Thus comments our Democratic contemporary, the Philadelphia Times.

WITHIN a few weeks hints have been given President McKinley by some of his party friends that he ought to call Congress together in extra session about the 10th of October, but from all accounts he is still of the opinion that nothing will be gained. The best information is that | Coldstream Guards band, Innes' co the legislative mill will not commence band and the Municipal band of Philto grind until the first Monday to December, the usual time of meeting. The Republicans who want Congress to get down to work believe there will be a better chance of an early adjournment next summer, so that the statesmen can commence their campaigns in good season. Others differ with them.

> Franco was arrested by guards and placed in jail, while the other cowboy escaped. An hour and a half later three guards who started with Herron to Nogales were overtaken by a party of American cowboys, friends of Herron, who were bent upon rescuing him. A lively fight took place, resulting in the killing of a guard named Pedrogan and the wounding of Manuel Rivera so severely that death is expected hourly. The taird guard escaped to the custom house and securing help returned and drove the cowboys across to this side of the line, Herron re-fasing to come back with his rescuers, but continuing on to Nogales, where he gave himself up. He chose rather to face the charge of smuggling than risk being taken by officers here, who hold a warrant for him, as having caped from the penitentiary in Oklaoma after being sentenced for 25 years for murder,

A STREET RAILWAY FIGHT.

Dover's City Solicitor Badly Beater During a Hearing in Court.

Dover, Del., Sept. 12.—Mayor Mill-ington, the police force and councilmen of this city, yesterday charged into a crowd of 20 workmen of the Delaware Electric Ratiway company who were laying rails on State street and thus blocking the plans of a rival company. The workmen were notified that they had no right to use the street, but former Secretary of State Hawkins who is interested in the company, declared that he had secured permission to do so five years ago from councils. The work was stopped for a few moments, but was again resumed, when the mayor and the police interfered and five of the workmen were arrested and committed to jail. In the court room while the hearing was in progress a fight was started in which City Solicitor Daly was badly beaten. Last night councils took action to prevent Hawkins from laying rails on the
