THE COURT CHRONICLE. In the case of the Tanawaga Manufacturing Company vs. the Borough of Shenandoah, H. B. Graeff, Esq., attorney for plaintiff, filed a determination to select arbitrators, and October 2nd at 10 a. m. was set for the date.

Tax Collector John F. Shoener, of Mahanoy City, made a payment on his county duplicate.

W. J. Whitehouse, Esq., has filed reasons for a new trial in the case of William Minkins and William Mackay, of Minersville, convicted of selling liquor on Sunday.

ARBITRATORS APPOINTED. In the Court of Common Pleas to-day arbitrators were selected in the slender suit of Levi Belfovich vs. Samuel Block, residents of Shenandoah.

The arbitrators selected are Messrs. Henry Haag, Irvin A. Reed and Charles D. Boyle. They were agreed upon by Edgar W. and F. W. Bechtel, Esqs., attorneys for the plaintiff, and M. M. Burke, Esq., attorney for the defendant.

Judge Marr concluded his charge to the jury this morning in the case of Frank Latschick, of Minersville, against Joseph Seaman, Simon Connelly, George Strong, and George Steckelwirth. It is alleged the defendants committed perjury in swearing that Latschick said liquor to minors and on Sunday, thereby preventing him from getting a renewal of his license. The jury found the defendants not guilty, but pay two-thirds of the costs and the prosecutor one-third.

PURGED OF CONTEMPT. Lazarus Meyer, a liquor dealer of Camden, N. J., was brought into court on a capias to-day. He made an admission that an arrangement existed with the Justice of the Peace by which Meyer was to be notified when to appear in court and he exhibited a letter he received yesterday from the Justice, stating that his case would be called this morning. That was why he failed to appear yesterday. Under the circumstances the court excused Meyer and put him under $300 bail to appear at the next term. The charge against Meyer is larceny of some liquor from a party residing in Kline township. This liquor had been furnished by Meyer's agent, who is now in jail at Match Chunk, and that was the reason for postponing the case.

Mrs. Samuel Bolich was acquitted of a charge of assault and battery and interfering with an officer, on oath of William Young, and the costs were put on the prosecutor.

John Padalkinas, of Shenandoah, was found guilty of criminal assault on oath of Mrs. Yema Markiewicz, aunt of the 10-year-old girl involved in the case. The sentence was $15 fine, costs and 18 months from date of commitment.

George Mudrik, of Shenandoah, was tried for interfering with an officer, on oath of Anthony Alex. He was found not guilty and the costs were put on the prosecutor.

Before the same jury Mike Szona was tried for larceny and receiving stolen goods, on oath of William Zollinsky. He was found guilty on the latter charge and was sentenced to pay $5 fine, costs and serve 30 days.

Frank Dragolis, of Shenandoah, got $10 fine, costs and three months for larceny and receiving stolen goods on oath of William Wychtous.

Matt Serowick, of Shenandoah, is on trial before Judge Marr for carrying concealed deadly weapons and assault with intent to kill, on oath of William Durham Burke and Whitehouse are the contesting attorneys.

Robert Hodgert is on trial before Judge Bechtel, charged with criminal assault and battery, on oath of Manue Yueler, of Frackville, Bashore and Brumm are the respective attorneys.

TIMBERMEN ACQUITTED. Israel Boyer, Bennetts Knapper and E. E. Hanny were tried to-day for malicious mischief in cutting timber trees, on oath of Francis Stewart, Moses Hain and Charles McBride, defendants in two other similar cases, were tried before the same jury. Stewart was also the prosecutor in these cases. The parties are farmers residing near Tanawaga. They believe they owned the timber and lands upon which they cut the timber and deeds were exhibited showing their rights. Judge Bechtel directed a verdict of not guilty as to the criminal charge, but allowed the jury to go out and consider the matter of costs. He said the criminal

THE WEATHER.

Temperatures have again risen decidedly throughout the west, except in North Dakota, due to another area of low pressure, which is moving rapidly across the country, and was central last night over Lake Superior. In the Middle Atlantic states and New England the temperatures are generally below the seasonal average. Forecast for this section: Fair and warmer today; fair tomorrow; fresh northerly winds, becoming variable.

Sunrise, 5:45; sunset, 6:20; length of day, 12h., 35m.; moon rises, 1:22 p. m.; moon sets, 10:35 p. m.

Court was not the proper place to settle a dispute of that kind, as it was a case in which the accused believed they had a right to the timber. The jury put one-fourth of the costs on Boyer, Knapper and Hanny, and one-fourth on Stewart, the prosecutor. In the Hain and McBride cases the jury put half the costs on the defendants and half on Stewart.

ESTERHAZY CHALLENGED. Irish-American Wants to Fight in Defense of Captain Dreyfus. Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 12.—Captain Thomas Phelan, a broad swordsman and a crack pistol shot, has issued a challenge to Count Esterhazy to fight him a duel in defense of Captain Alfred Dreyfus. Captain Phelan has engaged in several personal encounters, and he is so well known by several local Jews, who have guaranteed his passage to England to meet Esterhazy. He is a veteran of the civil war. In his letter to Esterhazy he says: "Believing you to be the instigator and arch conspirator responsible for all the miseries and tribulations of Captain Dreyfus, and because he (Dreyfus) is not unable to follow you and demand satisfaction for the miseries you have heaped upon him, I, as an Irish-American, who does not belong to his race or creed, and believing that a man should not be punished on account of his religion, do volunteer to take his place in the hole of honor at any time or place you may designate, the place of meeting to be on neutral grounds."

The challenge was mailed to Count Esterhazy yesterday.

Phelan is the man who exposed the plot to blow up the British steamer Queen with dynamite. O'Donovan Roemer accused him of being a traitor to Ireland, and subsequently, in January, 1885, Phelan went to the office of Rossa, in New York, and there he was assaulted and stabbed in many places, and his subsequent recovery was thought to be almost a miracle.

Tin Plate Works to Close Down, Cumberland, Md., Sept. 12.—Orders have been issued for an indefinite suspension of work at the Cumberland tin plate mill from Thursday evening next. A hundred and fifty men will be thrown out of employment. Many of the men believe that the mill will be closed down entirely, and that the rumor when it was absorbed by the trust that would eventually be closed will prove true.

A NEW JERSEY HURRICANE. It Did Considerable Damage to Property and Shipping Along the Coast. Jersey City, Sept. 12.—A strong southeast wind, at times almost approaching hurricane velocity, prevailed in this vicinity for several hours yesterday afternoon and did considerable damage to shipping in the harbor and property on Staten Island and several of the towns along the Jersey coast.

At Highlands of Navesink several houses were blown down and Sandlax hotel was badly damaged.

At Perth Amboy several buildings were blown down and many trees uprooted. Small buildings were blown down, chimneys blown off and trees uprooted at a number of other New Jersey towns. At Totterville, S. I., a number of buildings were destroyed.

At 5:30 o'clock the wind reached a velocity of 65 miles an hour and several small boats were smashed in the lower harbor. The yachts in the Horse-shoe did not appear to suffer. The Shamrock and her tender were apparently unharmed. Several small yachts off Atlantic Highlands dragged their anchors, but with one or two exceptions they were brought up before being carried onto the beach. There was no loss of life.

The schooner Penokee, from Norfolk, Va., to Saco, Me., with a cargo of coal, while trying to make harbor struck on Rorer shoal last night. The crew of seven men, after a hard struggle in a heavy sea, succeeded in reaching life-saving station No. 1, on Sandy Hook Point. The schooner will probably be a total loss.

Don't delay a minute. Cholera infantum, dysentery, diarrhoea come suddenly. Only safe plan is to use Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry always on hand.
