OUR COUNTRY; First, Last and Forever.

Anizona stands third in the list of copper-producing regions. Mining metals at the market rates is a prosperous business, much more so than trying to make them a legal tender at double their real value.

As trust corporations are creatures of the state, argues the Philadelphia Record, "It is the right and duty of day morning from the slope region the state to compel them to publish the condition of their finances and business." The demand for compulsory publicity in trusts is growing all along the line.

OFFICIALS say that if traffic confinnes to grow in October and November as it has in the last thirty days a car famine will exist on every road in the country. This, they say, means that earnings will continue to show large gains over those of former this section: Fair; warmer; fresh years. The famine will likely result after the supply of cars has been increased to meet the demand.

His Own Life. Pittaburg, Sept. 27.—A. P. Stephenson, a prominent and wealthy mer-chant of this city, tried to kill his wife last evening and then committed suicide. Stephenson had been drinking heavily for several weeks and during fits of melancholy had frequently threatened to kill himself. At dinner last evening he quarreled with his wife. and without warning drew a revalver and fired at her. The bullet missed, and Mrs. Stephenson, grabbing up her youngest child, ran into the kitchen. Stephenson followed and fired two more futile shots, and then his wife son fainted. Believing that he had killed her he placed the revolver to his temple and killed himself instantly. Mrs. Stephenson was uninjured.

GEN. LUDLOW'S PROCLAMATION.

He Warns the Workingmen Against Following the Lead of "Self Seeking Demagognes," and Declares He Can Find Room For 2,000 Prisoners.

Havana, Sept. 27.-Owing to the police breaking up the meeting Mon-day night which had been called by the general committee of the labor unions for the purpose of deciding whether a neveral strike should be ordered, the question has not yet been settled. Those who had organized the meeting had falled to give the authorities the requisite 24 hours' notice, as required by law, and the 2,000 men who had assembled were therefore dispersed and the headquarters of the strikers were occupied by the police and some secretaries. A number of the leaders have been arrested for circulating leaf lets containing an inflammatory attack

Civil Governor Rivers says the mat-ter is out of his hands and entirely within the jurisdiction of the military authorities. To all intents and pur-poses the city is under martial law. The civil authorities will do their utmost to co-operate and will do nothing to embarrass the military governor Smor Rivera declares that if it de volved upon him to settle the dispute he would not have to use force. V'hen Chief of Police Cardenas asked him for instructions his reply was that the chief should carry out the orders the military authorities, although the same breath he strongly dis General Eudlow says that if it should be necessary he can find room at the presidio for 1,000 prisoners, and at Cabanas for as many more. Where all the rights of citizens are at stake be considers that existing military power should supercede any legal tech nicality.

The military governor has issued a long proclamation, which is in part as

"The present juncture, when certain are seeking to destroy the peaceful in-dustries of the city and to mislead the workingmen into a general conspir-acy to paralyze the life and movement of the community, it behooves me, for the interest of all concerned and as the immediate representative of the United States government, to publish a word of warning.
