OUR COUNTRY : First, Last and Forever.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY has not forgotten what it is to be a soldier, and the people have not forgotten that a good soldier invariably makes a good druggist. Guaranteed President.

THE Shamrock, which is to contest with the Columbia in the great Amer-Ica's cup yacht race, is believed to be the most perfect vessel of its kind ever built in Great Britain. The Columbia is known to be the speediest yacht ever constructed in the United States. Faking into consideration these facts the race should be an exeiting one.

It is said that railroads are correct barometers of business conditions. If this be true, we are enjoying better times here. The other day we pub-lished a statement that the Lehigh for 32 years in the employ of that fournal. Mr. Dailey was 59 years of Valley Railroad. during the past month, had cleared a large net surplus over all charges, and now the state-ment of the P. & R. Railway states the Stoop with which and A. Dr. Hudson, a private on the New Jersey team, did some wonderful shooting at the 500 yard range, and his repeated buil's eyes did much to close CYSTITIS DIABETES INCONTINENCY URINE PURE SANTAL AND SAW PALMETTO ETC ETC PAN-AMERICAN DRUG CO NEW YORK up the gap between the New Jersey and Georgia teams.

In the final shooting—in fact, it was the inst firing in the match—Walter Waittemore, of the New Jersey team, a member of the First troop of Newark, did the most remarkable scoring ever witnessed on the Sea Girt range. He was firing at the 600 yard range and every bullet scored a bull's eye giving him a clean score of 35. This is the first time a clean score has been made in the Hilton trophy matches. Whittemore is a new man, and never abot in the contest until this year.

Glorious News. Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargele, of Washitz, T. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Ritters in her great auffering for years, Terrible sores would break out on her bead and face, and the best distors could give no help; but her cire is complete and and her health is oxcellent." a local undertaker and Mrs. Philippine Baltzer, mother of the soldier, mourned for him as her son. Then the gov-ernment commission brought back anernment commission brought back an-other one, and they said it, too, was her boy. Distracted by grief, but by a government order restrained from opening the caskets to attempt an identification herself, Mrs. Baltzer had the second body faid in an adjoining grave and she strewed flowers and wept over both mounds, half crazed by anxiety to know which really con-tained the remains of her soldier son. To make the situation more pa-thetic and more complicated Mrs. Baltthetic and more complicated Mrs. Balt-zer recently received word that the body of another Ernst Baltzer had been brought back from Cuba and interred in the National cemetery at Arlington Heights. Mrs. Baltzer yesterday visit-
