The Famous Prisoner Was Released From Prison To-day.
Special to EVENING HERALD.
Harris, Sept. 20.—Capt. Alfred Dreyfus, convicted by the court martial on the charge of treason, with extenuating circumstances, and pardoned yesterday by the Council of Ministers, was today released from prison. He once more breathes the air of freedom. It is believed that, with his wife, he will leave Rennes to-night for England.

KILLED BY A FALL.

Death in a Counter Chute—Victim Leaves a Large Family.
Daniel Blackwell, aged 45 years, fell down a counter chute in the Tunnel Ridge colliery at noon today and was so badly injured that he died a few hours later.
A piece of coal became lodged at the tip of the chute and Blackwell attempted to force it down with his foot, but lost his balance and fell a distance of eighty yards.
Blackwell was survived by his wife and nine children, the youngest child being an infant in arms.

Great Society Event.
Never in the history of our town has such a strong combination of dramatic and musical talent been centered in one attraction as will be seen at the performance of the Crane players in "The Boy from Boston," at Ferguson's theatre on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week. The Elmore Sisters number their friends and admirers by millions and will be sure to add the theatre-going public of our town to their hosts of friends. The United States Ladies' Military Band and Orchestra is composed of some of the finest musical talent in this country, each member having graduated from the different academies, and their vocal numbers are well worth going miles to hear.

Ladies, if you have any cloth to be made into a dress, jacket or cape just bring it to us, we will do the rest. Satisfaction and price guaranteed. THE FAMOUS.

The Case Settled.
The liquidating trustees of the Shenandoah Lumber & Feed Co. brought suit against Frank McAndrew, of town, but the case has been settled and will not be tried. The terms of settlement are as follows: "It is agreed that the Shenandoah Lumber & Feed Co. finish the McAndrew property on North Union St., Shenandoah, according to the written contract between the parties, and that when so completed the amount of $112 90, now due on said contract, be paid by Frank McAndrew and Mary McAndrew, his wife, owners of the property."

The Rain Fall.
John H. Strach, civil and mining engineer in the employ of the Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Company, who is an authority on the snow and rain fall in this vicinity, having kept a careful record for many years, reports a total precipitation of nearly 31 inches for the first eight months of this year. There is nothing remarkable in the record for this year, it being on an average about the same as in other ordinary years for that period of time.

The Prison Statement.
The statement of receipts and expenses for the month of August at the county prison is as follows: Maintenance, $281.47; total expenditures, $1,411.43; sales from weaving and knitting, $906.66; cash receipts, $616.80; average prisoners, 155; average daily cost of maintenance, 72 cents. Goods manufactured: flag carpet, 1,708 1/2 yards; ticking, 127 yards; half hose, 1,137 dozen pairs.

Robbers at Frackville.
Frackville has been troubled with a desperate gang of housebreakers during the past two months. At least five places have been robbed during this time, and the whole town has been thoroughly aroused. The officers of the law have been working on a clue and have discovered several of the miscreants. Arrests will shortly follow.

Paying School Orders.

PRESBYTERY ADJOURNED.

Large Amount of Business Transacted During the Sessions.

LAST EVENING'S PROCEEDINGS!

Admission to and Retirement From the Ministry Made at To-day's Session—Election of Trustees—Two Special Meetings Arranged—Eulogy For Dr. Belville.

Among the late arrivals at the session of the Presbytery of Lehigh in the First Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon, due to a delay of trains, owing to a slight wreck to a preceding train, were Revs. F. F. Kell, Albert J. H. Eastman, Pottsville; J. A. Metz, Bangor, and F. H. Laird, Portland. Also Dr. Warfield, of Easton, and Elder W. K. Woodbury, Esq., of Pottsville. Mr. J. B. Lewis was enrolled as representative of the local congregation.

MODERATOR ELECTED.
Rev. F. S. Hort, of South Bethlehem, nominated Rev. J. H. Eastman, D. D., of Pottsville, as Moderator. Rev. D. M. Buchanan, of Mauch Chunk, seconded the nomination and the election was made by acclamation. Rev. J. E. Pollock, of Juncosburg, the retiring Moderator, gave the newly elected Moderator a cordial greeting to the chair. Dr. Eastman made a brief and graceful acknowledgment.

Rev. H. W. Kohler moved that Rev. D. L. Evans, pastor of the First Baptist church of town, and a member of the Northeastern Baptist Association, be invited to sit in the Presbytery as a corresponding member. The motion was adopted by a rising vote. Rev. Evans presented himself and was given the right hand of fellowship by Moderator Eastman.

MR. WILLIAM E. STEEKL, of Allentown, appeared before the Presbytery and declined to be examined, with a view of being received under its care as a candidate for the gospel ministry. The committee on education recommended that the examination be proceeded with, which was done. Mr. Steekl was received as desired and recommended to the Board of Education for aid.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED.
Moderator Eastman announced the appointment of the following committees: Bills and Ordinances—Revs. J. H. Pollock, J. Campbell and J. E. Eggert; and Elders D. H. Day and Joseph Matchett. Narration—Rev. L. W. Eckard and Elder C. E. Webster. Leave of Absence—Revs. F. S. Hort, R. B. Jack and Elder W. A. Wolf.

On motion of Rev. Kohler, Rev. James Moore, pastor of the local P. M. church and member of the Pennsylvania Conference of the Primitive Methodist church, was invited, by a rising vote, to sit as a corresponding member of the Presbytery. Rev. Moore was cordially received by Moderator Eastman.

THE TREASURER was authorized to borrow sufficient money to bear the expense of one minister and one elder as delegates to the Synod.

REMOVAL OF MINISTERS.
Rev. J. F. Pollock and Elders Charles Stewart and R. E. Williams, whose terms as trustees of the Presbytery expired, were re-elected to succeed themselves by acclamation.

REVS. J. BELVILLE, D. D., J. W. BOAL, D. D., and Elder Charles Stewart, whose terms as members of the committee on Synodical Sustentation expired, were re-elected by acclamation.

THE REPORT of the commissioners to the last General Assembly was read and the action of the commissioners approved.

THE REPORT of the special committee on visitation to Lafayette college to the re-dedication of the order of procedure in removing a minister from one charge to another in the same Presbytery, and it was looked upon as one of the most important documents of the day. The procedure stated was as follows:

THE CALL should be read; (2) a motion that it be found in order to hear the commissioners appointed to prosecute the call; (4) to hear the commissioners from the church of which the called is pastor and, if necessary, the pastor; (5) after all parties have been heard a motion to put the call into the hands of the minister called in the next step; (6) a motion to release from the present charge, should he signify his willingness to accept the call, is the final step in the order.

A report by Rev. Chamberlain, of Pottsville, on systematic benevolence was highly commended.

THE COMMITTEE on education reported having received communications from the Registry of Princeton Seminary, and the committee stated that it was well pleased with the work of the students and their records.

Rev. E. Maxwell Morrison extended a cordial invitation to the Presbytery to hold its spring session at Mahanoy City, and the invitation was as cordially received.

THE REBELS WEAKENING

Insurgent Offer to Deliver American Prisoners to General Otis.

THEY ALSO WANT A CONFERENCE.

Military Operations, However, Will Not Be Restrained, as the Proposed Conference May Be Another Trick of the Insurgents to Gain Further Time.

Washington, Sept. 20.—Secretary Root yesterday received a cablegram from General Otis that seemed to indicate a weakening on the part of the insurgents in Luzon. It contained a proffer to deliver the American prisoners, who have been for so many months in the hands of the insurgents, and also sought permission to parley with General Otis.

This cablegram was at once taken by Secretary Root over to the cabinet meeting and formed the main topic of discussion at the beginning of the session. However, upon reading the message carefully its apparent importance seemed to diminish. Secretary Root himself did not regard the matter as of importance at this time. He recalled frequent efforts on the part of the insurgents in the past to gain time at critical moments by opening negotiations, ostensibly with the object of making peace, and he was not sure but this last offer was something of the same kind. However, the secretary was of the opinion that it would be worth the while to afford the insurgents any advantage. General Otis would receive any messenger and listen to him and make answer to his proposals, but this would not restrain the military operations in the slightest degree and the American arms would lose no ground, no matter how the negotiations turned out.

There is a possibility also that the insurgents may have become disheartened in the direction of reinforcing General Otis, and concluded, in view of the great force gathering to open the campaign in the dry season, that further resistance would be useless.

It is pointed out as a noticeable fact that Aguinaldo's name does not appear in General Otis' dispatch, and though this may not be of great significance still among some of the army officers it is surmised that there are serious dissensions among the insurgents and that perhaps some of the disaffected elements are acting on their own responsibility. The text of the dispatch follows:

"MacArthur reports from Angeles visit of two insurgent officers with request for permission to send into our lines American prisoners and to send to Manila prominent insurgent general officer for conference. The requested interview granted and insurgent officers at Angeles return north with information."

The capture of Lieutenant Gilmore and his party was one of the most stirring incidents of the insurrection. It occurred while the cruises of the United States navy were making a survey of the western coast of Luzon, with a view to locating some of the detached Spanish garrisons which had been long cut off from the populous centers. It was known that a Spanish garrison had been surrounded at Baler, on the eastern coast, and Lieutenant Gilmore, with a boat's party from the Yorktown, was sent ashore to reconnoiter the surrounding country. He divided his command, one party remaining near the shore, while another pushed inland. This was the last heard of the lieutenant and the 15 men who accompanied him. The other members of the party waited for a long time, but got no trace of their companions, and finally were obliged to return to the ship without them.

Admiral Dewey at once reported the loss to the navy department, and before he left Manila used every possible means to learn the condition of the captive Americans. At first it was feared they had lost their lives, but later definite information was received that the following were alive at San Isidro, an insurgent stronghold: Lieutenant Gilmore, Chief Quartermaster William Walton, Sailmaker's Mate Paul Vanduit, Coxswain John Ellsworth, Apprentice Albert Peterson, Landman Silvio Briseolese, Lyman P. Edwards and Fred Anderson.

Captain Charles M. Rockefeller, of the Nineteenth Infantry, is also supposed to be a prisoner with the insurgents. He disappeared last April, and no trace of him has been discovered.
