CHANGING A ROAD.

The Brandonville Road Viewers Have Begun Their Work.

Hon. M. C. Watson, John P. Boehm and George Stauffer, the viewers recently appointed to view the route for the proposed new road between Kelly Run colliery and Reichert's hotel at Brandonville, held their first view yesterday at the hotel referred to, and heard a number of parties interested. A large number of residents of Union and East Union townships were present, and all appeared to favor the proposed change in the road.

The act of 1897 fixed the maximum grade at three degrees, but that act is not yet in force, for the reason that it is not to become operative until the sum of $1,000,000 has been appropriated by Act of Assembly to be distributed among the several townships of the State for the improvement of public highways.

POLITICAL POINTS.

Can any one name the Democratic candidate for Poor Director? The Republican League of Clubs will meet in Harrisburg to-morrow.

The Republicans of Shenandoah have denounced their fighting clubs. If you want to vote in November see that your taxes are paid by Saturday.

Just keep your eye on Horace Reber, the Republican candidate for Commissioner. He will knock the Democratic strongholds silly.

The past week has developed more activity on the part of the candidates of both parties than has been shown at any time heretofore during the present campaign.

The Pottsville Chronicle, with much show of spirit, denies that Al Depew, the Democratic candidate for Treasurer, runs a company, who said he did.

Where, oh where, is Uncle Jimmy dialogue in the present campaign? It looks very much as if Sheriff Toole has "served a writ" upon the fighting Ashland attorney.

It is said that Captain McLaughlin is not indulging in as many jokes as he is wont to do. He finds that the people are serious in their determination to elect Charles Berger the next District Attorney.

John T. Shoenor, candidate for Clerk of the Courts, is a lover of strength to the ticket, because of the warm side the workmen have for him. When Mr. Shoenor was in the Legislature he secured the passage of the Miners' hospital bill. This hospital is located near Ashland, and has proven a great boon to the working people.

Dr. O'Neill, chairman of the Republican County Committee, received a dispatch from State Chairman Reeder last evening stating that Col. James E. Barnett, Republican candidate for State Treasurer, will visit Schuylkill county on Tuesday, October 10, Pottsville, Shenandoah, Mahanoy City, Ashland, and probably other towns will be visited.

The Democratic candidates met at headquarters in Pottsville yesterday and conferred with Chairman Noonan. The latter has arranged several itineraries for the candidates, and yesterday afternoon they stormed the west end and wound up with a grand pep-talk at Pottsville. The candidates are active, and are putting up a good fight for a losing cause.

An important meeting of the Republican candidates was held at party headquarters in Pottsville this morning. The members of the Executive Committee were present and discussed the situation with the chairman and the party nominees. Those of them who have canvassed the county confidently predict the election of the entire ticket. This bright outlook, however, will not cause them to relax their efforts and to swell the majorities.

MAY HAVE A RIVAL.

Junior American Mechanics in Several States May Organize a National Council. The suspension of the State Council of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics by National Deputy Ogilvie, of Baltimore, at Saratoga a few days ago, is still the talk of the members of the fraternity. Yesterday a conference was held at Harrisburg, at which those present were National Councilor Chas. Reimer, of Baltimore; State Councilor Geo. E. Bowers, of Altoona; S. H. Barry, of Baltimore; and A. D. Wilkins, of Pittsburg, members of the National Council Judiciary Committee.

Former Attorney-General W. U. Hensel, of Lancaster, has been engaged as counsel by the National Council.

A circular has been sent out by the National Benefit Association of the order stating that the suspension of the Pennsylvania and District of Columbia councils has had no effect upon the standing of those councils with the association.

There is talk of a rival in the National Council to be organized by the New York, Pennsylvania, District of Columbia, Virginia and certain other state bodies.

REHEATON SUCCESSFUL.

A Week's Surveillance of a House Results in Arrests. For a week past Policeman Michael Reheaton had a house on East Centre street under surveillance and several times he warned the occupants that the neighbors were complaining about the place and, unless the practices complained of were discontinued, somebody would get into trouble. His warnings went unheeded and last night there was a quarrel in the place, the chief combatants being a woman known as "Jersey Lily" and one John Buddell.

Policeman Reheaton got the "Lily" in tow and she made disclosures which resulted in the woman swearing before Justice Toomey, charging Buddell with incense adultery. Reheaton arrested Buddell, who was committed in default of bail. Buddell then swore out a warrant before the same Justice charging the "Lily" with keeping a common bawdy house and she gave bail for trial at court.

In swearing out her warrant the "Jersey Lily" gave her name as Carrie Hartwell. Buddell declares that he is her father, notwithstanding the name she gives.
