

Watching the Prescription

The health that results from the medicine depends upon the ingredients used and the care employed in putting them together.

Our filling of the prescription is in accordance with the physician's ideas with the conscientiously careful work with the purest and best materials.

SHENANDOAH DRUG STORE, South Main Street, Shenandoah, Pa. Telephone Connection.

Ready For Fall

THE FROSTY WEATHER is not far off now. It's time you ordered your fall suit or overcoat.

SEE OUR LINE OF GENTS' FURNISHINGS.

Portz Bros., 24 North Main Street.

There's a World of Satisfaction

In being able to read without inconvenience, especially to the man who has had difficulty with all the glasses he ever tried.

Thos. Buchanan, Jeweler and Optician, 118 South Main Street.

MID-SUMMER SHOE SALE!

CHILDREN'S, MISSES' and LADIES' BOYS', YOUTHS' and MEN'S.

Russetts and Blacks, in all Styles and Shapes.

Ladies' Russetts, $3.00, now $1.60. Men's Russetts, $3.00, now $2.00.

Misses', Children's and Infant's shoes at a reduction of 30 per cent, below regular price.

THIS SALE IS FOR TWO WEEKS ONLY.

BOSTON FACTORY SHOE STORE, 27 South Main Street, Shenandoah, Pa.

Couches, Lounges, Upholstered in Corduroy, Velour, Carpets and Silks.

DAVISON'S DEPARTMENT STORES, Nos. 119-121-123 North Main St.

EVAN J. DAVIES, Livery and Undertaking.

No 13 North Jardin St. A box of our SPECIAL FAMILY BREW is an exhilarating stimulant during the hot summer months.

Delivered at your home. Columbia Brewing Company

TREATS OF PROSECUTION

Mr. Carmel People Opposed to Band Playing on Sundays. Two hundred and seventy-five members of the Greek Catholic societies of town, accompanied by the First Lithuanian band, went to Mt. Carmel yesterday by special P. & E. train to attend the rededication of the Greek Catholic church of that place, and the cemetery connected with it.

Before the dedication parade took place the Chief Burgess and Chief of Police of Mt. Carmel gave notice that the citizens objected to the bands playing while marching through the streets. The Mt. Carmel band did not parade, but the Shenandoah band did.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Ida Dunto visited friends at Delano yesterday. George Shoener transacted business at the county seat to-day.

F. M. Stout made a business trip to Pottsville this morning. Mrs. Kate Foley spent yesterday visiting friends at Lost Creek.

Mrs. Phillip Weaver, of Park Place, was a visitor to town yesterday. Miss Ella Bowman, of Northumberland, is visiting friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. James Francis and daughter, Rue, of Shamokin, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Cashion, of North West street, yesterday.

F. J. Seeds, the bright young son of W. H. Seeds, proprietor of the Hotel Ferguson, entertained the guests at the hotel Saturday night with a photographic entertainment.

Mrs. E. J. Shepell, of East Oak street, son, Thomas, and daughter, Mrs. John R. James, returned on Saturday from McKeen, Montour County, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Shepell's father.

Mrs. John Malla, of St. Clair, and Mrs. Patrick Gaughan, of Springfield, Ill., who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Gaughan, on West Cherry street, left for their homes to-day.

Richard Brown and sister, Miss Annie, visited relatives at St. Clair yesterday. Cornelius Davenport went to St. Clair this morning, to attend the funeral of the late David Davis.

Jacob Hammer made business visits to Frackville and Pottsville to-day. School Director Thomas Doro and G. A. Shaah are doing jury duty at the Pottsville city court this week.

E. J. Barrett, of Girardville, was a guest of friends at Lost Creek yesterday. James Thompson and Joseph Gordon, of Lost Creek No. 2, left this morning to visit the Philadelphia exposition.

Miss Marie Kreiger left town this morning for Philadelphia, where she will reside permanently. Win. Nixon, of Philadelphia, is visiting the family of Jeweler Thomas Buchanan, on South Main street.

Messrs. John Yeager, Patrick Fox, George Howes and Michael Haulley enjoyed a drive through the Catawissa valley yesterday. Rev. Mansell of town, and Miss Pauline Swartz, of Boston, Mass., are enjoying a visit at Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. David Jones, who until recently conducted a millinery store on East Oak street, will leave to-morrow morning for Salt Lake City, Utah, to locate permanently with relatives.

Messrs. David Morgan, A. D. Gable, Charles Kleinienst, Marshal Meyers and E. A. Doherty, were at Lakeside yesterday, on a mushroom expedition. They had intended to present a friend in Philadelphia with a case of the delicacy, but their expectations were not realized as they only succeeded in finding eight of the toothsome delicacies.

Miss Ella Egan and Maggie Carroll left this morning for New York city, where they will spend the next two weeks visiting relatives.

John A. Titman, who left town several weeks ago for an extensive tour designed principally for pleasure, but with an eye open for any favorable business opportunity that might present itself, is at Jolip, Missouri. He is expected to return in about a week.

Councilman John P. Boehm is gradually recovering from his recent illness. S. G. Acker is nursing a badly sprained leg. He is compelled to go about with the aid of a cane.

Junior, the infant son of William Jones, of Wm. Penn, who has been seriously ill with cerebral congestion, is on the road to recovery. Bay Royal Patent Flour. It is the best in the market.

A Notice. A crowd of foreigners on Juneberry alley, in the rear of Annunciation Hall, are a public nuisance and menace to the neighborhood. The "rushing of the growler" starts about 6 p. m. and shortly thereafter their conduct becomes uproarious. This is such a frequent occurrence that it is probable action to suppress the nuisance will be taken.

Mr. Price, of Trenton, N. J., is in town promoting a movement to have a local branch of the Zionists organized. The chief objects of the movement is to bring all the Hebrews of the world in one organization and the ultimate purchase of Jerusalem.

Cooking Main. A cooking main for $25 a side between Valico and Mora birds took place in an unoccupied building near Mahanoy City on Saturday night. The Valico birds captured the first and third battles, while Mora took the second. Three battles were fought. Considerable money changed hands.

Slight Wreck. A slight wreck occurred on the P. & E. Railway at the old colliery siding a short distance above Mahanoy City, on Saturday afternoon. Five cars were derailed, one being smashed into kindling wood. The wreck was caused by a defective rail.

The Allentown Fair by Reading Railway. For the accommodation of persons attending the Allentown Fair, the Philadelphia & Reading Railway will sell excursion tickets on Thursday next, 21st inst., good to return Friday, 22nd, at rate of $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for children. Train leaves Shenandoah at 5:38 a. m., Sept. 21st. Stop off in Reading allowed within time limit of ticket.

Scratch, scratch, scratch! unable to attend to business during the day or sleep during the night. Itching piles, horrible plague. Don't's Ointment cures. Never fails. At any drug store, 50 cents.

Grand Welcome to Admiral Dewey New York, Sept. 29 and 30. The Lehigh Valley Railroad will place on sale excursion tickets to New York and return for this occasion from all points. Consult Lehigh Valley Railroad ticket agents for particulars, rates, etc.

Properties Sold. This afternoon the properties, Nos. 15, 13 and 17 West Oak street, owned by Thomas McAttee, of Girardville, were sold at Constable's sale for $400. The purchasers were the Brennan estate, of the Heckesherville valley, who own the ground on which the properties are built. They were represented by Hon. James H. Betty. Arrangements in ground rent were the cause of the sale.

THE WEATHER.

The temperatures have fallen decidedly over the western half area and have risen in the east and extreme west. Yesterday morning, however, they were quite low over the latter district, with frosts, both light and heavy, in south Dakota, western Nebraska and northern Colorado. Forecast for this section: Generally fair to-b; showers tomorrow; fresh southerly winds, becoming variable. Sunrise, 5:50; sunset, 6:10; length of day, 12h. 20m.; moon rises, 5:37 p. m.; moon sets 4:29 a. m.

PRESBYTERY OF LEHIGH

Will Meet in Shenandoah To-morrow, Holding Two Sessions. The semi-annual meeting of the Presbytery of Lehigh will be held this week in the Presbyterian church in this town, of which Rev. H. W. Koehler is pastor. The first session will be on Tuesday at 3 p. m., and will be opened with a devotional service led by the Rev. John F. Pollock, of Allentown, moderator of the Presbytery.

Previous to the session of the afternoon a meeting will be held at one o'clock of the committee on Synodical Mission Statement, of which the Rev. Dr. Beville is chairman. In addition to the reports of committees, the election of delegates to the annual meeting of the Synod of Pennsylvania will be held at 10 o'clock, and other routine business; several items of special interest are expected to come before the Presbytery for action. Among these are the resignation of Dr. Earl as pastor at Catawissa, and of the Rev. T. Calvin Stewart as pastor of the South church at Easton, and the call of the Tamaqua church for the pastoral services of Mr. W. J. Mansfield, of York, a licentiate of the Presbytery.

A cordial invitation is extended the public to attend these services and especially that of the popular meeting to be held at 7:30 Tuesday evening in the interest of Sunday school work. There will be short addresses on practical Sabbath school work as it exists in the presbytery and the Presbyterian church embracing such subjects as "The twentieth century movement and the significance of Bally Day," "The Home Department," which is a new feature that has been added to the Sabbath school by the Presbyterian church during the past few years, and an address on "The Sabbath School of the Future." Among the speakers will be Rev. K. Woodruff, superintendent of the Pottsville first church Sabbath school, and Rev. R. N. Chamberlain, pastor of the second church of Pottsville.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident of which Mr. John Olive, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a very dreadful condition. My skin was almost peeled, eyes swollen, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim. No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at A. Wasley's drug store."

Declared Off. The cycle road race for $25 a side between Howard Krell, of Vulcan, and Joseph Stein, of Mora, which was scheduled to take place last Saturday, was declared off, owing to the Vulcan rider failing to materialize, on account of his wheel becoming disabled. The route was over the Frackville pike.

Sermon Wednesday Evening. Rev. T. G. Jones will preach a Welsh sermon at the Welsh Congregational church on Wednesday evening, 20th inst., at 7 o'clock. All Welsh people are cordially invited to attend.

Threatened to Shoot. While indulging in a merry time Saturday night Joe Merziewicz and Adam Karah quarreled over the spilling of a barrel of pickles. Merziewicz drew a revolver and threatened to shoot somebody, and he was put under $400 bail by Justice Slocemaker, on Karah's complaint.

Deaths and Funerals. Lizzie, infant daughter of Michael Hughes, of North Catherine street, was buried in the Annunciation cemetery yesterday afternoon. M. O'Neill was the funeral director.

Sarah, a 20-month-old daughter of William Thomas, of East Centre street, Mahanoy City, died at the family residence yesterday of diphtheria. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon.

An Unfortunate Kid. Six-year-old Francis Maloney, of Mahanoy City, on Saturday placed a grape in one of his nostrils, causing the organ to swell considerably, and create much pain. The family physician was called and dislodged the grape after several hours of hard labor.

A Venerable Bridegroom. Maurus Jokal. Noted Hungarian Novelist. Wrote a Girl of Eighteen. Vienna, Sept. 18.—The Hungarian novelist Maurus Jokal, now in his 75th year, was married Saturday at Buda Pesth to the Hungarian actress, Arabella Grossmayr, a girl of 18.

The first wife of Jokal, the most productive and genial of Hungarian novelists, was Rosa Laborfalvi, the greatest of Hungarian tragediennes, whom he married in 1848, the year when he preclaimed the famous "Twelve Points of Peuth." In 1849 he followed the Hungarian government to Debreczin, where he edited The Abendblatt, and he was present at the capitulation of Vilagos, Aug. 13. To escape being made prisoner he resolved on suicide, but was hindered by the fortunate arrival of his wife from Pesth. She had converted all her jewels into gold, and the pair found their way on foot through the Russian army, reached a safe hiding place in the wood of Bokk, and at last got to Peuth in safety.

Elias Hatfield Convicted. Williamson, W. Va., Sept. 18.—Elias Hatfield, who on July 2 murdered H. E. Ellis, was found guilty of murder in the second degree. The jury reached this verdict after deliberating more than 12 hours. The special grand jury has returned indictments against a number of the Hatfield clan, two of which were for complicity in the Ellis murder. They will be given a speedy trial here, and if acquitted will be turned over to the Kentucky authorities to answer for murders committed some time ago. Elias Hatfield's sentence will not be less than five or more than 20 years in prison.

Flakes Weak Women Strong, And Sick Wanten Well. It is made from a formula of Dr. R. V. Pierce, the celebrated specialist in diseases of women at Buffalo, N. Y. It is a strictly temperance medicine, containing neither alcohol, opium or other narcotic poison. It cures irregularities, displacements, drains, ulcerations, inflammation, headache, backache and nervousness. It prepares the way for almost painless maternity, and insures robustness to the newborn. It cures women at home, and does away with obnoxious questioning and local examinations.

Some medicine dealers offer substitutes when you ask for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. They imitate this medicine in appearance as nearly as the law will allow, but they cannot imitate its record of thirty years of cure.

Mrs. Mattie Veughan, of Tigue, Hancock Co., N. Y., writes: "I had been sick for seven years, but in but six weeks using myself around. At last I took three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and use of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and it is impossible to describe in words the good these medicines did me."

Neither 'Discovery' nor the 'Favorite Prescription' contains any alcohol, opium or other narcotic.

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

Flakes Weak Women Strong, And Sick Wanten Well.

It is made from a formula of Dr. R. V. Pierce, the celebrated specialist in diseases of women at Buffalo, N. Y.

Some medicine dealers offer substitutes when you ask for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Mrs. Mattie Veughan, of Tigue, Hancock Co., N. Y., writes: "I had been sick for seven years, but in but six weeks using myself around."

PITHY POINTS.

Shipping Throughout the Country Chronically for Nasty Periods. Snyder county has had a couple of frosts, the earliest for 15 years.

Gordon citizens will meet this evening to organize a Board of Trade. The Democratic candidates were in conference at Pottsville on Saturday.

Over $78,000 was paid out by the P. & E. C. & I. Co. in this district on Saturday. The First National Bank, of Lansford, has been organized with J. E. Lauer as president.

Min Anna M. Frank and Austin Kaufman, both of Gordon, were married Saturday afternoon. Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of this week will be observed by Catholics as ember days.

Merchandise valued at $200 was stolen from Wolf Miller's store at Glen Rock, York county. Joseph Lynch was instantly killed at Luka Fidler colliery, near Shamokin, by wagon coming his head.

An effort will likely prove successful in being made to organize a lodge of the order of Elks in Tamaqua. During the past four weeks 29 families have removed from Tamaqua, but the influx was equal to the exodus.

The total arctic coal tonnage for 1899 to September 1st is 29,145,000 tons, an increase of nearly six millions over the shipments of 1898. While Isaac Peifer, a Lebanon valley college student, was riding at Lebanon, the post of his bicycle broke and he was severely injured.

Andy Sanko, charged with cutting his brother's throat, was acquitted at Uniontown yesterday, the jury being out only twelve minutes. The State Maristades Association holds its annual convention at Allentown on Tuesday and Wednesday. "Squire Shoemaker, of town, is one of the delegates.

John Geener was admitted to the hospital yesterday suffering with an abscess of the leg. He had the leg injured by a fall of coal at the Turkey Run colliery last Monday. Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewart has issued an order to the effect that the annual rifle and carbine competition at the state range at Mt. Gretna will not be held this year.

Anthony Mooney, a sixteen-year-old boy residing at Centerville, had his collar bone fractured on Saturday by a fall. He was employed as inside door tender at the Best colliery. Several tons of gravel fell over James Tigue, in a quarry near Hawley Pike county, burying him completely, but when fellow-laborers dug him out he was able to resume work.

Call and see our fine line of jewelry and silverware. Olga Nethercole bracelets at half price. Orkin's, 7 South Main street, next to Goldin's clothing store. 7-17-99

Allentown Fair. The Lehigh Valley Railroad will sell tickets from Shenandoah to the Allentown fair and return at special low rates Sept. 19th to 22nd, good for return to and including Sept. 23rd. Special one-day rate of $1.50 will be made Thursday, Sept. 21st. Tickets good only on special train leaving Shenandoah at 6:32 a. m. on that date, returning on special train leaving Allentown 7:15 p. m. on that date, or any regular train except the Black Diamond Express, the following day. Consult Lehigh Valley Railroad agents for information, schedules, special trains, etc.

Round Trip Round Trip Train Fare, Parochial Leave Stations. Adults, bet 5 & 12 yrs. a. m. Ashland $1.20 $1.00 5:50 6:02 Girardville 1.00 1.00 6:02 6:12 Mahanoy City 1.00 1.00 6:12 6:22 Pottsville 1.00 1.00 6:22 6:32 Reading 1.00 1.00 6:32 6:42 Allentown 1.00 1.00 6:42 6:52 Reading arrive 9:15

For further information apply to ticket agents. Bad blood and indigestion are deadly enemies to good health. Burdock Blood Bitters destroys them.

Wedding of Miss Nellie, daughter of Patrick Delaney, of North Jardin street, and James Cook, of Pittsburg, took place in the Annunciation church at 8 o'clock this morning. Rev. Vincent Conoran, the curate, officiated. The bridesmaid and groomsmen were Miss Bertha Bossett, of Homestead, Pa., and James Higgins, of town.

Andrew Shoener, of Mt. Carmel, and Miss Kathryn Spotts, of Carlisle, were married on Saturday. George Halkyard, of Ashland, and Miss Agnes Miles, of Girardville, will be married on Wednesday. The ceremony will be performed at the bride's home at Girardville.

Luke Whelan and Miss Berdie Reese, of Mahanoy City, were married at Philadelphia on Saturday. This is the couple that eloped about a week ago. Cards are out announcing the coming wedding of Miss Lillie I. Simpson, of Port Carbon, to Mr. T. J. Ditzer, of Philadelphia, on Wednesday, September 27.

Patrick Hobbs, of Mahanoy City, and Miss Mary Koch, of the First ward, of town, will be married in the Annunciation church on Wednesday, the 27th inst.

Deaths and Funerals. Lizzie, infant daughter of Michael Hughes, of North Catherine street, was buried in the Annunciation cemetery yesterday afternoon. M. O'Neill was the funeral director.

Sarah, a 20-month-old daughter of William Thomas, of East Centre street, Mahanoy City, died at the family residence yesterday of diphtheria. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon.

An Unfortunate Kid. Six-year-old Francis Maloney, of Mahanoy City, on Saturday placed a grape in one of his nostrils, causing the organ to swell considerably, and create much pain. The family physician was called and dislodged the grape after several hours of hard labor.

A Venerable Bridegroom. Maurus Jokal. Noted Hungarian Novelist. Wrote a Girl of Eighteen. Vienna, Sept. 18.—The Hungarian novelist Maurus Jokal, now in his 75th year, was married Saturday at Buda Pesth to the Hungarian actress, Arabella Grossmayr, a girl of 18.

The first wife of Jokal, the most productive and genial of Hungarian novelists, was Rosa Laborfalvi, the greatest of Hungarian tragediennes, whom he married in 1848, the year when he preclaimed the famous "Twelve Points of Peuth." In 1849 he followed the Hungarian government to Debreczin, where he edited The Abendblatt, and he was present at the capitulation of Vilagos, Aug. 13. To escape being made prisoner he resolved on suicide, but was hindered by the fortunate arrival of his wife from Pesth. She had converted all her jewels into gold, and the pair found their way on foot through the Russian army, reached a safe hiding place in the wood of Bokk, and at last got to Peuth in safety.

Flakes Weak Women Strong, And Sick Wanten Well. It is made from a formula of Dr. R. V. Pierce, the celebrated specialist in diseases of women at Buffalo, N. Y. It is a strictly temperance medicine, containing neither alcohol, opium or other narcotic poison. It cures irregularities, displacements, drains, ulcerations, inflammation, headache, backache and nervousness. It prepares the way for almost painless maternity, and insures robustness to the newborn. It cures women at home, and does away with obnoxious questioning and local examinations.

Some medicine dealers offer substitutes when you ask for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. They imitate this medicine in appearance as nearly as the law will allow, but they cannot imitate its record of thirty years of cure.

Mrs. Mattie Veughan, of Tigue, Hancock Co., N. Y., writes: "I had been sick for seven years, but in but six weeks using myself around. At last I took three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and use of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and it is impossible to describe in words the good these medicines did me."

Neither 'Discovery' nor the 'Favorite Prescription' contains any alcohol, opium or other narcotic.

GOLDIN'S.

GREETING! Fall and Winter--1899.

Cordial invitation is extended to the people of Shenandoah and vicinity to call and inspect our new fall and winter stock. We take pride in announcing that we can this season offer a larger and more complete assortment than ever before. For the past two months our stock has been arriving so that at the present we can safely say that a more complete line of Men's, Boy's and Children's Clothing cannot be found outside of the largest cities. The stock consists of all the latest and most fashionable designs and styles, and we make no idle boast in saying that we can suit and fit the most skeptical customer.

Another point we take pleasure announcing, is that our price on the above line cannot be beat for lowness. In buying here you have the satisfaction of making a choice from over a thousand different styles and patterns. Besides we guarantee a saving of from $1.00 to $2.00 per suit. Having bought hundreds of a kind, and through manufacturing half of our own goods, we can therefore undersell other stores at from $1.00 to $2.00 less. In closing will thank you for past favors, and hope for a continuance of same; and remain Respectfully Yours, MAMMOTH CLOTHING HOUSE, 9 and 11 South Main St., L. GOLDIN, Proprietor. Our goods are well made and trimmed; and mostly all woolen goods.

Yesterday's Games. The largest crowd of the season to gather at a local base ball game was present yesterday afternoon at the Trotting park to witness games between the Shenandoah and Frackville and Mt. Carmel teams. The crowd was estimated at 1,000. Although the score ran high the three teams put up a good article of ball playing. Shenandoah was victorious in both games. In the first game the home team defeated the Frackville's by the tune of 5 to 3, while in the Mt. Carmel game the score stood 15 to 3. The Shenandoah boys have been giving the base ball enthusiasts free games during the entire season, and will shortly call upon them to aid them in holding a ball.

Ladies, if you have any cloth to be made into a dress, jacket or cape just bring it to us, we will do the rest. Satisfaction and price guaranteed. THE FAMOUS.

Low-Rate Excursion. To Allentown Fair Thursday, Sept. 21, 1899. The Philadelphia & Reading Railway will sell round trip tickets, from stations named below, at rates annexed, good going only on special trains. The crowd was estimated at 1,000. Although the score ran high the three teams put up a good article of ball playing. Shenandoah was victorious in both games. In the first game the home team defeated the Frackville's by the tune of 5 to 3, while in the Mt. Carmel game the score stood 15 to 3. The Shenandoah boys have been giving the base ball enthusiasts free games during the entire season, and will shortly call upon them to aid them in holding a ball.

Several tons of gravel fell over James Tigue, in a quarry near Hawley Pike county, burying him completely, but when fellow-laborers dug him out he was able to resume work.

Call and see our fine line of jewelry and silverware. Olga Nethercole bracelets at half price. Orkin's, 7 South Main street, next to Goldin's clothing store. 7-17-99

Allentown Fair. The Lehigh Valley Railroad will sell tickets from Shenandoah to the Allentown fair and return at special low rates Sept. 19th to 22nd, good for return to and including Sept. 23rd. Special one-day rate of $1.50 will be made Thursday, Sept. 21st. Tickets good only on special train leaving Shenandoah at 6:32 a. m. on that date, returning on special train leaving Allentown 7:15 p. m. on that date, or any regular train except the Black Diamond Express, the following day. Consult Lehigh Valley Railroad agents for information, schedules, special trains, etc.

Round Trip Round Trip Train Fare, Parochial Leave Stations. Adults, bet 5 & 12 yrs. a. m. Ashland $1.20 $1.00 5:50 6:02 Girardville 1.00 1.00 6:02 6:12 Mahanoy City 1.00 1.00 6:12 6:22 Pottsville 1.00 1.00 6:22 6:32 Reading 1.00 1.00 6:32 6:42 Allentown 1.00 1.00 6:42 6:52 Reading arrive 9:15

For further information apply to ticket agents. Bad blood and indigestion are deadly enemies to good health. Burdock Blood Bitters destroys them.

Wedding of Miss Nellie, daughter of Patrick Delaney, of North Jardin street, and James Cook, of Pittsburg, took place in the Annunciation church at 8 o'clock this morning. Rev. Vincent Conoran, the curate, officiated. The bridesmaid and groomsmen were Miss Bertha Bossett, of Homestead, Pa., and James Higgins, of town.

Andrew Shoener, of Mt. Carmel, and Miss Kathryn Spotts, of Carlisle, were married on Saturday. George Halkyard, of Ashland, and Miss Agnes Miles, of Girardville, will be married on Wednesday. The ceremony will be performed at the bride's home at Girardville.

Luke Whelan and Miss Berdie Reese, of Mahanoy City, were married at Philadelphia on Saturday. This is the couple that eloped about a week ago. Cards are out announcing the coming wedding of Miss Lillie I. Simpson, of Port Carbon, to Mr. T. J. Ditzer, of Philadelphia, on Wednesday, September 27.

Patrick Hobbs, of Mahanoy City, and Miss Mary Koch, of the First ward, of town, will be married in the Annunciation church on Wednesday, the 27th inst.

Deaths and Funerals. Lizzie, infant daughter of Michael Hughes, of North Catherine street, was buried in the Annunciation cemetery yesterday afternoon. M. O'Neill was the funeral director.

Sarah, a 20-month-old daughter of William Thomas, of East Centre street, Mahanoy City, died at the family residence yesterday of diphtheria. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon.

An Unfortunate Kid. Six-year-old Francis Maloney, of Mahanoy City, on Saturday placed a grape in one of his nostrils, causing the organ to swell considerably, and create much pain. The family physician was called and dislodged the grape after several hours of hard labor.

A Venerable Bridegroom. Maurus Jokal. Noted Hungarian Novelist. Wrote a Girl of Eighteen. Vienna, Sept. 18.—The Hungarian novelist Maurus Jokal, now in his 75th year, was married Saturday at Buda Pesth to the Hungarian actress, Arabella Grossmayr, a girl of 18.

The first wife of Jokal, the most productive and genial of Hungarian novelists, was Rosa Laborfalvi, the greatest of Hungarian tragediennes, whom he married in 1848, the year when he preclaimed the famous "Twelve Points of Peuth." In 1849 he followed the Hungarian government to Debreczin, where he edited The Abendblatt, and he was present at the capitulation of Vilagos, Aug. 13. To escape being made prisoner he resolved on suicide, but was hindered by the fortunate arrival of his wife from Pesth. She had converted all her jewels into gold, and the pair found their way on foot through the Russian army, reached a safe hiding place in the wood of Bokk, and at last got to Peuth in safety.

Flakes Weak Women Strong, And Sick Wanten Well. It is made from a formula of Dr. R. V. Pierce, the celebrated specialist in diseases of women at Buffalo, N. Y. It is a strictly temperance medicine, containing neither alcohol, opium or other narcotic poison. It cures irregularities, displacements, drains, ulcerations, inflammation, headache, backache and nervousness. It prepares the way for almost painless maternity, and insures robustness to the newborn. It cures women at home, and does away with obnoxious questioning and local examinations.

Some medicine dealers offer substitutes when you ask for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. They imitate this medicine in appearance as nearly as the law will allow, but they cannot imitate its record of thirty years of cure.

Mrs. Mattie Veughan, of Tigue, Hancock Co., N. Y., writes: "I had been sick for seven years, but in but six weeks using myself around. At last I took three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and use of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and it is impossible to describe in words the good these medicines did me."

Neither 'Discovery' nor the 'Favorite Prescription' contains any alcohol, opium or other narcotic.

GOLDIN'S.

GREETING! Fall and Winter--1899.

Cordial invitation is extended to the people of Shenandoah and vicinity to call and inspect our new fall and winter stock. We take pride in announcing that we can this season offer a larger and more complete assortment than ever before. For the past two months our stock has been arriving so that at the present we can safely say that a more complete line of Men's, Boy's and Children's Clothing cannot be found outside of the largest cities. The stock consists of all the latest and most fashionable designs and styles, and we make no idle boast in saying that we can suit and fit the most skeptical customer.

Another point we take pleasure announcing, is that our price on the above line cannot be beat for lowness