AN APPEAL TO RULERS.

Dreyfus' Counsel Calls on Emperor William and King Humbert

TO COME TO HIS CLIENT'S AID.

M. Labori Urges That Col. Schwartz-that the Unied States deputy and vior koppen and Col. Pantzzardi, Former consul at Sonneberg has been serving taches In Paris Be Allowed to Testify day afternoon telegraphed personal ap-peals to Emperor William and King Humbert to grant permission to Colonel Schwartzkoppen and Colonel Panizzardi, German and Italian military attaches in Paris in 1894, to come to Rennes to testify in the trial of Captain Dreyfus. This is the news of the day and the chief topic of conversation in the cafes and resorts of the journalists. The appeals were conched in eloquent terms, invoking the assistance of their majesties in the name of justice and humanity. They are quite supplementary to the formal applica-tion that will be made by the gov-ernment commissary, Major Carriere. The demand of M. Labori that the ourt martial should issue process, sub-ect to the approval of the two sovereigns, came like a thunderbolt at yes-terday's session. The step is fraught with momentous consequences, as it affords Emperor William an opportunity agin to assume his favorite role of arbiter of the destinies of the world. No one will be surprised if Colonel Schwartzkoppen, in the name of the kaiser, makes a declaration that will practically decide the result of the

Both Schwartzkoppen and Paniz-zardl must consult their respective sovereigns before starting, but the counsel for Dreyfus fully expect them to arrive here, if they come at all, in time to give their testimony tomorrow, in whch case the tral would probably clude this week and the verdict be de-tivered on Friday or Saturday. Colonel Jouanst told M. Demange at the close of the session that if he received official notification that Colonels Schwartzkoppen and Panizzardi were coming to depose he would be prepared to adjourn the trial pending their ar-An adjournment of 48 hours would probably give them time to get

A remargable circumstance, and one that is significant of the relations between the two eminent advocates who that M. Labori telegraphed the German emperor and the king of Italy on his own initiative, without consulting or advising M. Demange.

The appearance of Colonel Schwartz-koppen and Colonel Panizzardi would be the most sensational as well as the most important incident of the entire they never had any relations with the accused, and they would make such a statement that the court must order an acquittal. Those who are in the confidence of the counsel entrusted with the defense express a firm con-viction that Dreyfus will now be acquitted. Nevertheless, one of the most prominent generals with whom the correspondents conversed yesterday declared himself "quite pleased with the promises of the trial thus far," and confident of a conclusion "eminently satisfactory to the prosecution." Today's session opened with closed doors to hear from Cernuschi, the Austrian political refugee, the name of the foreign attache he has already mentioned as admitting that he had re-ceived treasonable documents from Dreyfus. The remainder of his evi-dence will be given in public. The prosecution relies upon him as a last

Senator Trarieux, who testified yesterday, will probably be confronted by Generals Mercler, Gonse, De Bois-defire and Roget. Senator Trarleux, whose statement was practically an impassioned speech for the defense, proceeded to denounce the secret communication of the bordereau as a mon strous illegality and a violation of the most sacred rights of the defense. The witness described as impossible the hypothesis advanced by M. Teyssonleres to convince the witness that Dreyfus was guilty. The witness' doubts were confirmed when he heard that M. Scheurer-Kestner had secured proofs of the innocence of Drevfus and the guilt of another. M. Trarieux dwelt upon the noble ideal of M. Scheurer-Kestner, who, although un-acquainted with Dreyfus, passed sleepless nights tormented with the thought that an innocent man was shedding tears of blood. It is reported that the minister of war, General the Marquis de Gallifet, has sent orders to the generals and other military witnesses to leave Rennes and return to their respective posts within two hours after the conclusion of the depositions, and not to be present during the pleadings. They will thus be absent when the verdict is de-livered. General Mercler, being on the retired list, is not affected by this order, but Generals Roget, Gonse and Washington, Sept. 6. - The officials of the state department have been much Interested in the remarkable story of the artist, Bentheim, at Atlanta, of his connection with the German secret service. The point in his narrative that particularly attracts attention at the state department is the allegation German and Italian Military At- as a German agent to convey secret relative to war material stolen from the French government, and that the Rennes, Sept. 6.—M.
