DAY OF REST FOR DEWEY.

A Local Occurrence That Will Inter- Saturday that his hand pained him se-

Admiral Dewey rose early yesterday morning, however, sending for a cup ten at 6 o'clock. Shortly after he sered a light breakfast, which was sent to his apartments and which he ate alone. When the admiral had fin-ished his breakfast he sent for his private physician, Dr. Percy, who we selesseted with him for a few minutes.

Admiral Dewey later called on the members of his family. He received Mayor Van Wyck about 6 o'clock, Mayor Van Wyck ated as miral's room, he escorted him down to the parlor where the Chicago delegation was to be received, and was the only representative of the city in

Before the applause could get a fair start he had bowed himself out. At 9:25 Mayor Carter Harrison, ac-companied by one of the committee-men, arrived at the hotel. The other members of the committee came straggiing in, and at 9:50 they were all present. The doors of the big ball room on the Waldorf side were thrown tee, headed by Mayor Harrison, en-tered the room. Mayor Harrison then advised the committee of the request that the admiral be excused from hand shaking. Promptly at 10 o'clock Admiral Dewey came into the room. He wore civilian suit with frock coat and dark trousers and carried no hat. The in stant he appeared there was a burst of appliance. He saluted and said: "Good morning, all." Admiral Dewey met Mayor Harrison as he advanced with a cordial greet-ing. Mayor Harrison then said a few words and presented Chicago's invita-tion, saying in conclusion: "If you cannot come to us now, then consider the invitation a standing one, and come at your own pleasure. I now hand you the formal invitation of the Admiral Dewey received the invita-tion that Mayor Harrison extended to him. Admiral Dewey held the invita-tion in his hand and turned its pages. As he continued to turn over the leaves he glanced up and said:

The Admiral's Speech.

"Mr. Mayor and members of the committee, the honor is mine. I consider it a great honor to be waited upon by such a delegation as this, and I consider it a greater honor that the invitation is put in such a nice way, allowing me to sat my own time to visit your city. I wish I could go to your city tomorrow, but that is impossible. As you know, I am due in Washington. Then I must go to Vermont. I must have some rest, and I have not been there for years. It is my great regret that I cannot go at once to your city. I wish so much I could be there when President Mc-Schoppe BIL MINSTREES could be there when President Mc-Kinley will be there. I have a great regard for Chicago. It is a great city, and during the last year some of the grandest letters I have ever received came from Chicago. I thank you Mr. Mayor, and I thank you, Chicagoans." As Admiral Dewey concuded there was a moment's pause. Each of the two principals seemed to hesitate. At that moment some one in the front of the crowd stepped forward to shake hands with the admiral. Mayor Harrison quickly interposed himself bewesterner, saying, as he placed his hand on the man's shoulder: "Don't do that, please; don't ask Admiral Dewey to shake hands this morning." As Admiral Dewey was leaving the room there was a burst of applause, and he turned and waved a salute with his hand as he disappeared behind the heavy curtains.

Mayor Harrison expressed himself as well pleased with the reception as well pleased with the reception given him and the committee. When asked if he thought that Admiral Dewey would go to Chicago, he looked surprised and said; "Go? Of course he will. Didn't he say he would go some time? That's all we came for to get his promise to go whenever he

Dewey Can Have the Town. Ferdinand W. Peck, United States commissioner to the Paris exposition, was among the Chicagoans yesterday, "When Admiral Dewey goes to Chicago he can have the whole town, the ounty and the state." The corridors of the Waldorf-Astoria were thronged all day with peo-ple anxious to catch even a glimpse of the great admiral, but none of them was given the pleasure of seeing Dewey. He was not down in the cor-ridors of the hotel at any time.

Admiral Dewey left the Waldorf-Astoria today at 12:15 o'clock on his journey to Washington. The trip from Jersey City to Washington is be-ing made on the most elaborate special train ever run by the Pennsylvania railroad. Admiral Dewey's personal party consists of himself, his son, George B. Dewey; his brother, Charles Dewey and wife; Captain Lamberton and wife, Flag Lieutenant Brumby and Lieutenant Caldwell. A special pri-vate car is provided for the admiral. In addition the following naval officers, as special guests, also accompany the party: Rear Admirals Sampson, Schley, Philip and Casey, Captains C. D. Sigsbee and Robley D. Evans, Commander E. P. Wood and Ensign E. L. Bennett. General Miles is also in

A RICHER KLONDIKE.

Discavered by Prospectors Repre-Minnespolls, Oct. 2.—The Times sublishes a letter from a correspondent at Fort Francis, One, under date of Sept. 20, which says:
"Ungraveland, a region as desolate and unknown as the Klondike was four venrs ago, has just been penetrated by a party of prospectors headed by a sewspaper man of this region, and consisting for the most part of men representing a wealthy Boston syndi-cate. From their reports and from statements made by a member of the Canadian geological survey, whom they found in that region, they have can into a new Klondike, and one richer in diversified minerals, of larger extent and engler to reach as compared to the los deserts of the Yukon.

Alout a read ago J. A. Osborne, editor of a nowspaper of this region, became the possessor of a diary that had been the resords of an old em-playe of the Hudson Bay company. He was astorished to find that it told etr cumstantially of the discovery of the of Hudson bay, north from the Whale river, one of the last remaining suexplored treets of the North American culty in inducing Boston explicities to provide lands to equip an expedition to explore for the mineral fields. The party found large and valuable deposits of gold, allver, copper, from anthracite and librate, gypsom and cinnibor. They have filed claims at the Dominion offices in Ottawa.

Twenty-threeof the Scotsman's trew Caught by Motreal Police, Montreal, Oct. 2.—The list of the sectaman's dead remained unchanged at 11 o'clock last night. Rev. Dr. Chaimers, the Congregational missionary of Hong Kong, who was reported missing, has been located. He is on board the Dominion line steamer Ot-toman, which arrived at Quebecyesterday, bringing Dr. Chalmers, other passengers and 28 of the Scots-man's crew. The captain, the chief and second and fourth officers still remain by the ship, and it is supposed that all the passengers and erew have been taken off Change Island.

The feature of the day was the ar-rest of 23 members of the Scotsman's erew, laden with plunder. They ar-rived in Montreal yesterday on the teamer Montfort. On the wharf, waiting to receive them, were 20 police of cealed until the gangways were alongide, when they suddenly swarmed on board and in a second had rounded up the Scotsman's crew. It was done so quickly that the men had no optraces of guilt. Half a dozen patro wagons were waiting alongside and into these the sailors were hustled, amid the jeers and hisses of a large crowd which had gathered.

When the men were searched there remained not the slightest doubt of the stories of billage and violence told b the unlucky passengers of the Scots
