OUR COUNTRY: First, Last and Forever.

The gentlemen who are running the Democratic campaign in this county are the silverites askance.

The "traitors of '06" are in the saddle in this county, and the Bryanites are in the dumps. Is party treachery to be rewarded?

The Court of Cassation should promptly take up the Dreyfus case and grant the convicted man the justice which the army court-martial appears to have predetermined not to give him.

The Salvation Army lassies have won a victory in Philadelphia, the court having declared their arrest being contrary to law. And the drum will continue as a weapon of warfare against Satan.

In this restless age constant bustle is the price of success. Newspaper advertising is the very best "bustle" any firm can employ. It will go into thousands of homes and reach people who are approachable in no other way. It is an indispensable part of every modern retail business.

JUDGE WHITE, of Pittsburg, has taken a stand against easy divorces. The reform was not inaugurated by Judge White, but it should spread to every county in the state. Compelling divorce proceedings to be held in open court strikes a blow at one of the worst forms of practice. The secret hearings before commissioners afford opportunities for collusion, or worse, which have become a scandal in some districts, and ought to be purged from all.

FORMER POSTMASTER Bogert, of Wilkesbarre, who was on trial in the United States court at Williamsport, charged with opening the mails, is still a free man. The jury in the case was unable to agree on a verdict, two being for conviction and ten for acquittal. Mr. Bogert was placed under bail for his appearance for another trial at either the Scranton or Pittsburg term as the court will direct in the near future. It is believed that the government will drop the case.

The Democratic Florida Times-Union bites its thumb at one of the most distinguished and able members of its party: "Altgeld should be disciplined for the good of the party or silenced; as a Democrat his record is that of a bolter and firebrand; as a citizen he is the friend of anarchy and the enemy of the law." Altgeld is a typical Bryanite, fiercely radical as his party is. The Southern Democrats, many of whom love to imagine that they are conservative, will vote meekly for the ideas of this fierce radical agitator.

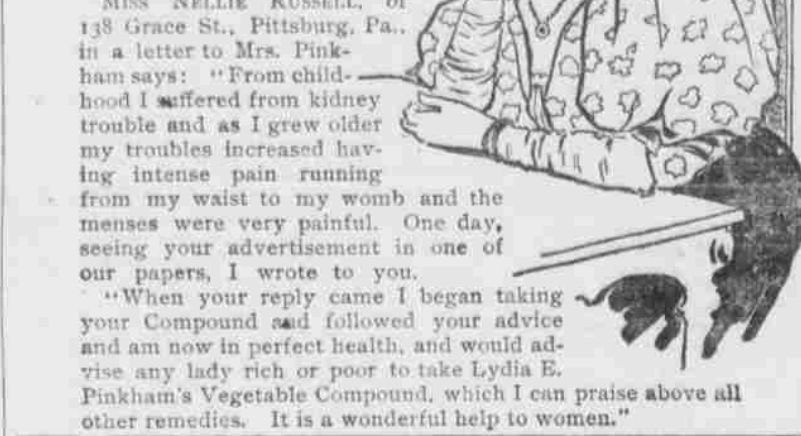

JAMES H. REAGAN, of Texas, the last of Jefferson Davis' Confederate Cabinet, is now in his eight year, but a recent visitor to him says that, in spite of the signs of age in his face, his brown eyes shine lustreously, his voice is steady, and his step is firm. He says he has taken great care of himself, goes to bed early, and gets up at sunrise, works hard, and sleeps well. Of the Confederacy he says: "The cause we advocated was dear to our hearts; we worked for it, fought for it, and prayed that it might be victorious, but I am not sure now that things are not better as they are."

THE opening week of September was the busiest in the history of the Pennsylvania Steel Works, at Steelton, and saw the highest number of employees ever carried on the company's pay rolls. The 7000 mark was passed some time ago, and new names are being added to the force daily. The shipments last week were immense, and but for a breakdown in the slab mill they would have been larger. More than 100 cars of rails for the New York and New England railroad were shipped, in addition to other large orders. There were also some large shipments of bridge material to Eastern Canada and the South.

THERE are women everywhere who suffer almost constantly because they cannot bring themselves to tell all about their ills to a physician. Such women can surely explain their symptoms and their suffering by letter to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for the confidence reposed in her has never been violated. Over a million women have been helped by her advice and medicine. Mrs. Pinkham in attending to her vast correspondence is assisted by women only. If you are ill, don't delay. Her reply will cost you nothing and it will be a practical help as it was to Miss ELA E. BRENNER, East Rochester, Ohio, who says: "I shrunk from the ordeal of examination by our physician, yet I knew I must have treatment. My troubles were backache, nervousness, feeling, painful menstruation and leucorrhoea. I am so grateful to you now that I am willing to have my name published to help other girls to take their troubles to you. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound used as you wrote me has made me entirely well and very happy. I shall bless you as long as I live."

A WOMAN HELPS WOMEN

Mrs. Pinkham receives thousands of such letters from grateful women. Miss NELLIE RUSSELL, of 138 Grace St., Pittsburg, Pa., in a letter to Mrs. Pinkham says: "From childhood I suffered from kidney trouble and as I grew older my troubles increased having intense pain running from my waist to my womb and the menses were very painful. One day, seeing your advertisement in one of our papers, I wrote to you. When your reply came I began taking your Compound and followed your advice and am now in perfect health, and would advise any lady rich or poor to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I can praise above all other remedies. It is a wonderful help to women."

A NEW JERSEY MURDERESS.

Killed Her Husband's Employer White Resting in a Chair. North Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 13.—Paul Roehricht, a wealthy jeweler of New York city, was shot and almost instantly killed at his summer place here yesterday by Mrs. Peter Fingerhuth. The shooting was the result of an attempt to eject the Fingerhuth family from a residence owned by Roehricht. Mrs. Fingerhuth and her husband have been placed under arrest, and a son, aged 20 years, has been held as a witness.

Mr. Roehricht employed Fingerhuth as a landscape gardener, but becoming dissatisfied with Fingerhuth's work he discharged him and ordered him out of the house he occupied. The gardener refused to move, and the matter was to come before the courts yesterday. Instead of appearing before the court Fingerhuth went to New York, leaving his wife in charge.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Roehricht, his counsel, Robert M. Clark, and several others attempted to force Mrs. Fingerhuth out of the house, and finally forced an entrance. The woman snatched the revolver at Mr. Clark, but it missed fire. She then fired at Mr. Roehricht, the bullet striking him near the heart. He died within five minutes.

My son, Charlie, was afflicted from infancy with Scrofula, and he suffered so that it was impossible to dress him for three years. His head and body were a mass of sores, and his eyesight also became affected. No treatment was of any avail until he was treated with S. S. S. Blood Purifier. I had almost despaired of his recovery, but by the advice of a friend we gave him S. S. S. Blood Purifier. The improvement was the result, and after he had taken a dozen bottles, no one who knew of his former condition would have recognized him. All the sores on his body healed, his skin is perfectly clear and smooth, and he has been restored to perfect health.

For real blood troubles it is a waste of time to expect a cure from the doctors. Blood troubles are beyond their skill. Swift's Specific.

S. S. S. The Blood Purifier reaches all deep-seated cases which other remedies have no effect upon. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed purely vegetable, and contains no poison, mercury, or other mineral. Books mailed free to any address by Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.
