THE BRITONS WORKING FOR TIME

When Troops Now Hurrying to Cape Colony Have Been Landed It Is Be-Heved the British Authorities Will Take Action to Force Their Demands.

London, Sept. 20.-Summons were issued late yesterday afternoon for a cabinet council, which, it is understood, will be held on Friday. This is regarded as the result of the visit of the premier, Lord Salisbury, to the foreign office, whither he came yesterday afternoon. Joseph Chamberlain, the secretary of state for the colonies, was present in the building at the same time, and as a private doorway connects the offices it is presumed that Even rumors of a movement of the Boers across the Natal border apparently fail to excite the military au thorities here, who profess at least not to fear such a contingency for the present.

In the meantime the movement of troops proceeds. The Royal West Sussex regiment left yesterday for Malta, where it will replace the First border regiment, which goes by the same steamer to Natal.

It is announced that the British first

The lull in the crisis gives opportunity for the continuance of unofficial negotiations. The government of the Netherlands is privately exerting its influence in favor of a pacific solution, and it is understood that President Kruger, through Dr. Leyds, the plenipotentiary of the South African Reinfluence in favor of a pacific solution, and it is understood that President sublic to the European governments, has unofficially approached three powers with a view to their intervention

RELEASE OF DREYFUS.

French Council of Ministers Decides Upon the Captain's Pardon.

PARIS FREE FROM EXCITEMENT.

Anti-Dreyfusard Papers Make a Rabid Attack Upon Loubst, But Fall to to Arouse the Excitable Frenchmen. The Captain Will Probably Go Abroad

Paris, Sept. 20.-The council of min-Isters decided yesterday to pardon Captain Dreyfus in principle, and Dreyfus has relinquished his appeal for a reversal of the judgment of the court martial. It is announced that the pardon will take effect in a few days, but this is only a subterfuge, and it may be that the pardoned officer is even now breathing the air of freedom. It is said that Dreyfus will be sent abroad before the pro-mulgation of his pardon, in order to avoid demonstrations.

There is much remark here on the strange coincidence of the death yes-terday of M. Scherrer-Kestner, the first champion of Dreyfus, and whom Dreyfus virtually owes his freedom, on the very day the cabi-net decided to pardon the prisoner. M. Scheurer-Kestner's death was sudden. He had been ill during the last few days, but it was not thought that his illness would prove fatal.

The decision of the cabinet to pardon Dreyfus created less interest in Paris than would the result of a big horse race. In fact, it may be said that it caused no excitement whatever. There was no rioting on the boulevards. In front of the offices of The Libre Parole, where a crowd usually assembles in the evening to gaze upon the huge colored transpar-encies outside the windows of the leading anti-Semite organ, there was not the slightest gathering or the faintest sign of demonstration, either for or against Dreyfus.

One would think that the fire of the Dreyfus agitation had burned itself The anti-Dreyfusard evening papers tried to infuse interest into the government's action by a rabid at-tack upon President Loubet, but their efforts were futile. The peaceful crowds that filled the tables in front of the cafes, sipping their after-dinner sheets with their violent headlines, but utterly refused to get excited. The majority did not even discuss the matter, or only made the passing remark that the decision was just what had been expected and predicted by every Parisian newspaper since the Rennes court martial delivered its veridet.

anti-Dreyfusard newspaper, Soir, had the most sensational captwo lines of enormous letters

"Loubet has given himself a coup de grace in pardoning Dreyfus. He should be prosecuted for committing an outrage upon the army, for his decision amounts to this. By a stroke of the pen he has destroyed the effect of the sentences of two court martials and has declared that two military courts have lied. The affair has besumes the leadership of the anti-mili-tary movement and pardons a confessed traitor, under the prefext that he has been condemned twice instead of ed traitor, under the pretext that he has been condemned twice instead of once."

The Presse says: "Dreyfus withdrew his appeal today. This was the 'various formalities' mentioned in the official communication as 'romaining to be fulfilled' before the pardon would be signed. The traitor will now be set free and be able to give lectures in England and America on the secrets of the iron safe of the etat major bureaux."
