

IT'S A STAYER.
Comes Quickly, But It Comes to Stay, How a Shenandoah Citizen Got Rid of It.

Read her statement that follows:

Mrs. Elizabeth Sitzer, of 111 West Coal street, says: "For five years I had eczema on one of my limbs and I could get nothing to cure it, although I tried many remedies. I am away and paid a doctor a box for preparation which did me no good at all. I read about Don's Ointment and procured a box at Kirlin's pharmacy. The first time I applied it, it gave relief and it was the first remedy which he had the eczema and subside the inflammation. My skin used to itch and burn so that I could not sleep and this added to my suffering. Don's Ointment is the best remedy for eczema I ever found in a search extending over five years."

TRANSAVAL'S REPLY.
It is Being Discussed by the Volksraad at Today's Sitting.

KRUGER FAVORS COMPLIANCE.
Some of the Members, However, Received Mr. Chamberlain's Dispatch Defiantly—Orange Free State Will Support the Transvaal.

London, Sept. 15.—According to a dispatch from Pretoria the discussion of the morning draft of the reply to the British note ended last evening, President Kruger having left at 4 o'clock and not having returned. It is understood that the government will draw up the reply in its final form this morning and immediately submit the same to the Volksraad. The reply will be in terms strongly influenced by the Orange Free State, and among other features the maintenance of the convention of 1884 will be strongly asserted.

The Pretoria correspondent of The Times telegraphs: "It is very doubtful whether an unqualified acceptance of Great Britain's demands will be given."

The Pretoria correspondent of The Daily Telegraph says: "The members of the Volksraad received Mr. Chamberlain's dispatch defiantly. Individual members declare that Great Britain must moderate her demands. On the other hand, a rumor is current that President Kruger favors compliance, and has even suggested that he desires the irreconcilables to leave Pretoria and consult their constituents, thereby avoiding their opposition. This belief is held in Johannesburg, and accounts for the hopeful condition of the market, but the general public is pessimistic."

The Times publishes the following from Johannesburg: "The mystery surrounding the attitude of the Orange Free State continues. President Steyn's attitude is reported as showing an intention to support the Transvaal through thick and thin, though his influence at present is on the side of peace. Public feeling is running very high, and unless President Kruger makes an emphatic pronouncement in favor of compliance, the great majority of the Boers will inevitably vote against any concessions beyond a seven years' franchise."

Dispatches from Cape Town attach great importance to an article in The Omslander, the organ of the Afrikaner bond, which urges the Transvaal government to renew its offer regarding a conference, declaring that there is no reason why the Transvaal should not accept a conference, and calling attention to the fact that the word 'compliance' is not mentioned by Mr. Chamberlain and that, therefore, there is nothing to indicate an obligation on the part of either government to abandon its views on the subject.

This article is understood to be the outcome of an important Afrikaner caucus held to discuss the Chamberlain note, and it is understood that the argument has been fortified by strong messages to Pretoria, urging the Volksraad to forego the suzerainty objection and to concede the British proposals. There is every reason to believe that Mr. Hafmeyr, the Afrikaner leader, has wired President Kruger to the same effect, and similar representations have been telegraphed from the Orange Free State.

The Cape Town correspondent of The Daily News says: "A thousand men are engaged in strengthening the defenses of Pretoria. Trenches are being excavated and earthworks constructed. It is reported that both roads will adjourn at the end of the week to enable members to consult their constituents on the questions raised in Mr. Chamberlain's dispatch."

The Pretoria correspondent of The Daily Chronicle says that when Mr. Conyngham Greene, the British diplomatic agent, suggested 48 hours as the period within which the reply of the South African republic was expected, the Transvaal representative replied: "If your suggestion is serious, the reply will be ready in 48 minutes." President Kruger's intimates, according to The Daily Chronicle, are pessimistic regarding the situation.

The Paris correspondent of The Times says that M. Delessand, the French foreign minister, has directed the French consul in the Transvaal to accept Mr. Chamberlain's proposal.

Gill Gets the Nomination.
Martin's Ferry, O., Sept. 15.—The deadlocked convention of the Sixteenth Ohio Republicans came to an end at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and resulted in the nomination of Hon. J. H. Gill, of Steubenville, on the 29th ballot, after one of the most exciting struggles on record in political Ohio. At the morning session the Carroll and Monroe county delegations broke to Gill, giving him within five of enough votes to nominate, and at the opening of the afternoon session Mr. Weems withdrew, and sufficient votes from Belmont were cast for Gill to give him the nomination. The last ballot resulted in Gill receiving 160 votes and Hollingsworth 90. Although hotly contested, the convention was harmonious throughout.
