will sell excarsion tickets to Philacelphia and return from Sept. 2nd to 5th to parties est inclination in the volksrand to reest inclination in the volksrand to repudlate British sugerainty. A large section of the Boers is strongly opposed to a concession of the franchise on the basis of a five year residence, and the position is still very grave.

It is reported at Aldershot that the First Royal Dragoons, under Lieuten-ant Colonel Burn-Murdoch, is under erders to be in readiness in the event of hostillties in the Transvaal. The regiment, which figured at Waterloo, Balkiava and Sebastapool, has not left England since the Crimean war.
