NO MORE TRIAL RACES. The Committee Satisfied That Colum-

bla is the Cup Defender.
Newport, Sept. 5.—In yesterday's ruce, the second and last of the official trial races for the settlement of a defender of the America's cup, the Co-lumbia again demonstrated that she is the superior of the Defender, the 1895 champion, by defeating her ten minutes and seven seconds over a triangu-lar course of about 33 miles in an The contest was a procession through-out, with the Columbia leading at the start by 13 seconds and gaining on every leg of the course. Although De-fender set her splanaker a mile from the first turn also described in the first turn. the first turn she dropped two minutes and 19 seconds more in the run to the second mark. The third leg of the triangle was almost a dead heat to the finish, the two to the Marragansett shore. The Cofore she fetched the line, but the De-fender, by holding longer in shore, managed to reach the lightship with-out another tack. Still the Columbia gained, showing that with sheets close hauled she is the fastest American sailing yacht affont. On this last leg she added four minutes and 22 seconds to her lead, making a total for the entire onds. There will be no more official races, that of yesterday settling conclusively in the minds of the commit-tee which of the two boats is better fitted to meet the Shamrock.

The cup committee, however, is per mitted to defer announcing the name of the yacht selected to defend the cup until a week prior to the date of the first contest, and therefore the decision was not made public. Of course there is not the slightest doubt that the Columbia will be the craft chosen

Ferrelii Tried to Jump From an Elevated Railcoad Train Platform. New York, Sept. 5.—Michael Farrel-t, the Italian saloon keeper who shot oliceman Patrick O'Keefe on Sunday when the latter was about to arrest an attempt yesterday to escape from two detectives by trying to jump from an elevated train platform. He was held, screaming and curaing. In front of the court house a crowd of about 1,000 persons had gathered, and when the prisoner appeared there were cries of "kill him," "lynch him," from all sides. A rush was made for Farrelli, and it required the strenuous efforts of a dozen of court officers to clear a passage for the Italian to the court

Mrs. Farrelli, the wife of the prisoner, who, it is said, handed him the re-volver with which he did the shooting and told him to shoot O'Keefe, was also brought to court, Farrelli, when armigned, denied the charge against him, and said that O'Keefe had been shot by one Guisep-pi Ferrioli. He was remanded in order to allow the officers to make an investigation. Mrs. Ferrelli was also remanded for examination.
