

OUR COUNTRY: First, Last and Forever.

An Indian Territory man was arrested for expanding a $1 silver certificate to $10. Yet there are those who expect to see no wrong in making every dollar in the country worth only 45 cents.

CHAIRMAN RILLING and Secretary Moyer, of the Democratic State Committee, heartily endorse the Democratic-Republican fusion in Chester county. Are these two leaders traitors to the cause?

SEVERAL papers have published articles intimating that Prof. Baldwin has put forth the doctrine that under certain circumstances physicians can properly destroy human life. Prof. Baldwin replies that he took no such position. He says: "Of the somewhat numerous interviews with reporters with which I have been favored since my return home, one was induced by the following telegram from a leading New York newspaper to its local correspondent here: 'Get interview with Judge Simeon Baldwin, in which he declares old men should be put to death. Some other paper has it. Land it for us and send all he says.' I informed my interviewer that I could not gratify him by such a declaration, but I dare say the other paper, whatever that was, did have it, whether obtained from land or sea, or the banks of the Ganges, where I believe such is, or long was, the rule of filial conduct."

GEN. GRANT used to say that it was his constant worry when he was President that he was so weak as a politician. He started out in his first administration to fight the leaders in politics, or rather overlook or ignore them, but it did not take him long to discover his mistake. When the Senate rejected the nomination of his Attorney General, Mr. Ebenezer Rockwood Hoar, to be an Associate Justice on the bench of the Supreme Court, Gen. Grant reached the conclusion that he was pursuing a wrong policy and, unlike the stubborn Grover Cleveland, he changed his policy by taking the politicians of his party into his confidence. Men whose reputations as leaders in politics is unquestioned, say that Mr. McKinley is a master of the art and yet there is not a member of the Cabinet who could properly be classed as a politician even of the ordinary stripe. Strange as it may seem, Secretary of State Hay comes nearer than any of his colleagues in filling the bill. His recent letter to Mr. Dick, the chairman of the Republican State Committee of Ohio, was a good illustration of the truth of the assertion.

The World Our Market. The protective tariff does not seem to be so bad a thing after all. Democratic statesmen insisted, during the recent discussion in Congress, that it would reduce our foreign markets, yet we have gone on increasing our exports so that we are selling to the outside world a million dollars' worth of manufactures every day in the year, or twice as much as two years ago.

To quote Secretary of State Hay, who, from his position overlooking our commerce with the world, is especially able to speak with accuracy: "We have gone far toward solving the problem which has so long vexed the economists of the world—of raising wages and at the same time lowering the cost of production—something which has not other people have ever accomplished in an equal degree. We pay the highest wages which are paid in the world. We sell our goods to such an advantage that we are beginning to furnish them to every quarter of the globe. We are building locomotives for railways in Europe, Asia and Africa; our bridges can be built in America, ferried across the Atlantic, transported up the Nile, and flung across a river in the Soudan in less time than any European nation with a start of 4,000 miles can do the work. We sell iron-works in Birmingham; carpets in Kidderminster; we pipe the sewers of Scotch cities; our bicycles distance all competitors on the continent, and Ohio sends watch cases to Geneva."

A New York Physician Advises His Patient to Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 72393. "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I have three children and suffered with falling of the womb and flooding. My physician scraped the womb, still the flooding continued and I was no better. At last he advised me to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Then I thought I would write to Mrs. Pinkham for she could advise me better than any one if I was to take her remedies. I received her reply and followed all her directions and I am very glad to send you this testimonial, for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is just what it is recommended to be. I advise all women who suffer from these complaints to try it."—MARRI LEMP, 108 2D AVE., NEW YORK CITY.

"A year ago I was a great sufferer from painful menstruation. I could not lie down or sit down for the dreadful pain each month. I wrote to you and took twelve bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has helped me so I cannot find words to express my gratitude toward Mrs. Pinkham. I am to-day well and hearty."—MISS JOSE SAUL, DOVER, CLARE CO., MICH.

More than a million women have been helped by Mrs. Pinkham's advice and medicine.

Pattern Makers on Strike. Philadelphia, Sept. 22.—The union pattern makers of this city yesterday struck for a nine hours' work day. Last Monday the union sent a request to all firms that, beginning with yesterday, nine hours be constituted a day's work, and stipulating that if the request was not granted a strike would be immediately begun. The pattern makers held a meeting last night, and it was found that 21 out of 55 firms employing union men had signed the nine hours' agreement. Some of the remaining 34 firms have either discharged or locked the pattern makers out, and some have not yet given an answer to the men. About 500 pattern makers are affected.

ROOSEVELT TO THE RESCUE. Says the Grand Army Veterans Will Lead the Dewey Parade. New York, Sept. 22.—General Roe, chairman of the committee on land parade of the Dewey celebration, finds himself between two fires as a result of the Grand Army of the Republic's refusal to take part in the pageant unless they can have the right of line. Commander Shaw says positively the Grand Army will not parade unless its request is acceded to. General Roe announces with equal positiveness that if he is not sustained by the committee he will resign from all connection with the parade.

Governor Roosevelt, speaking at the Otsego county fair at Cooperstown yesterday, said: "I transacted one piece of business today that may be of interest to you of the Grand Army. I see by the press a statement that there had been some hitch in the arrangements of the parade to meet Dewey, and I telegraphed to the major general commanding the national guard of this state that the Grand Army is to have the right of position or anything it wants in the parade. If I can bring it about, I am going to have the heroes of the great war occupy the foremost position."

Governor Roosevelt is General Roe's superior officer, and the Grand Army will probably march in the place of honor.

Fell From a Mast to Death. Jacksonville, Sept. 22.—At Miami yesterday Antonio Fernandez y Ferrero and Jose Montro Augur were repairing a mast on the steamship Cocos when the masthead gave way and they fell to the deck. THE DREYFUS REUNION.

The Famous Ex-Captain Again Greets Wife and Children.

HE LONGS FOR A HOLIDAY.

"I Shall Now Be Able to Laugh and Play With My Children in the Beautiful Country"—His Physical Weakness Causes Deepest Apprehension.

Carpentras, France, Sept. 22.—Former Captain Dreyfus arrived here yesterday and went to the home of M. Valabreque, his brother-in-law, who has been established as a cloth merchant here for a quarter of a century. Although Dreyfus' arrival was soon known, no demonstration occurred.

Mrs. Dreyfus and the children arrived here this morning. The little ones have not been permitted to learn of the hardships through which their father has passed, and the greeting they accorded him was wildly boisterous. Captain Dreyfus and his wife, on the other hand, were deeply affected, and the children could not understand why their parents should weep over a family reunion.

While Dreyfus' health does not permit of his receiving visitors, it is hoped the climate will restore his strength during the next few months, which he is expected to spend here.

A correspondent of the London Daily Mail, who joined the Dreyfus party at Bordeaux and accompanied them to Carpentras, describes Dreyfus as "thoughtful, prematurely aged, with soft eyes, a smile like a woman's and rather the appearance of a savant than a soldier." When told of the great wave of British sympathy in his behalf he wrung the correspondent's hand and showed the deepest emotion.

His health, the correspondent says, is far from satisfactory. He ate meat yesterday for the first time. "It is against the doctor's orders," said Mathieu Dreyfus. "Ah," said the former captain of artillery, "let me have a holiday today. I will be sedate and obedient again tomorrow. I am just like a boy now, and feel that I could run and jump about the green fields for very joy. Just think, I shall now be able to laugh and play with my children in the beautiful country."

After the meal, despite his brother's half laughing protest, he smoked several cigars "to celebrate the holiday." The sad note amid the rejoicing was the death of M. Scheurer-Kestner.

"I am grieved beyond words," said Dreyfus. "To think that I shall never be able to thank that noble heart."

One of his first acts on obtaining his freedom was to have a wreath sent to be placed on the coffin of his champion and friend.

At present he speaks little of past events. He says: "I have forgiven, but I cannot forget," and he intends to devote himself to proving his innocence. When told of the account published he will only ask to be allowed to spend the remainder of his days with his loved ones, far from the busy world.

"His delight at everything on his journey," continues the Daily Mail's correspondent, "was that of a man returning from the dead to the world he loved. The affection and solicitude of his brother are touching to see. His physical weakness causes the deepest apprehension in his friends. The journey was in the main uneventful, except for a few expressions of disappointment on the part of people who endeavored to get a glimpse of him."

Bismarck's Iron Nerve. Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. Killed by His Own Revolver. Chicago, Sept. 22.—The man who, under the name of "Waiter Lawrence" on Wednesday inflicted fatal injuries upon Frederick J. Filbert, the aged cashier of a private bank in Palatine, a town near here, died yesterday from a gunshot wound sustained in a struggle with Farmer Plaggio, who tried to rescue Filbert from his assailant. Filbert is still unconscious.

An Oregon Horror. Dillamook, Ore., Sept. 22.—The body of Della, the 12-year-old daughter of E. W. Scoville, was found yesterday at low tide in the Hehalem river with a stone tied around her neck. The girl had been missing from her home at Dillamook since Tuesday. It is thought the girl was assaulted and then murdered.

MURDEROUS STRIKERS HELD. Coroner's Jury Names Six of the Cartersville Rioters. Cartersville, Ga., Sept. 22.—The secret verdict of the coroner's jury in the Cartersville riot case is in two sections. The first states that Huse Bradley, John Black, T. L. Floyd and Henry Johnson came to their deaths by gunshot wounds inflicted during a riot and charges Wesley Shadowen, Willis Shadowen, Elmer James, J. Shadowen, W. Carney, Will Kelly and others unknown to the jurors with being engaged in the riot. The jury states that it is unable to say which of the accused men killed the negroes.

In the second section of the verdict the jury finds that the fifth negro killed, Sim Cummings, was shot by Elmer James and others, thus making a direct charge of homicide against James.

The negroes at the Brush mine attempted to kill one of their number whom they accused of betraying them into the hands of the white miners. The negro was rescued by the militia and fled the neighborhood. The white miners are now looking for him. They desire to prosecute him for participating in the Sunday riot, to offset the cases brought against them.

Naval Ensign's Sad Death. San Francisco, Sept. 22.—Ensign Noah T. Coleman, of the battleship Iowa, died yesterday in a private hospital as a result of a complication of troubles and a bullet wound inflicted by himself some time ago in an attempt at suicide. Young Coleman had been condemned to stand trial by court martial for various offenses, and attempted suicide. The wound would not have caused his death under ordinary circumstances, but his vitality was so weakened by worry that he could not survive. Ensign Coleman came from one of the oldest and most respected families of New York.

Elliott's Easy Victory. Yardville, N. J., Sept. 22.—J. A. R. Elliott, the champion wing shot, yesterday defeated Charles Zwirlein in a match of 100 live birds. Elliott killed 95 birds, while his opponent disposed of 81. The match was for $100 a side.

ARKANSAS MINE STRIKERS.

A Reign of Terror Exists in the Districts Affected.

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 22.—Mail advices show that a reign of terror exists in the coal mining districts of Sebastian county, where strikes of the union miners continue. At the Jenny Lind mine a crowd of non-unionists armed with Winchester celebrated the first pay day by getting drunk and riddling the steeple of a church with bullets.

At another time a non-unionist was accidentally killed while at work in the mines. Since the withdrawal of deputy United States marshals, who have been guarding the mines, the unionists have been armed with Winchester. The state authorities will refrain from interfering with importation of labor until the United States court of appeals passes on the decision of District Federal Judge Rogers declaring, in effect, that the state has no power to restrict the importation of men to take the places of strikers.

Hundreds of men have been imported by mining companies from Kentucky, West Virginia and Alabama. Some of these have been induced by the unionists to quit work. Short forces are working at all the mines affected by the strike and a coal famine is threatened in places dependent on Arkansas mines.

OFFICIAL PROGRAM

Dewey Reception Will be a Handsome Souvenir Well Worth Preserving.

The preparation of the New York State official program of the Dewey reception is now in progress, and orders are received from all over the country and abroad for this great popular souvenir of the national event which indicates the interest manifested by the general public in the great reception to be extended to Admiral Dewey on his arrival in New York, September 28. The State legislative committee, of which Senator John Raines is chairman, has perfected all arrangements for the Dewey reception.

Mr. George T. Parker has returned from Washington, where he had been in consultation with the navy and other officials. The indications now are that from an artistic standpoint will be equal, if not superior, to any souvenir program of like nature ever published.

Portraits of national, state and city authorities will be likewise included. Many other features, together with the full official program of the naval and land parades, will make this program well worth of preservation as a memento of an extraordinary event in the history of the Empire State.

Orders, enclosing the price, 25 cents postal note, should be sent to George T. Parker, treasurer, 235 Broadway, New York, and they will receive prompt attention.

For forty years Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has been curing summer complaint, dysentery, diarrhoea, bloody flux, pain in the stomach, and it has never yet failed to do everything claimed for it.

Nebraska's Republican Ticket.

Omaha, Sept. 22.—The Republican state convention yesterday was one of the most harmonious gatherings ever held by the party in this state. M. B. Reese of Lincoln was nominated for supreme judge and E. G. McGill of Omaha and William B. Ely of Alameda for regents of the state university for the first ballot. Judge Reese has served six years on the supreme bench, retiring six years ago to resume the practice of his profession.

Detroit Three-Cent-Fare Scheme Dead.

Detroit, Sept. 22.—It is announced today, on authority of Elliott G. Stevenson, member of the late street railway commission appointed to purchase the street railways of Detroit for the city, that the entire Pingree cent fund of municipal ownership and three cent fares is dead and permanently abandoned. It is now regarded as altogether improbable that Governor Pingree will consent to be a candidate for mayor this fall.
