GRAND JURY REPORTS.

Happenings in Court and Elsewhere at the County Seat. Pottsville, Sept. 8 .- When court was about to adjourn yesterday afternoon a severe sen to adjuir yesterdoù y infernioù a sevre sen-tenez was imposed by Judge Bechtel upon a Shenandoah resident, named Joseph Daro, who pleaded guilty to a charge of feloniona rape. Mrs. John Strosko, of Shenandoah, was the prosecutrix. She is a muscular look-ing woman, while Dare is below the medium and of alim build. Dars did not seem to ap eciate the soriousness of his offense, and be re imposing sentence Judge Bechtel gave im a chance to withdraw his plea of guilty. The coart explained to him that under the provisions of the act of assembly he might be sent to juil for a term of 15 years. Dure stated that he was druck at the time be committed the deed, but did not need the judge's kindly advice. He was sentenced to five years imprisonment to the county jail, BALL FOR THE FOREES.

Mrs. Heury Fisher, of Shemandonh, who, with her husband, is charged with setting fire to their house last Monday morning, was released under $300 bail this afternoon, after the court heard the statement of M. M. Burke, Eig., who said there was practically no evidence against the defendants. Mrs. Fisher's tofant child is ill and in the care of reighbors. District Attorney Bechtel said to had no objection, under the condition of facts as stated by Mr. Burke, who furnishes the ball. The husband's ball was fixed at $000 and it will be furnished to morrow. Lawyer Burke stated to the court that the R's time 20 prosecutor, Joseph Enipple, had stated when in was to court the other day, that there was nothing in the case, and he was trying to have it withdrawn.

LARESIDE BAILWAY.

The Lakeside Electric Ballway Company, running from Mahanoy City to Shenandonh is advertised for sale under an execution ed to Julia Ward for $165 upon a judgment obtained in Court of Common Pleas Mrs. Ward, the plaintiff, was injured and er vehicle damaged while crossing the road. he sale is advertised for to-morrow. To-day MacHenry Wilhelm appeared before Judge Henning for a stay of the sale, to enable him to prepare a bill in equity. Decision was reerved until to morrow morning at 0 o'clock.

ERRECHE GETS THE COSTS. In the case of Officer. Peter Kreeger, of enandoah, who charged John Tohosky, of ary returned a verdict of not guilty and

E reeger was directed to pay the costs. The prosecutor did not appear in court. The case was called up several days ago, but at the suggestion of Judge Bechtel it was postponed for a few days in order to give the prosecuto a chance to appear. In default of his appearance the above verifict was taken. WANTED TO SEE THE ENGINE JUMP. Sometime ago John Multko, an eight-yearld boy of Win. Penn, placed a board on the Pennsylvania railroad near that place, "to are the engine jump." Fortunately the engine, when leaving the track, was going slowly, and no great damage was done. The boy was arrested, confessed his guilt, and was arraigned in court yesterday. The company's attorney suggested that sentence be susended and that he give $500 bond for good Kramer, of Summit Station behavior, which the court did. Judge Bechtel referred to the railroad casualties that had occurred at Tamagua and Shamokin through the acts of had boys and said they must not be permitted to wantonly take
