deputies for the department of the Seine, accompanied by the brother of

Jules Guerin, the anti-Semite agitator entered the Grand Occident, the building in the Rue de Chabrol where M Guerin and his companious have long been besieged. When they emerged at 12:30 this morning, it was announced that M. Guerin had promised to sur render at 4 o'clock this morning.

Precisely at the hour appointed a captain of the municipal guards rapped at the door of Fort Chabrol. There ween moment of expectation, and then the door opened. M. Guerin calmly presented himself, meetly surrendered and was driven to the police depot in an open cub, seated beside the cap-tain of the guards. His companions were allowed to go free. Thus the six weeks siege ended in sublimely ridiculous style.

The night was well chosen by the government, as the excitement over the capture of the fort would inevit ably divert attention from the pardon extended to Dreyfus. The plan was to attack the building and arrest M Guerin and his band. The govern ment had given him until 4 o'clock this morning to surrender, and had a regular army to assault the fort if he refused. Troops, municipal guards mounted and on foot, and policemen to the number of nearly 1,000 were or

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM-I feel it my duty to write to you to tell you that I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and think there is no medicine in the world like it. I suffered for nine years, and sometimes for twelve weeks at a time I could not stand on my feet. I had female troubles of all kinds; backache, and headache all the time.

Seven different doctors treated me. Some said I would have to go to the hospital and have an operation performed. But oh! how thankful I am that I did not, that I tried your Vegetable Compound instead. I cannot say too much in its praise, nor thank you enough for what it has done for me. I want you to publish this in all the papers for the good of other sufferers.

The wives and mothers of America are given to overwork. Let them be wise in time and at the first indication of female trouble write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., forheradvice. This advice is promptly given without charge. The present Mrs. Pinkham's experience in treating female ilis is unparalleled; for years she worked side by side with Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, and for sometime past has had sole charge of the correspondence department of her great business, advising and helping by letter as many as a hundred thousand ailing women during a single year.

Rear Admiral Schley was very reticent when he left the White House after his interview with the president, and except to say that he always obeyed orders would make no statement as to the interview and offer no comment upon the assignment to the command of the South Atlantic station. To Rear Admiral Schley's friends who called to protest against the assignment the president said that he regards the station as of great importance, especially at this time, in view of the situation in South Africa and the unsettled condition of affairs in some of the South American countries. Far from regarding the assignment is a slight, the president told Admiral Schley's friends he re garded it as a mark of distinction. Besides, he said, it was the only way
