The Third division will consist of the merchant marine steamers, and an indiscriminate flee. of tigs, barges and unattached vessels will bring up the rear. Admiral Dewey has already expressed some doubt that he will be able to go through the duties attendant on his reception without suffering extraordinary fatigue. The routine of the admiral's movements for the two days of the celebration has been fixed. It will occupy at least 12 hours of today and 16 hours tomorrow.

Greetings in Song. Twelve hundred strong, the People's Choral Union, led by Frank Dam-rosch, paid a tribute of song last night to the sea heroes. About 700 of the singers were women. In the steamer Warwick they left the pier at Beekman street at 7:40 p. m., and 40 minutes later the Warwick lay to 50 yards from the stern of the Olympia. "My Country, "Tis of Thee," was the first number, and as soon as it was over the jackies and officers expressed their appreciation by three hearty cheers and a tiger.

Then the flash lights played and showed the admiral's flag at the mast head. Three cheers arose from the Warwick, and then 1,200 singers broke forth into the stirring strain, "See, the Conquering Hero Comes." The band of the Olympia played the "Star Spangled Banner," and the band on the Warwick joined in, and the Olympians helped the visitors to fill the night with the magnificent chorus.

"Three cheers for Dewey," some one on the Warwick called, and a roat went up from the dim dark line along the rail of the Olympia, as well as from the excursion boat.

The Union next sang the Hallelujah The Union next sang the Hallelujah chorus from Handel's "Messiah" as the Warwick drew away, but the anxiety of the singers to crowd the bow and try to get a glimpse of the admiral cut the singing short. Further away the Warwick drew and the singers united in the fine music of "Men of Harlech." WARLIKE TRANSVAAL

Armed Burghers Assembling Near the Natal Border.

BOERS DISTRUST CHAMBERLAIN.

Could President Kenger Deal Directly With Premier Sailsburythe Path way to Peace Would Probably Be Smooth Cannot Overrate Colonial Secretary.

London, Sept. 29.—A dispatch to The Dally Mail from Charlestown says: Commandeering is proceeding in the Wakkerstroom district and probably throughout the Transvaal. Two thousand armed burghers are assembled at Wakkerstroom, which is eight miles from the Natal border and outh miles from the Nath border and 11 from Laings Nek. Twelve hundred have been ordered to Sandspait. 13 miles west of the Natal border, where they will meet Orange Free State artillery, which has been lying low in this neighborhood for a fortnight.

The Preturn correspondent of The Daily Telegraph says: The Transvant executive are absorbed in war preparations. Many Roers oppose aggressive action on religious grounds.

The Daily News, which appeals to Kruger's reply before sending a sec-ond dispatch, cays: "If, as has been asserted on behalf of the Transvani all trouble would have been avoided had Mr. Chamberlain's dispatch last Friday said 'convention' instead of 'conventions,' we do not believe a British cabinet would decline to clear the matter up. It is for President Kruger to speak, if it is indeed only a matter of a consonant, for we are convinced that it is in his power to get the consonant cut off.

The Daily Chronicle says: "We understand, on the best authority, that the delay attending the Boer reply the delay attending the Boer roply is due to hopes still entertained by the Transvani of a peaceful settlement. The Boors distrust Mr. Chamberlain. They fear that if they make concessions he will only increase his demands. Heretofore they have been trying to approach Lord Salisbury dispatch.

They trust the premier as much as they distrust the colonial secretary, and if Lord Sallsbury would give a pledge that the golden bridge was meant seriously they would venture upon it. We regret to say that this last desperate effort has broken down, since Lord Salisbury cannot go be-hind Mr. Chamberlain without creating a cubinet crisis.
It is deplorable, nevertheless, that state eliquette should be strong enough to obstruct the path to peace. We hope it is not true that Mr. Chamberlain intends to demand disarmament, a heavy indemnity and the withdrawal of Dr. Leyds, which could only result in
